JOE ROBBIE

PRESIDENT

Some people are content to rest on their success, but Joe Robbie is not one of them. Robbie prefers to build on that success, both figuratively and literally, and it is the residents of South Florida who have been the ones to benefit from his determination to overcome seemingly insurmountable barriers in that construction process.

As owner of the Miami Dolphins, Robbie has built one of the premier franchises in all of professional sports virtually from the ground up. He took an expansion team in 1966 and assembled an organization that went on to produce two National Football League Championships and three other American Football Conference titles while compiling the best regular season record in the league following the NFL-AFL merger in 1970. Under Robbie's direction, the Dolphin name has become synonymous with winning and has become one of the most recognized and popular teams in the country.

And as the driving force behind the construction of Joe Robbie Stadium despite so many obstacles, Robbie not only has provided a state-of-the-art facility for Dolphin fans, but also has brought Miami a Super Bowl, world-class soccer, the prospect of major league baseball, and numerous entertainment and family events. On so many occasions, Joe Robbie has proven that when he makes promises, he gets results.

Certainly his fellow owners in the NFL understand Robbie's determination. On March 14, 1985, even before ground had been broken and permanent financing granted on Robbie's proposed new stadium, his fellow owners had the confidence in him to award the 1989 Super Bowl to Miami. They knew that whatever it would take for Joe Robbie to obtain financing and get his stadium built in time, he would get it done. And their faith was rewarded when Super Bowl XXIII was played at Joe Robbie Stadium on January 22, 1989 in the most modern facility ever to host that game.

Bowl," said Philadelphia Eagles owner Norman Braman following the conclusion of the game. "It's simply the finest stadium in the league."

And make no mistake about it, it was Robbie and the stadium he built that was the fulcrum behind the NFL's decision to hold the game in Miami. The owners agreed to revisit a city with a rich tradition of Super Bowls (five of the first 13 were played there), but a city which they previously had elected not to return to since 1979, in large part because of the antiquated state of the Orange Bowl. Had Robbie not been determined to build a new stadium in Miami, it is unlikely that the city ever would have seen another Super Bowl.

However, for Robbie, getting the Super Bowl to come to Miami and his stadium was but one of the many battles he faced along the way in construction of his luxurious showpiece. When he first announced plans to build his own privately financed stadium at the Dolphins' 1984 awards banquet, the announcement was met with laughter and skepticism by many of those in attendance. Despite the many critics who said it never could get done, Robbie was willing to do something no one else dared to do, putting not only his reputation but all of his resources on the line to back his dream.

Today, that vision has come true. Joe Robbie Stadium is real, existing for all of South Florida to enjoy, and the joke is on those same people who laughed at plans for a new stadium only years before. What once was a sand dune where motorcyclists raced and refuse was dumped, is now a tropical garden. The $115-million facility will stand for decades to come as a lasting monument to the will and courage of the man whose name it deservedly carries.

"The mocking challenge in Miami was, 'If Joe Robbie wants a new stadium, let him build it himself.' I suppose that's what first got my interest. I don't think I'd have built it if they hadn't told me it couldn't be done," the Dolphins owner once said.

If not for Joe Robbie's dedication to the cause, his will to oppose the bureaucrats of local government, the Dolphins would have had no choice other than to continue playing in the Orange Bowl or move to another city.

In order to avoid either of these two scenarios, Robbie was forced to put everything he had ever obtained – including the Dolphins franchise – up as collateral to assure completion of the stadium project. "I wouldn't fault anybody for not laying everything on the line to build a new stadium," he said. "This is just my perverse nature. I once figured it out on a little pocket computer. I'll have everything paid for by 2016." He will be 100 that year.

Joe Robbie gives L.A. Dodgers manager Tommy Lasorda a tour of JRS before a Dodger-Oriole spring training game.

To be sure, many in the sports world have taken note of Robbie's tremendous accomplishment in getting the stadium built despite the adversity he faced.

"I think Joe Robbie is a trailblazer. This is a very exciting new development," said Chicago Bears president Michael McCaskey, who is using Joe Robbie Stadium as a model for a football stadium he would like to see built in the Windy City.

"Joe Robbie never bowed to the packs of bureaucrats and free-loading politicians who tried to bribe him into staying in the decaying Orange Bowl," said Norris Anderson, long-time columnist for Football News. "Name me another man in football today who could privately build a $115-million stadium without leaning on public funds. Joe Robbie did. He is the toughest man, pound for pound, I have ever met in football."

Joe Robbie is a man of iron will from a small town in South Dakota, whose character was born out of challenge and struggle in the early years of his life. The Robbie family was forced to overcome the Great Depression in the face of financial poverty. The struggle was difficult and the rewards few, but the challenge was met by young Joe through hard work, honesty and self-initiative.

The tone had been set for Joe Robbie's life.

By the time he was 50, Robbie already had made a significant contribution to society in the areas of politics, government administration, public service and trial law. Most men would have been satisfied with that much.

Not Joe Robbie.

In 1965, Robbie contacted AFL Commissioner Joe Foss, a former classmate at the University of South Dakota, about a client's interest in an expansion franchise for Philadelphia. Foss turned down the idea of Philadelphia, but suggested Miami as a possibility.

When his client was not interested in South Florida, Robbie himself took up the project. With only a successful trial lawyer's income and a family of 11 children to support, the odds were against his raising the $7.5-million franchise fee.

On top of the fee, Robbie had to overcome a virtual embargo on pro football imposed by the Orange Bowl Committee and the University of Miami, as well as adverse sentiment among AFL owners who preferred Atlanta for 1966 expansion.

Still he remained undaunted and did the leg work and research in preparation for the franchise application. Robbie gained a powerful ally in then-Miami Mayor Robert King High, who had received a total endorsement of him from then-Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, and followed that by recruiting show business personality Danny Thomas to be his co-applicant.

The AFL awarded Robbie and Thomas the franchise on Aug. 16, 1965. Robbie took over operation of the franchise as managing general partner and turned himself to the next challenge — building a championship team from the ground up.

From the word go, things were a struggle for the league's budding franchise and its bright new mind. Disappointment abounded, on the field and in the stands, as the team had a losing record of 15-39-2 and an average attendance of less than 29,000 over the first four years.

Thomas had sold out his interest in the Dolphins in 1967, and additional problems later arose when one of the limited partners secretly negotiated to move the team to Seattle. Robbie was quick to respond, recruiting five Miami investors to buy out the dissident partner's share and ensure the franchise remained in the city. Robbie had saved professional football in Miami.

Still, there were many skeptics as Robbie continued to make assurances that the Dolphins were in Miami to stay and that they would be a championship team one day. Those who really knew Joe Robbie never doubted him for a minute.

He took strong action in 1970, releasing the team's head coach, George Wilson, and hiring Don Shula, who had taken Baltimore to two NFL championship games.

The following season, Shula took the players Robbie and personnel director Joe Thomas had acquired in the first four years and turned the Dolphins into 10-4 playoff qualifiers from 3-10-1 losers in 1969.

In the last 19 years, the Dolphins either have won or shared first place in the division 13 times, and have become one of the most recognized franchises in all of sports history.

Making his Dolphins into a championship team had been an obsession of Robbie. Pulitzer Prize-winning author James A. Michener recognized the importance of this, describing it in his book "Sports in America." Michener wrote:

"The majority of owners I have met are like Joe Robbie of Miami, real devotees, men and women to whom the building of a respectable team becomes a passion, and they add luster to the sporting scene . . . In the end, they are willing to make extraordinary sacrifices in order to build a winner, and their loyalty to their team often exceeds that of their players."

One of the upcoming challenges for Robbie is to one day bring major league baseball to his new stadium. Large crowds for spring training games played at Joe Robbie Stadium (including an attendance of 26,417 for a New York Yankee - Baltimore Oriole game on March 25, 1989 which was the largest crowd ever to watch a big-league spring training game in the state of Florida) have gone a long way towards helping his chances. And his efforts in that area have drawn favorable comments by many baseball officials, including Yankee owner George Steinbrenner. "I'm a Joe Robbie fan, and I've been one for quite a while," Steinbrenner said. "He's one of those guys who knows what sports is all about."

An avid soccer fan as well, Robbie's involvement with the sport is extensive. He is chairman of the 1994 World Cup Founders Club, a group which worked to bring soccer's premier event to the United States. He had a long-time affiliation with the Minnesota Strikers of the Major Indoor Soccer League and more recently served as majority owner and chairman of the American Soccer League's Fort Lauderdale Strikers.

Robbie does not limit his energies to the area of sports, however. He involves himself personally in a number of civic endeavors. In addition, the Dolphins, under Robbie's direction, have given some $2 million to charitable organizations in the community that supports them.

Through the years, the awards presented to him and the positions of public service he has held reveal a side of Joe Robbie that can be lost in the shadow of the success of the Dolphins.

Presently, he sits on the board of trustees of the Public Health Trust at Jackson Memorial Hospital in Miami after serving as chairman of the board in recent years. In addition, he is chairman of the board of trustees of Pop Warner Little Scholars and also sits on the board of directors of the Florida 4-H Foundation and Camillus House. In the past, he has served on the board of governors as executive vice-chairman of St. Jude's Children's Research Hospital in Memphis, the board of governors of the annual Victor Awards for the benefit of the City of Hope National Medical Center, American Health Foundation and St. Leo College.

Recently, he was a member of the Site Selection Committee of the Democratic National Committee for the party's 1988 convention.

Robbie also has served on the board of directors of the United Way of Dade County, Catholic Service Bureau, Dade County Association for Retarded Citizens, Crippled Children's Society of Dade County and Miami Society of Autistic Children. In addition to previous work with the Heart Fund and Easter Seals, he also is an honorary member of the American Indian Scholarships, Inc.

In his native South Dakota, Robbie gives money for scholarships at all private colleges, in addition to sponsoring the Most Valuable Player awards for the state's high school football championships. For his many efforts in the Coyote state, Robbie was inducted into the South Dakota Hall of Fame in 1985.

In Florida, the Dolphins owner annually presents the Joe Robbie Award to the state's high school athletic director of the year.

In 1974, the Touchdown Club of Washington awarded Robbie the prestigious Timmie Award for "extraordinary achievement" by the Dolphins over a four-year period. He also has received the Junior Achievement Award from the Business Leadership Hall of Fame, the Gold Key Award from the National 4-H Congress as a distinguished alumnus, United States Jaycees Hall of Leadership Award, Order of the Knights of St. Gregory (a papal honor), the Humanitarian Award from the Big Brothers and Big Sisters of Greater Miami (he currently is on the organization's board of advisors), Owner of the Year Award by Minneapolis-St. Paul businessmen and the Football News' Man of the Year Award.

But perhaps no award sums up the challenge and struggle of Joe Robbie's lifetime better than the rare Horatio Alger Award, given to him in 1979. It is an honor bestowed on giants of the free enterprise system, as well as U.S. presidents, in recognition of outstanding careers developed through "personal effort out of hardship."

Fellow NFL owners long have recognized Robbie's unique blend of astute business practices and human compassion, twice electing him to serve on the NFL Management Council. He served from 1972-77 and has been a member once again since 1983. He also has served on the NFL Properties Committee.

Said New England Patriots president Billy Sullivan, who has been in pro football since 1959:

"Joe Robbie gave to the fans of South Florida one of the truly great franchises in the NFL. He has put frosting on the cake with his state-of-the-art facility, which provides a superb stage for the presentation of the greatest show on earth, NFL football. His stadium project is the finest contribution that any owner in my lifetime has made. He is an All-Pro in any man's language and he has enriched our society in an unparalleled manner."

Born July 7, 1916, in Sisseton, S.D., Robbie got an early start in the business world. He was earning money as a by-lined sports editor of the local Sisseton Journal-Press by the time he was 14. In 1934, he interrupted his senior year of high school to enroll in the Civilian Conservation Corps (CCC) and went to work in the Black Hills area of South Dakota.

His education was not forgotten, though. Robbie had promised both his mother and himself that he would go back to school after CCC camp. He fulfilled that promise, graduating in 1935 and going on to college – the only one from his Depression-year class to do so.

Robbie entered Northern State Teachers College in Aberdeen, S.D., with nothing more than a small amount of financial aid from a debate scholarship.

The day after the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor, Robbie volunteered as an enlisted man in the United States Navy. He rose through the ranks to become an officer and participated in five South Pacific theatre invasions. He received the Bronze Star for his service.

At war's end, Robbie returned to South Dakota to attend the University of South Dakota Law School, graduating with his juris doctorate in 1946.

While attending South Dakota, he was elected student body president. Coupled with his election to the same position at Northern State a few years earlier, Robbie may hold the distinction of being the only person ever chosen student body president at two different schools. Both schools subsequently have conferred an honorary doctorate degree upon him, as have five other colleges and universities.

Robbie also has served his alma mater by being national fund-raising chairman for the Dakota Dome, a $7.2-million arena at the University of South Dakota.

After being admitted to the South Dakota bar, Robbie started his law practice in Mitchell, S.D. Within two years time, he had been elected a representative to the South Dakota State Legislature, had served as State Democratic Chairman and was the candidate for governor on the Democratic ticket.

In 1951, his friend Hubert H. Humphrey encouraged Robbie to move his young family to Minneapolis. There, he was regional director of the Office of Price Stabilization for four states from 1952-53. He also became known as one of the best and most successful trial lawyers in the region.

Robbie would go on to combine politics with his law practice. He ran strongly against nationally-known and veteran Congressman Dr. Walter Judd in 1956 and 1958, despite the fact that Judd represented the solidly-Republican Fifth Congressional District.

Robbie received national recognition as chairman of the Minnesota Municipal Commission, which he presided over from 1959-65. He had drafted the bill, passed into law by the Minnesota Legislature, which created the commission. Other states subsequently have used that legislation as a model.

A devoted family man, Robbie remains close to his family despite the busy schedule he keeps. Wife, Elizabeth, is a Dolphins vice president, while three sons also hold positions with the team. Mike is responsible for the overall operation of the franchise as the team's executive vice-president and general manager, Tim oversees several departments as vice president of public affairs and Dan is director of sales and promotions for Joe Robbie Stadium. Daughter, Lynn, previously coordinated all interior decoration of the stadium's club level. Other Robbie children include sons Brian (who works on the Dolphins broadcast team of flagship station WIOD) and Kevin, and daughters Diane (Truly), Janet, and Deborah (Olson).

In the coming years, it will be common knowledge throughout the sports world that it was Joe Robbie who set the standard by building the first football stadium financed entirely with private funds, a feat pulled off against the greatest of odds.

And, because Joe Robbie will continue to meet the challenges of the day, who knows what more he might accomplish in the future.

DON SHULA

HEAD COACH

"I'm just a guy who rolls up his sleeves and goes to work. I don't have peace of mind until I know I've given the game everything I can.

"The whole idea is to somehow get an edge. Sometimes it takes just a little extra something to get that edge, but you have to have it."

— DON SHULA

For more than a quarter century, Don Shula has been winning football games in the NFL. But Shula never has been one to look back at his unprecedented accomplishments in the sport; instead he always is looking ahead, constantly working to build the Dolphins once again into winners. And his refusal to rest on his many laurels is an important reason why he is one of the most successful coaches in the history of the game.

"My goals are the same every year – to win the Super Bowl," said Shula, "and we will do everything we can to do just that. We're going to work as hard as we can to improve and get back to being a good football team. We want to win again."

But there is more to Shula than just his victories, as impressive as that total might be. While he has gained widespread respect for his success, beyond that he has earned universal admiration for his integrity, an intangible that can't be measured by a won-loss record. Without question, Don Shula has made an impression in football, both on and off the field, that may never be duplicated.

"If I'm remembered for anything as a coach," said Shula, "I hope it's for playing within the rules. I also hope it will be said that my teams showed class and dignity in victory or defeat."

And Shula's teams are an extension of that philosophy. It's no coincidence that the Dolphins have been the least penalized team in the NFL during his seasons in Miami. Shula represents everything that's right about his profession, and certainly his coaching accomplishments will almost be impossible to match. Beginning his 27th year as an NFL head coach and his 20th season with the Dolphins, he is travelling down a road whose final destination will be Canton, Ohio, and the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Some of the stops along that journey have established yardsticks for victories and championships virtually unmatched in NFL history:

- Shula is pro football's winningest active coach with a 277-124-6 overall mark (.688 winning percentage)
- Shula is second only to the immortal George Halas (325) on the all-time NFL coaching win list
- Shula is the only coach to guide a team through an undefeated season (17-0 in 1972)
- Shula has appeared in more Super Bowls (six) than any coach
- Shula is the only coach to reach the Super Bowl three straight seasons (1971-73)
- Shula is the youngest coach to win 100 games
- Shula is the youngest coach to win 200 games
- Shula's career winning percentage (.688) is the best among the NFL's all-time top-10 coaches
- Shula owns the second best regular-season winning percentage (.698) among all active NFL coaches
- Shula is the only coach to present two players for induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in the same year (Larry Csonka and Jim Langer, 1987)

Shula has become to coaching what his unbeaten 1972 Miami Dolphins are to team accomplishment: the standard of excellence by which all others are measured. He was voted Coach of the Decade for the 1970s by the Pro Football Hall of Fame's 25-member selection committee, and his Dolphins have reached the playoffs five more times in the 1980s.

His "ultimate" achievement was the NFL's first unbeaten, untied record of 17-0 in 1972 in only the third season of Shula's transformation of the Dolphins from a struggling American Football League franchise to an NFL power. His incredible two-year record of 32-2, including Super Bowl conquests in 1972 and 1973, probably never will be surpassed.

Maybe because Shula never regarded an unbeaten season as impossible, the feat became a reality.

With teams in Baltimore and Miami, Shula has built six unbeaten streaks of 10 or more games, and no other coach has more than two 10-game streaks. His .674 winning mark in 19 seasons in Miami (204-98-2) parallels his .728 percent success in Baltimore (73-26-4) from 1963 to 1969.

The Dolphins have either won or shared first place in the AFC East 13 times in the 19 years under Shula, and have reached the playoffs 12 times. His Dolphins were almost invincible at the Orange Bowl with an 111-26-1 record (.808), including an NFL-record 31-game winning streak at home from 1971 to 1974. A remarkable 18 times in 26 seasons, Shula's teams have won at least 10 games.

Shula, 59, has made a mark on the game as an innovator of defensive complexities and situational substitutions, and he has a reputation as a great motivator. Certainly, other coaches can develop brilliant strategy and exhort their players to perform at peak. But Shula seems to surpass others in his skill as a teacher.

"The important thing is not what Don Shula knows or what any of my assistant coaches know," Shula says. "The important thing is that we can transmit to the people we're responsible for. They're going to be tested on Sunday afternoon, and the fact that we win on Sunday afternoon indicates that we're getting through to them. That's what coaching is – the ability to transmit information."

Twice with the Dolphins, in 1970 and 1977, Shula has deployed five rookies in the starting defense and won 10 of 14 games each season. And for those exigencies brought on by injuries to his starting quarterback, Shula has more solutions. Backup quarterbacks for the Dolphins have a 27-7-1 record under Shula since 1970.

He cultivates a winning attitude in preseason success which reads 94-34-4 (.727), including 32-4-1 at Baltimore and 62-30-3 at Miami.

He had been the youngest head coach, 33, in NFL history when the Colts picked him in 1963 after Shula's three years as defensive coordinator of the Detroit Lions. In the old NFL, the Colts reached the title game in 1964 and 1968 after 12-2 and 13-1 campaigns, and the 1967 Colts posted an 11-1-2 record. Those three powerhouse teams averaged almost 30 points per game offensively.

Shula's resourcefulness is best documented in 1965 when injuries sidelined Colt quarterbacks John Unitas and Gary Cuozzo, and halfback Tom Matte wore the "playbook" on his wristband and directed a 20-17 upset at Los Angeles.

Shula transformed a 3-10-1 Dolphin team into a playoff qualifier his first season in Miami and laid the foundation for a perennial contender. In 1971, the Dolphins won their first of four consecutive AFC East titles, and on Christmas Day in Kansas City, the NFL's longest game (82 minutes, 40 seconds) ended with Garo Yepremian's winning 37-yard field goal in the second overtime. A week later, the Dolphins stymied the Unitas-led Colts 21-0 on the same Orange Bowl field where Baltimore had won Super Bowl V the previous January.

Dethroning the Colts launched the Dolphins to three consecutive AFC championships – a feat unequalled in either conference since the 1970 merger. But a disappointing 24-3 loss to the Dallas Cowboys in Super Bowl VI filled Shula and his players with greater drive, and in 1972 the Dolphins attracted headlines as the "Greatest Team Ever."

Shula had claimed 38-year-old Earl Morrall from the waiver list in April of 1972, recalling Morrall's leadership of the 1968 Colts. When quarterback Bob Griese suffered a broken ankle in the fifth game, Morrall took charge for 11 straight victories. The Dolphins rewrote the NFL rushing record (2,960 yards), and with a regular-season record of 105-30-5, Shula became the first NFL coach to win 100 games in his first decade. Later in his career, he was to accomplish the even more impressive feat of winning 200 games in his first 20 seasons as an NFL boss.

Surprisingly, the unbeaten Dolphins were three-point underdogs to the Washington Redskins in Super Bowl VII. Shula elected to go with a healthy Griese, and the Dolphins dominated the Redskins 14-7 for the coach's first NFL crown.

No less impressive were the 1973 Dolphins, losing only twice in 17 games. The Dolphins set a modern NFL record by allowing only 1,290 yards passing and only five touchdown passes, and they overwhelmed three playoff opponents, 85-33, including a 24-7 rout of the Minnesota Vikings in Super Bowl VIII.

Another three-game surge in the playoffs, this time a 76-26 blitz, earned the AFC Championship in the strike-shortened 1982 season and landed the Dolphins in Super Bowl XVII. Miami held a four-point lead in the fourth quarter before Washington broke a long touchdown run that sparked a 27-17 Redskin victory.

Shula led the Dolphins to yet another Super Bowl, his fifth with Miami and his sixth overall, following the 1984 season when the Dolphins went 14-2, but they fell to San Francisco 38-16 in Super Bowl XIX.

Donald Francis Shula was born January 4, 1930, in Grand River, Ohio, and was raised in Painesville, Ohio. He was a running back at John Carroll University in Cleveland, and in 1950 he gained 125 yards when the Blue Streaks upset Syracuse, 21-15.

Shula was the lone rookie on coach Paul Brown's defending NFL champion Cleveland Browns in 1951 (until Shula's college teammate Carl Taseff joined the Browns at mid-season). Shula and Taseff were involved in the largest trade in modern NFL history, a 15-player deal with Baltimore in 1953, and Shula played four seasons with the Colts (1953-56) and one season at Washington (1957) at right cornerback. He had 21 career interceptions for 247 yards in seven seasons.

Shula entered the coaching ranks with an assistant's job at Virginia (1958) and Kentucky (1959), and he joined the NFL's Detroit Lions in 1960 under coach George Wilson – a man he later replaced in Miami. The Lions posted a 26-13-1 record with Shula as the defensive coordinator.

In 1963, Shula succeeded Weeb Ewbank as head coach at Baltimore, and in the 26 seasons which have followed he has reached the NFL's championship game seven times with two victories.

Today, he takes an active role in NFL leadership, serving since 1975 on the select NFL Competition Committee which evaluates and recommends changes in playing rules.

Shula has given considerable time, plus financial and emotional support, to several area charities. The Don Shula Scholarship Foundation was created in 1978 and has awarded scholarships at several Florida colleges. He also funds scholarships in the sports administration program at St. Thomas University, the location of the Dolphins' training complex. Shula also has been active in the American Cancer Society, March of Dimes, American Red Cross, United Way and Catholic Charities.

A member of the Class of 1951 at John Carroll, Shula helps to sponsor an academic chair of studies in his name at his alma mater. The chair, funded at $1 million through major private gifts added to Shula's own commitment, is in the University's Department of Philosophy.

In the last three years Shula has drawn rave reviews for his work as a studio analyst during the AFC playoffs for NBC's NFL Live. He also has provided color commentary on the Super Bowl in 1987 and 1988 for British TV, and he was a member of the NBC broadcast team for Super Bowl XXIII this past January. On Jan. 17, 1987, Shula and his Dolphin staff (including son David, the team's assistant head coach) coached the winning South squad in the Senior Bowl in Mobile, Ala. One of his quarterbacks in that game was son Mike, then a QB from the University of Alabama.

Shula especially values his family life and his Catholic faith. He and the former Dorothy Bartish have been married 31 years (7/19/58) and have raised five children — two boys and three girls.

Oldest son David, 30, and his wife Leslie have three sons, Danny, Christopher and Matthew. David joined the Dolphin coaching staff late in the '82 season, and recently was named assistant head coach for the Dallas Cowboys. He starred collegiately at Dartmouth, where he set all of the pass receiving records for the Big Green. After earning his degree in history, David played for a season with the Baltimore Colts.

Mike, 24, a former all-state quarterback at Columbus High School in Miami, enjoyed an outstanding career as signal caller for the Crimson Tide of Alabama. Mike, who graduated with a degree in labor management, is an offensive assistant coach for Tampa Bay after a one-year playing career with the Bucs.

The Shula's oldest daughter, Donna, was married in 1984 to Joe Janach and they have two children, Alex and Lindsey. Another daughter, Sharon, graduated from the University of Miami and Florida State's College of Law. Youngest daughter, Annie, graduated from St. Thomas University and is a teacher at Sabal Palm Elementary School in North Miami Beach.

ADMINISTRATIVE STAFF

J. MICHAEL ROBBIE

Executive Vice-President/General Manager

College: Notre Dame

NFL: 16th Season

Dolphins: 16th Season

Born: January 6, 1948

Entering his 12th year as the Dolphins' Executive Vice-President/General Manager, Mike Robbie is responsible for the overall operation of the franchise, reporting directly to his father, owner Joe Robbie.

Robbie's initial endeavors for the Dolphins came when he served in the team's ticket department from 1971-75, including two seasons as ticket director. He then took a three-year leave of absence to obtain his law degree from the University of South Dakota. He returned to South Florida and in October, 1978, was named to his current position. Robbie's legal training and business background, coupled with his earlier grassroots experience in the Dolphin organization laid solid groundwork for his successful entrance as the team's day-to-day administrator.

Included among his Dolphin projects has been the implementation of a computer system for all club operations from ticket accounts to scouting. In addition, Robbie has represented the Dolphins at NFL meetings since 1979.

Robbie earned both his Juris Doctor and M.B.A. degrees from the University of South Dakota, and he has a B.S. in mechanical engineering from the University of Notre Dame. He is a member of the South Dakota Bar. The fourth oldest of 11 Robbie children, he is a native of Mitchell, S.D., and a graduate of Minneapolis De La Salle High School.

Mike and his wife, Dwyn, were married in California in 1982 and live in Fort Lauderdale.

EDDIE J. JONES

Vice President/
Administration and Finance

College: Louisiana State

NFL: 18th Season

Dolphins: Second Season

Born: June 18, 1938

A veteran of 17 years in NFL administration, Eddie J. Jones is in his second season as Vice President of Administration and Finance for the Dolphins. Jones oversees all financial and administrative functions of the team and Joe Robbie Stadium.

Jones was president and chief operating officer of the New Orleans Saints from 1982-85. While with the Saints, he represented the team on the league's Executive Committee and served on the NFL's pension committee and the executive committee of NFL Properties. During 1986 and 1987, Jones was a consultant to the NFL Management Council in negotiations with the NFLPA and was a financial consultant in Baton Rouge, La.

A 1963 accounting graduate of LSU, Jones began his professional career as a CPA with Arthur Andersen & Co. He began his NFL career as business manager of the Saints in 1968.

An Air Force veteran, the Houston native and his wife, Marilyn, have three children, Wendy, Todd and Jeff.

TIMOTHY J. ROBBIE

Vice President/Public Affairs

College: Tulane

NFL: Third Season

Dolphins: Third Season

Born: August 24, 1955

Tim Robbie, a veteran of 11 years of professional sports administration, moves into his third season as the Dolphins' Vice President for Public Affairs. Among his responsibilities are overseeing the marketing, public relations, advertising and promotions for the team and Robbie Stadium Corporation, as well as representing the Dolphins in community affairs.

In addition to his duties with the Dolphins, Robbie serves as the Executive Vice President of the Fort Lauderdale Strikers of the American Soccer League. The Tulane University graduate (English) was the General Manager of the Strikers during their first tenure in Fort Lauderdale as a member of the North American Soccer League and later when the club played in Minnesota in the Major Indoor Soccer League.

Robbie also sits on the board of directors of the Florida Derby Festival and is a member of St. Thomas University's Advisory Board.

Robbie, 34, and his wife, Ann, reside in Coconut Grove.

JANN M. ILIFF

General Counsel

College: Carleton

NFL: Fifth Season

Dolphins: Fifth Season

Born: November 19, 1952

Jann M. Iliff assumed her duties as General Counsel for the Dolphins in July of 1985. Prior to joining the Dolphins, she was in private law practice in Minneapolis with experience in civil litigation, commercial law, personal injury, products liability and medical malpractice.

Iliff received her J.D. degree in 1980 from William Mitchell College of Law in St. Paul, Minn. While at Mitchell, she was a staff member of the school's Law Review. Iliff earned her undergraduate degree from Carleton College in Northfield, Minn.

A native of Minneapolis, Iliff is married to Jonathan D. Fisher, and they reside in Coral Gables.

MARLO HANSON

Stadium Coordinator

College: Minnesota

NFL: Fifth Season

Dolphins: Fifth Season

Born: December 26, 1929

Marlo Hanson serves as the Coordinator of Robbie Stadium Corporation. In that role, Hanson, a registered architect, works directly with stadium architects and planners of the 73,000-seat facility.

Before assuming his present position, Hanson worked in various architectural capacities for the State of Minnesota. He began his tenure there as a staff architect, eventually earning the title of director of real estate management in the department of administration. His position entailed performing space management functions for all state agencies in Minnesota. Hanson also participated in plans and construction of various state projects, including hospitals, prison systems and colleges.

A graduate of the University of Minnesota, Marlo and his wife, Betty, live in Fort Lauderdale. They have three daughters, Sharon, Janet and Natalie.

WILLIAM T. DUFFY

College: Princeton

NFL: Second Season

Dolphins: Second Season

Born: February 28, 1956

William T. Duffy joined the Dolphins' front office as Director of Finance in March of 1988. In his position, he works closely with Eddie Jones in the financial management of the Dolphins. Duffy, a registered CPA, reports to Jones and Dolphins owner Joe Robbie.

A 1978 graduate of Princeton (B.A. in economics), he earned a master's in accounting from N.Y.U. in 1980. From 1979-82, Duffy worked in public accounting at Coopers & Lybrand in Newark, N.J. In 1982 he moved on to Johnson & Johnson, where he served as an internal auditor for a year.

The Ho-Ho-Kus, N.J., native became a financial analyst for AT&T information systems in Morristown, N.J., in 1983. After two years there, he moved on to the JVC Corp. of America, where he was assistant controller, until joining the Dolphins.

Married to the former Cathryn Yag (6/27/81), Bill and his wife are the parents of Erin (8/22/82) and Caitlin (9/5/85). They reside in Plantation.

GLENN MON

Stadium Manager

College: University of Southern California

NFL: Second Season

Dolphins: Second Season

Born: April 10, 1951

Glenn Mon, who handled stadium operations for such major events as the Super Bowl, the 1984 Summer Olympic Games, and the Mass of Pope John Paul II, is in his second season as Stadium Manager of Joe Robbie Stadium after serving for 13 years in various capacities in management of the Los Angeles Coliseum and Sports Arena.

Before joining the Dolphins, the 38-year-old Mon spent the previous two seasons as the senior assistant general manager and acting general manager for the Coliseum, where he was responsible for all event administration. From 1984 to September of '86, he was the assistant manager and director of public relations for the L.A. Coliseum Commission with primary responsibility for the operation of the Sports Arena. For nine years, Mon was the public relations director for the Coliseum and Sports Arena.

A graduate of the University of Southern California (political science), Mon resides in Plantation with his wife, Ashly.

DANIEL T. ROBBIE

Director of Sales and Promotions

College: St. Thomas

NFL: Fifth Season

Dolphins: Fifth Season

Born: August 31, 1961

Dan Robbie serves as the Director of Sales and Promotions for Joe Robbie Stadium, in addition to coordinating sales of club seats and executive suites.

The 28-year-old Robbie has worked in stadium sales for the Dolphins since June of 1985 after spending two years with the Minnesota Strikers soccer team, where he was the ticket manager.

Robbie, who also works in marketing of the stadium, has supervised the Dolphins' annual awards banquet each of the past three years and has been a team representative at the last three NFL Public Relations/Marketing Meetings.

Robbie, who recently was appointed to the executive council of South Florida Boy Scouts, attended both the University of South Florida and St. Thomas University. An avid soccer fan and player, Dan is single and resides in North Miami.

PAT KELLY

Director of Stadium Events

College: John Jay

NFL: Third Season

Dolphins: Third Season

Born: February 13, 1928

Pat Kelly, who supervised stadium operations at famed Yankee Stadium for 20 years, moves into his third season as Director of Stadium Events for Joe Robbie Stadium.

Kelly, who began his career at Yankee Stadium in 1967, served as stadium manager and then vice president of stadium operations before joining the Dolphins. His main responsibility was the efficient operation and maintenance of all of Yankee Stadium's facilities.

While at Yankee Stadium, he supervised the Pope's Mass, numerous American League playoff and World Series games, the All-Star game, championship boxing events and New York Giants football (1967-73).

Kelly served in the United States Navy before spending 24 years with the New York City Police Department. Married to the former Catherine Conway, they are the parents of two children. The couple resides in Lauderhill.

LAMAR VERNON

Ticket Director

College: Georgia

NFL: Second Season

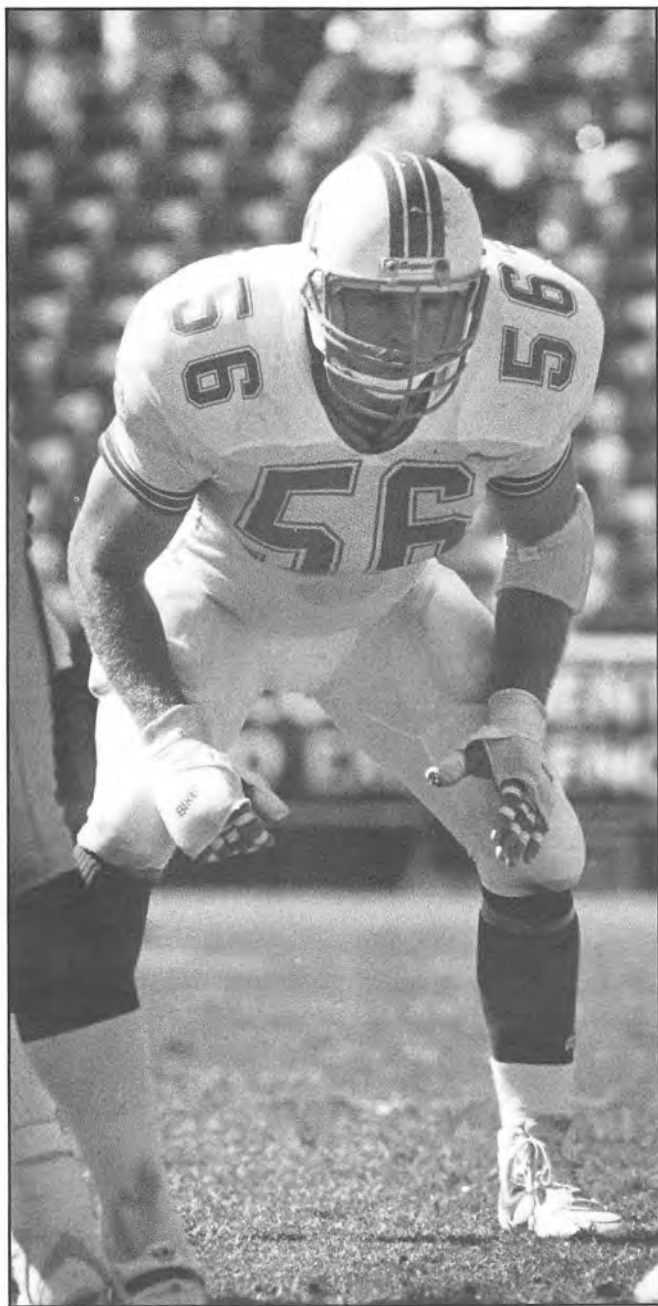

Dolphins: Second Season

Born: December 9, 1943

Lamar Vernon, who brings 24 years of ticketing experience to his position, enters his second season as Ticket Director for the Dolphins and Joe Robbie Stadium. He coordinates all ticket operations with the exception of club seats and executive suites.

Vernon, who came to the Dolphins in August of 1988, spent 23 years in major league baseball with the Atlanta Braves, Seattle Mariners and, most recently, the Chicago Cubs. While in Atlanta, Vernon set up the ticket operation for the Peach Bowl and was a member of the Atlanta Peach Bowl Committee. Throughout his years in sports, Vernon has handled ticketing operations in practically every professional sport, including tennis and soccer.

Married to Patricia, the Vernons have four children, Kelly, Kim, Geri and Gerod. Vernon resides in Plantation.

ASSISTANT COACHES

JOHN SANDUSKY

Assistant Head Coach/Offensive Line, Run Offense
College: Villanova
NFL: 31st Season
Dolphins: 14th Season
Born: December 28, 1925

Like many of the men who played for him, John Sandusky is regarded as "one of the best in the business." Sandusky and his offensive line just keep getting better. A veteran of three decades of NFL coaching (he begins his 31st season in '89), Sandusky starts his 14th year with the Dolphins looking for continued success. He will have additional responsibilities beyond the offensive line this year, having been named Assistant Head Coach on March 1, 1989, and as a result will become more involved in the overall football operation and will take on additional administrative duties.

In 1988, the offensive line under Sandusky rewrote the NFL record book. The Dolphins allowed only seven sacks, the fewest in a season in NFL history, despite throwing the ball a league-high 621 times. It was the eighth season overall and the seventh consecutive year Miami led the NFL in fewest sacks allowed (1973, 1982-88), both league records. In addition, the Dolphins went the final 12 games of the year without allowing a QB sack, shattering the old NFL record of five straight games, done on many previous occasions.

Despite his assistant coaching title, Sandusky is also quite knowledgeable about defense, having spent seven of his 31 seasons coaching the other side of the line of scrimmage. In five of the past six campaigns, ten Dolphin offensive linemen have been singled out for some type of post-season honors.

The 63-year-old Sandusky joined the Dolphins in 1976 after spending three seasons (1973-75) as an assistant coach for the Philadelphia Eagles. Prior to that, he was a coach for the Baltimore Colts from 1959-72, including the 1963-69 seasons under then-Colt head coach Don Shula. When Shula moved to Miami in 1970, he attempted, but was unable, to bring Sandusky with him. Sandusky was on the Colt staff for their two Super Bowl appearances in games III and V.

When Don McCafferty was fired as Baltimore's head coach after winning only one of the first five games in 1972, Sandusky became the Colt boss and led his charges to four victories in their final nine games. Two of Sandusky's losses that season were to Shula's undefeated Dolphin team.

Sandusky was an All-America tackle at Villanova University (1946-49) before joining the NFL's Cleveland Browns in 1950. He played both offensive and defensive tackle in six seasons in Cleveland as the Browns made it to the NFL title game in all six of those campaigns (three wins). Sandusky then played one year (1956) with the Green Bay Packers before beginning his coaching career at Villanova (1957-58).

Sandusky has the unique distinction of having served in four different capacities in the now-defunct College All-Star game in Chicago. He played (1950) and coached (1958) for the All-Stars, and also played (1951, 1955) and coached (1969, 1971) for the NFL championship team that annually opposed the collegians.

John remarried on 6/6/87 to the former Shirley Petti and the couple resides in Hollywood with her three children (Georgina, Jason and Jennifer). John has two sons (Jack and James) living in Baltimore, and a daughter (Ruth) who resides in Silver Spring, Md. Another son, Gerry, is a sportscaster for WBAL-TV in Baltimore who formerly covered the Dolphins for WSVN-TV in Miami. Another son, Joe, died in '78 of complications from pneumonia while a sophomore at Tulsa University. John was married to his first wife, Ruth, for 34 years before her death in December, 1985. John has four grandchildren.

GEORGE HILL

Linebackers

College: Denison

NFL: 11th Season

Dolphins: First Season

Born: April 28, 1933

Although George Hill is beginning his first season with the Dolphins, he has more than a decade of coaching experience in the NFL, having been a defensive strategist in the league for the last ten seasons. Before coming to Miami on March 1, 1989, Hill spent the previous four seasons (1985-88) as defensive coordinator for the Indianapolis Colts and spent six seasons before that (1979-84) as the linebacker coach for the Philadelphia Eagles. Hill originally joined the Dallas Cowboys staff on February 13, 1989 as Tom Landry's defensive coordinator, but left the Cowboys to join the Dolphins following Landry's departure.

With the Dolphins, Hill not only will work with the team's linebackers but also will be responsible for Miami's run defense. He inherits a young linebacking corps led by All-Pro John Offerdahl along with Eric Kumerow, Rick Graf, and draft choices Wes Pritchett and Dana Batiste, as well as veterans E.J. Junior, Mark Brown, Bob Brudzinski, and Hugh Green.

While with the Colts, Hill's coaching helped earn Indianapolis respect around the league for that team's defense and in 1987 the Colts allowed just 238 points, the fewest in the NFL.

Before joining the Eagles, Hill was a part of Woody Hayes' staff at Ohio State for eight seasons (1971-78) as defensive coordinator, and during that time the Buckeyes won six consecutive Big Ten Championships and made four Rose Bowl appearances. He also was the defensive coordinator at Duke from 1966 through 1970 and served as an assistant coach at Cornell (1965), Denison University (1960-64), and Findley (Ohio) College (1959). Before beginning his coaching career, he was a four-year letterman at Denison (1954-57).

Hill was born in Bay Village, Ohio, and now lives in Plantation with his wife, Cloyde (married 6/16/56). They have two children, Greg (11/4/64), and Tammy (2/26/69).

DOLPHIN FACT

Under Don Shula, the Dolphins own a 3-0 record in regular-season home games played against that year's eventual Super Bowl champion. Miami has defeated the 1970 Baltimore Colts (34-17), the 1985 Chicago Bears (38-24) and 1987's champion, the Washington Redskins (23-21).

TONY NATHAN

Coaches' Assistant

College: Alabama

NFL: Second Season

Dolphins: Second Season

Born: December 14, 1956

Former Dolphins running back Tony Nathan enters his second season with Miami as a coaches assistant. In his coaching role, Nathan charts plays both in practice and on game days and assists in the breakdown of game film. Known as an outstanding receiver as a player, Nathan works with Miami's young running backs on their receiving skills.

A nine-year veteran with the Dolphins (1979-87), Nathan ended his NFL career ranked high among the Dolphins all-time rushing and receiving leaders. His career rushing total of 732 attempts for 3,543 yards are fourth best on Miami's all-time chart, while his 383 catches rank second. In 1981, Nathan was named the team's most valuable player as he led Miami in rushing with a career-high 782 yards and an NFL-leading 5.3 yards per carry.

Collegiately, Nathan had an outstanding college career as a running back at the University of Alabama. During Nathan's final two seasons with the Tide, the school posted records of 11-1 and won the national championship his senior year. He finished his career with rushing totals of 1,997 yards on 310 carries and 29 touchdowns. As a senior, Nathan ran for a regular-season total of 770 yards and added 127 yards in Alabama's 14-7 Sugar Bowl edging of Penn State to win the national championship.

Nathan and his wife Johnnie (married 6/16/79), live in Miami Lakes with daughters Nichole (7/8/80), Natalie (8/9/83) and Nadia Inez (5/27/87). He was born on December 14, 1956 in Birmingham, Alabama.

TOM OLIVADOTTI

Defense

College: Upsala

NFL: Fifth Season

Dolphins: Third Season

Born: September 22, 1945

Tom Olivadotti begins his third season as the man responsible for the Dolphins' overall defense. Olivadotti came to the Dolphins after spending two seasons (1985-86) with the Cleveland Browns as an assistant.

Under his direction, the Dolphin defense last year did not allow a touchdown in four of the team's 16 games. Two years ago, in Olivadotti's first year with Miami, the number of big plays allowed by the Dolphins decreased dramatically, as Miami was first in the AFC (and third in the NFL) in fewest yards allowed per completion (11.63), after ranking 12th in the AFC and 22nd in the NFL the previous season.

The Long Branch, N.J., native made an impressive NFL coaching debut four years ago when he handled the Browns' outstanding linebacking corps. In 1986 he was in charge of Cleveland's defensive backs — one of the main reasons the Browns came within one game of the Super Bowl. Cleveland had the best record (12-4) in the AFC that season.

Olivadotti is familiar with Miami — he spent four seasons as a defensive coach at the University of Miami, serving the last three years as defensive coordinator. The Hurricanes captured the national championship in Olivadotti's last season (1983). He then followed head coach Howard Schnellenberger (a former Dolphin assistant) to Louisville with the understanding that he could leave if a pro coaching job arose, which it did with the Browns.

Olivadotti played defensive back, linebacker, and receiver in four years as a starter at Upsala College in East Orange, N.J., and also participated in baseball and track. While coaching at New Jersey high schools Pope Pius (1967-68), Long Branch (1968-71) and Red Bank Catholic (1971-72), he also played semi-pro ball for five seasons.

He then moved on to Salesianum Prep School in Wilmington, Del., as head coach (1972-75) before moving up to the college ranks beginning at Princeton (1975-77) as tutor for linebackers and the offensive line. Later (1978-79) he coached linebackers at Boston College and also organized the entire defense.

Olivadotti, who has a business degree, resides in Cooper City with his wife, Karen (married 6/15/68), and their two children, Kari Anne (9/30/70) and Kirk (1/1/74).

MEL PHILLIPS

Defensive Backs

College: North Carolina A&T

NFL: Tenth Season

Dolphins: Fifth Season

Born: January 6, 1942

Mel Phillips moves into his fifth season as defensive backs coach for the Dolphins. Last year, the Dolphin defensive backs set a new team record by not allowing a passing touchdown in 25 consecutive quarters. In addition, under Phillips' guidance, rookie safety Jarvis Williams developed into one of the best young defensive backs in the league, becoming only the third rookie in Dolphin history to lead the club in interceptions.

Before coming to Miami, the 47-year-old Phillips previously held the same position for five seasons with the Detroit Lions (1980-84).

Known for his outstanding rapport with the players, Phillips coached in Detroit under then-head coach (and former Dolphin assistant) Monte Clark. With Miami, Phillips works with a defensive backfield that features quality veterans Don McNeal, William Judson, Paul Lankford, Liffort Hobley, and Bud Brown, as well as promising talent such as Williams, Rodney Thomas, and first-round draft choice Louis Oliver.

Phillips, a native of Shelby, N.C., played 12 seasons for the San Francisco 49ers (1966-77), including eight as a starter at strong safety. A tenacious hitter during his playing days, his career statistics include 10 interceptions for 106 return yards (35-yard TD in 1970). Phillips twice won the 49ers' Len Eshmont Award, symbolic of the team's most valuable player. Following his retirement from the 49ers, Phillips worked for the city of San Francisco's juvenile probation department until joining the Lions.

Collegiately, Phillips attended North Carolina A&T, where he played both ways as a defensive back and a running back. As a senior, Phillips rushed for 648 yards on 100 carries for 11 touchdowns, and also caught 19 passes for 277 yards and four scores. That season (1965), A&T won the conference championship and Phillips intercepted two passes and rushed for two TDs in the title game. Phillips also lettered for the swimming and track teams at A&T.

Mel and his wife, Patricia (married 1/23/65), live in Miami Lakes with their daughters, Paulette (6/4/67) and Yvette (5/9/73). He was born on Jan. 6, 1942, in Shelby, N.C.

LARRY SEIPLE

Receivers

College: Kentucky

NFL: Ninth Season

Dolphins: Second Season

Born: February 14, 1945

Although he is beginning just his second season on the Dolphin coaching staff, Larry Seiple is well-known to Dolphin fans. He spent 11 seasons in Miami as a player and rejoined the team in February, 1988, as receivers coach after spending a year as a sales representative for a manufacturing company in the automotive industry in Birmingham, Michigan.

In Seiple's first season as receivers coach, Mark Clayton set a new Dolphin record for receptions with 86 (finishing tied for second in the NFL in that category) while Jim Jensen developed into one of the most dependable receivers in the league.

The Allentown, Pa., native brought seven years of experience as an NFL receivers coach to Miami. He formerly served as receivers coach with the Detroit Lions (1980-84), working under former Dolphins' assistant Monte Clark. He then moved on to Tampa Bay, where he was receivers coach from 1985-86. While in Detroit, Seiple was on a staff that also included current Miami defensive backs coach Mel Phillips.

The 44-year-old Seiple began his coaching career at the University of Miami under another former Dolphin assistant, Howard Schnellenberger. Seiple was with the Hurricanes during the 1979 season.

Seiple's playing career with the Dolphins spanned 11 seasons (1967-77) after he made the team as a seventh-round draft choice out of Kentucky. He played in 149 regular-season games for Miami (ninth-most in team history) as a punter, tight end, wide receiver and running back. Seiple finished his career with 72 receptions for 935 yards (13.0 average) and seven touchdowns. His best season came in 1969 when he led the Dolphins in receiving with 41 catches for 577 yards (14.1 average) and five TDs. He also had 16 carries for 159 yards in his career.

Seiple still holds the Dolphins' record for most career punts (633), and his career punting average (40.0 yards) is second only to the 43.6-yard average of current punter Reggie Roby. Seiple's most memorable exploit as a Dolphin came against Pittsburgh in the 1972 AFC Championship game when his daring 37-yard run on fourth down from punt formation set up Miami's first touchdown in a 21-17 victory.

He and his wife, Trudy (married 6/4/66), live in Miami Lakes and have three children, Keri Lynn (6/10/67), Larry (7/10/69) and Lori Ann (11/26/71).

DAN SEKANOVICH

Defensive Line

College: Tennessee

NFL: 13th Season

Dolphins: Fourth Season

Born: July 27, 1933

Dan Sekanovich, a veteran of more than a decade of NFL coaching, begins his fourth season as a member of the Miami Dolphins staff. The 56-year-old Sekanovich is in charge of the Dolphin defensive line, and under his guidance Miami nose tackle Brian Sochia, a former free agent, improved to such a degree that he was voted to the AFC Pro Bowl team last year.

Sekanovich spent three seasons (1983-85) as the assistant head coach/defensive line mentor of the Atlanta Falcons before coming to Miami. While with Atlanta he helped develop two top young linemen in Rick Bryan and Mike Gann. With the Dolphins, he is working with young veterans like Jackie Cline, John Bosa and T.J. Turner.

Prior to his Atlanta post, Sekanovich developed one of the NFL's most feared defensive units, "The New York Sack Exchange," while defensive line coach for the New York Jets from 1977-82. In 1981, the Sack Exchange led the NFL in sacks with the defensive line getting 59 of 66.

Before joining the Jets, the West Hazleton, Pa., native enjoyed his first professional coaching experience when he served on Marv Levy's staff (now head coach of the Buffalo Bills) for the Montreal Alouettes of the Canadian Football League from 1973-76. Montreal captured the Grey Cup title in 1974 as Sekanovich coached both the offensive and defensive lines.

His collegiate coaching stops included: Kentucky (1971-72), Navy (1969-70), Pittsburgh (1968), Connecticut (1964-67) and Susquehanna (1961-63).

Sekanovich enjoyed a fine playing career (1951-53) at Tennessee under General Bob Neyland, where he played as a defensive end.

Dan and his wife, Delores (married 11/27/65), have a son, Dan, Jr. (11/23/66), who recently graduated from Wake Forest, and a daughter, Catherine (11/28/68), a junior at the University of Connecticut. They reside in Cooper City.

GARY STEVENS

Quarterbacks/Pass Offense

College: John Carroll

NFL: First Season

Dolphins: First Season

Born: March 19, 1943

Gary Stevens begins his first season as quarterback coach, but he certainly is familiar to Dolphin coaches and fans alike. He spent the previous nine years (1980-88) as an assistant coach at the University of Miami, including the last six as offensive coordinator where he was the architect of Miami's explosive offense that was centered around the passing game. During his tenure at UM, the Hurricanes won two national championships and he helped guide the careers of quarterbacks Bernie Kosar, Vinny Testaverde, and Steve Walsh as well as wideout Eddie Brown. In his six seasons as offensive coordinator, Miami averaged over 30 points per game and over 400 yards per game in total offense.

The Hurricanes' receivers coach from 1980 to 1984, Stevens switched to coaching the quarterbacks in '84, while also adding the duties of assistant head coach during that same year. Prior to his arrival at Miami, Stevens held assistant coaching positions at West Virginia (1975-79), Kent State (1974-75), and Louisville (1971-74). A native of Cleveland, Ohio, he began his coaching career in the high school ranks in the late 1960s at Benedictine High School and Chanel High School in Ohio.

A three-year letterman at running back for John Carroll University, he graduated with a degree in sociology in 1965. Stevens lives in Kendall with his wife, Rosemarie, and they have five children – Cindy, Maria, Cheryl, Kelly Ann, and Gary Ben.

CARL TASEFF

Offensive Backs

College: John Carroll

NFL: 23rd Season

Dolphins: 20th Season

Born: September 28, 1928

When Don Shula arrived in Miami in 1970, so too did Carl Taseff. Taseff and Shula's relationship dates back to their college days when they played in the same backfield together for coach Herb Eisele's John Carroll squad in Cleveland. They were also roommates in the NFL while both played for Cleveland (1951-52) and Baltimore (1953-56).

Taseff has coached the Dolphin offensive backs since coming to South Florida, and he's done it with great success. In fact, in the eight-year span from 1970-77, Taseff's backs ranked fifth or higher in NFL rushing on seven occasions. More important, Taseff has been able to change with the times. During the 1970s, the Dolphins employed a grind-it-out style that featured powerful fullback Larry Csonka. Since Dan Marino's emergence as Miami's air-oriented quarterback, Taseff's charges have become more a part of the passing game. Troy Stradford has caught more passes over the last two years than all but one AFC running back, while Lorenzo Hampton was second on the Dolphins in receptions in 1986.

Taseff came to Miami after spending two years working for the CEPO scouting combine (1968-69). Prior to that, he had coaching stints with the AFL's Boston Patriots (1964) and the NFL's Detroit Lions (1965-66).

As a player, Taseff was a star running back at John Carroll University, scoring 22 touchdowns in 1950. He began his pro career in 1951 with his hometown Cleveland Browns before beginning a nine-year term (1953-61) with the Baltimore Colts. A cornerback for the Colts, Taseff set a team record with a 90-yard punt return for a touchdown against Green Bay (10/14/56). He holds an NFL record with a 99-yard return of a Walt Michaels field goal attempt against the Rams (12/12/59).

After the Colts, Taseff played the latter part of the '61 season for Philadelphia before winding up his playing career with Buffalo in 1962. Overall, Taseff's career stats show 112 punt returns for 826 yards and no fumbles.

Carl and his wife, Lucy (married 11/18/78), live in Miami. He has two daughters, Cynthia Sue and Susan (both married), by a previous marriage. He also has three grandchildren.

JUNIOR WADE

Strength and Conditioning
College: South Carolina State
NFL: 15th Season
Dolphins: 15th Season
Born: February 2, 1947

One of the key figures in the Dolphin program is veteran strength and conditioning coach Junior Wade.

In his seventh season as the Dolphins' strength and conditioning coach, Wade also administers the team's successful off-season conditioning program and assists with the Miami special teams. Previously, Wade had served eight years as the club's assistant trainer. The promotion to assistant coaching status was a well-deserved reward for the affable Wade. As a trainer, he long had held the respect of the Dolphin players for his knowledge and his willingness to boost player morale by putting himself through the same rigorous rehabilitation as that prescribed for injured Dolphins.

Appointed to his present position on Feb. 15, 1983, Wade first joined the Dolphins as training camp assistant for the 1973-74 preseasons. He was hired by the Dolphins on a full-time basis in time for the 1975 campaign. Wade's past job experience includes having worked as an athletic trainer and guidance counselor at Fayetteville State and as the trainer for the St. Louis Cardinals' baseball farm team in Orangeburg, S.C.

Wade was also the head baseball coach and assistant trainer at Davidson College. In 1975, he led the Wildcats to a 21-15 record, the best mark the school had ever posted. A three-year letterman himself at South Carolina State, Wade also earned his master's degree in education. Following his graduation from SCSU in 1969, he worked as head trainer at the school for three years.

Junior, a native of Bath, S.C., lives in Miami with his wife, Constance (married 12/13/70), and sons Aaron (2/25/72) and Jason (2/24/80).

DOLPHIN FACT

Despite having 95 players appear in the Pro Bowl since 1970, the Dolphins have never had a cornerback or tight end play in the post-season all-star contest. Offensive guard is the position which Miami has been represented at most often (16 times, led by Bob Kuechenberg's six appearances). Surprisingly, despite the high number of appearances by the rest of the offensive line (also, 12 by centers), Dolphin offensive tackles have played in the Pro Bowl on only three occasions (Norm Evans twice, Wayne Moore once).

MIKE WESTHOFF

Special Teams/Assistant Offensive Line

College: Wichita State

NFL: Seventh Season

Dolphins: Fourth Season

Born: January 10, 1948

Mike Westhoff begins his fourth year as a member of the Dolphins' coaching staff, concentrating on special teams and the offensive line.

In addition to his special teams responsibilities, Westhoff was instrumental in the success of the Dolphins' offensive line last year, as they allowed only seven sacks, the fewest in a season in NFL history, and they went the final 12 games of the year without allowing a sack, shattering the old NFL record of five straight games.

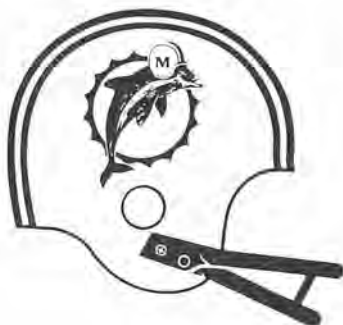

Westhoff came to Miami after spending a year in the United States Football League with the Arizona Outlaws, where he was the offensive line coach for Frank Kush.

Before his one-year stint in the USFL, Westhoff spent three seasons under Kush with the Baltimore/Indianapolis Colts (1982-84). While with the Colts, his responsibilities included tight ends, special teams and weight training.

The 41-year-old Westhoff began his collegiate playing career at Wyoming in 1965, where he was a starting outside linebacker as a freshman. He then transferred to Wichita State, where he was a three-year starter at linebacker and center. He graduated from Wichita State in 1970 with a degree in history. He was the team's MVP as a junior and served as captain during his senior campaign.

Westhoff started his collegiate coaching career as a graduate assistant at Indiana University, where he earned a master's degree in educational psychology in 1974. He was named as a full-time coach at IU in '75 before becoming offensive line coach at Dayton in 1976. Westhoff then took over as coach of the defensive line and linebackers at Indiana State in 1977. He then coached at Northwestern (1978-80) and Texas Christian (1981), working with the offensive line.

Born in Pittsburgh, he was raised in Bethel Park, Pa. Mike and his wife, Marilyn (married 1/25/70), reside in Plantation with their son John Thomas (4/27/81).

FOOTBALL STAFF

CHARLEY WINNER

Director of Pro Personnel, Administrative Assistant

College: Washington (Mo.)

NFL: 35th Season

Dolphins: Ninth Season

Born: July 2, 1925

A veteran of 35 NFL coaching and front-office seasons, Charley Winner serves the Miami Dolphins as director of pro personnel and as an administrative assistant to Don Shula.

Five years ago, Winner was given the responsibility of negotiating most player contracts. That duty goes along with Winner's other tasks that include scouting upcoming Dolphin opponents, searching for free agent talent and handling waiver and trade transactions.

Winner joined the Dolphins in 1981 after working one year for a cable television company. Prior to that, he enjoyed a distinguished coaching career which began in 1948 as an assistant under future father-in-law Weeb Ewbank at his alma mater, Washington University in St. Louis. He moved to Case Tech in 1950 under head coach Lou Saban, remaining there for four seasons. In 1954, Winner began his professional coaching career at Baltimore, again with Ewbank at the helm. From 1954-65, he coached Colt ends, defensive backs, linebackers and served as defensive coordinator. During his Baltimore stint, he coached a defensive back named Don Shula, later serving on Shula's staff when he became the Colt boss.

In 1966, Winner accepted the head coaching position of the St. Louis Cardinals, a post he held for five seasons. His teams had a 35-30-5 record, including an outstanding 9-4-1 mark in 1968. From 1971-72, Winner coached defensive backs for George Allen's Washington Redskins, whose '72 squad lost to the Dolphins in the Super Bowl. He was again reunited in 1973 with Ewbank, this time as an assistant for the New York Jets. Winner took over as Jet head coach the following year, posting a 9-14 slate in two seasons. He then coached Cincinnati's defensive backfield from 1976-79. Under Winner's guidance, Bengal DBs had conference rankings of first (1976) and second (1978) during his tenure there.

A native of Somerville, N.J., Winner attended Southeast Missouri College for one year before being drafted into the service in 1942. A radio operator and gunner in the Air Force, he flew 17 missions over Germany, and once spent six weeks in a German POW camp. Following the war, he completed his education at Washington University, earning letters in football and track.

Charley and his wife, Nancy (married 6/23/50), live in Plantation. They have two daughters, Cinda and Lisa, and seven grandchildren.

TOM HECKERT

Director of College Scouting

College: Youngstown State

NFL: Eighth Season

Dolphins: First Season

Born: September 18, 1938

After serving seven seasons in the NFL as a college scout, Tom Heckert is beginning his first season as the Director of College Scouting for the Dolphins. In his new position, Heckert is responsible for the scouting of college players and Miami's preparation for the NFL draft and in that role, he works closely with Head Coach Don Shula and the rest of the Dolphins' football and scouting staff.

Heckert has a varied background in football, including spending the last seven years as a college scout with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and the Cleveland Browns. He also has both administrative and coaching experience on the collegiate level as well.

Heckert, 50, joins the Dolphins after serving the last two years (1987-88) as a national scout for the Buccaneers, with his primary concentration the major conferences in the Southeast, Southwest, Northeast, and Midwest. Prior to joining the Bucs in 1987, he spent the previous five seasons (1982-86) as the Midwest area scout for the Browns, an area that included all Big Ten and Big Eight schools together with a total of 62 colleges in 12 states. He also was involved in personnel and advance scouting in the NFL during his tenure with the Browns and was part of the turnaround in Cleveland that saw the Browns go from a 5-11 team in 1984 to a playoff participant in his final two seasons there.

A 1961 graduate of Youngstown (Ohio) State, he began his coaching career as an assistant at Fitch High School in Youngstown in 1961 before a two-year hitch in the Army. He returned to Fitch where he stayed through 1965 prior to enrolling as a graduate assistant at Kent State, where he earned a master's degree in education. He served as Head Coach at Maumee (Ohio) High School in 1967 and 1968 and then moved up to the college ranks as an assistant at Adrian (Michigan) College from 1969-72. He was named Head Coach at Adrian in 1973 and Athletic Director in 1977, where he remained until joining the Browns in 1982. His overall record as a Head Coach at Adrian was 43-36-2, but his last three teams there were 23-3-1, including a 9-0 season in 1980.

Heckert and his wife, Rose (married 12/28/62), have two children, Kimberly (25) and Tom (21).

DOLPHIN FACT

The Dolphins have never lost to an NFC East team at home. Miami is a perfect 8-0 in home games with NFC East foes since the merger of the National and American Football Leagues in 1970. The Dolphins are 3-0 vs. Philadelphia, 2-0 vs. Dallas, 2-0 vs. St. Louis and 1-0 vs. Washington. Miami has never faced the N.Y. Giants at home. The two teams were scheduled to play in 1987, but the game was cancelled due to the players' strike.

MIKE CARTWRIGHT

College Scout

College: Wyoming

NFL: 11th Season

Dolphins: Seventh Season

Born: February 12, 1946

The responsibilities of scouting the midwestern states fall on the shoulders of the capable Mike Cartwright. In his seventh Dolphin season, Cartwright came to the Miami organization from the BLESTO scouting combine. He worked for BLESTO from 1979-82, first as an area scout before being promoted to regional scout.

Cartwright's initial scouting position was with the San Francisco 49ers, working for Pro-Line. Prior to that, he was head coach and athletic director at St. Mary's School in Cheyenne, Wyo., for three years before serving the same tenure as head football coach at Cheyenne East High. Also a former teacher, Cartwright earned a B.S. in physical education and biological science from the University of Wyoming in 1970.

Mike and his wife, Mary (married 9/25/74), live in Cheyenne with their son Jeremy (4/25/77) and Mike's two sons by a previous marriage, Chad (12/12/64) and Brad (12/30/68).

KEVIN COLBERT

College Scout

College: Robert Morris

NFL: Sixth Season

Dolphins: Fifth Season

Born: January 29, 1957

Beginning his fifth year with the Dolphins as a college scout, Kevin Colbert concentrates his duties on college athletes from Illinois to Alabama and eastward. Colbert joined the Miami staff after spending a season with the BLESTO scouting combine, serving the northeast area.

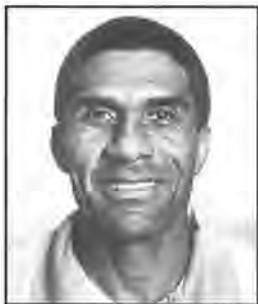

Prior to joining BLESTO, Colbert was the backfield coach and recruiting coordinator at Ohio Wesleyan for three years (1981-83). In '84 he aided Wesleyan as its head baseball coach.

From 1979 to '81, he served as a graduate assistant basketball coach and head baseball coach at Robert Morris College, where he pursued a master's degree in sports management. Before attending grad school, Colbert spent three months as an intern in the ticket office of the NBA's Detroit Pistons.

The Pittsburgh native earned his undergraduate degree in sports management from Robert Morris in 1979.

Kevin and his wife, Janis (married 11/21/81), reside in Beaver Falls, Pa., with their three children, Kacie (5/22/83), Jennifer (10/15/85), and Daniel (1/28/89).

MILT DAVIS

College Scout

College: UCLA

NFL: 23rd Season

Dolphins: 12th Season

Born: May 31, 1929

The veteran of the Miami Dolphins' collegiate scouting corps is Milt Davis, who since 1978 has been responsible for the western region. In addition to his scouting duties, Davis, who has over two decades of experience in the NFL, also assists the coaching staff during mini-camp and portions of summer training camp. He retired in June of 1987 after 28 years as a counselor and biology professor at Los Angeles City College.

Davis began his scouting career in 1967 with the Baltimore Colts, continuing in that capacity until 1976. He spent the '77 season "beating the bushes" for the Los Angeles Rams before joining the Dolphins.

In four seasons as a Colt defensive back (1957-60), Davis twice tied for the NFL lead in interceptions and was an All-Pro selection in 1957. In his rookie season, Davis picked off 10 of his 27 career interceptions. He was a member of the Colts' 1958 and '59 teams that defeated the New York Giants for the league championship.

Richly educated, Davis received his undergraduate degree, a master's degree in zoology (he's an avid bird-watcher) and a doctorate in administrative education from UCLA.

Milt and his wife, Yvonne (married 1/18/58), live in Eugene, Oregon. They have three children, Allison (2/19/59) and twins Brian and Hilary (5/21/62), and two grandchildren, Chance (4/3/84) and Felicity (11/5/88).

BOB LUNDY

Head Trainer

College: Boston University

NFL: 25th Season

Dolphins: 23rd Season

Born: March 28, 1936

For over two decades, the job of taking care of the Dolphin players' daily assortment of major and minor injuries has belonged to head trainer Bob Lundy. One of the most respected trainers in the NFL, Lundy is responsible for the day-to-day treatment of injured Dolphins in coordination with team physicians. In conjunction with assistant coach Junior Wade, Lundy also oversees the team's off-season conditioning program.

Lundy keeps abreast of the latest advances in training technology through his regular attendance at NATA conventions. Perhaps his highest honor came in 1974 when Dolphin players awarded Lundy the game ball following Miami's fourth consecutive AFC Eastern Division title. One of his greatest personal highlights was when former Dolphin great Larry Csonka thanked Bob in his Hall of Fame induction speech in Canton, Ohio.

Lundy joined the Dolphins for their inaugural 1966 season under then-head coach George Wilson, and has been with the club for all but one of its campaigns (he sold real estate in 1973). When Don Shula took over as head coach in 1970, Lundy was retained and he has been manning the training room ever since.

A native of Wollaston, Mass., Lundy is a 1958 graduate of Boston University. While a graduate student at Indiana University, he served as the Hoosiers' assistant trainer before becoming the head trainer at Detroit University (1960-63). Lundy's first professional job came in 1964 when he served two seasons as the Detroit Lions' assistant trainer.

In May of 1986, Lundy was honored by the National Athletic Trainers Association with a "Twenty-Five Year Award," which is the most prestigious award in the training profession.

In the off-season, Lundy serves as host in a series of talks on corporate fitness, speaking to such corporations as Storer Cable and Southeast Bank.

Bob lives in Miami and has three sons, Bob, Jr. (3/30/63), Billy (6/30/66) and David (1/30/70).

BILL DAVIS

Assistant Trainer

College: Davidson

NFL: Seventh Season

Dolphins: Seventh Season

Born: April 8, 1954

In his seventh season as the Dolphins' assistant trainer is 35-year-old Bill Davis. Davis assists head trainer Bob Lundy with injury treatment and rehabilitation of Dolphin players. He has been a full-time member of the Dolphin staff since May, 1983, after spending five preseasons (1975-79) as a summer training camp assistant to Lundy.

Davis also has served each of the last two years as a trainer at the Lipton International Tennis Championships on Key Biscayne.

Davis initially got involved in athletic training while he was a student at Davidson College. He aided current Dolphin assistant coach Junior Wade while Wade was baseball coach and assistant trainer for the Wildcats. While at Davidson, Davis and Wade worked under current NBA Charlotte Hornets' trainer Tom Couch. Davis received his B.A. degree from Davidson in 1976, and earned his NATA certification the following year.

In 1978, Davis got his master's degree in health and physical education from Tennessee Tech. The following fall, he was named athletic trainer for men at the University of Tennessee-Martin, a position he held until accepting his current post.

Bill and his wife, Linda (married 7/7/84), live in Cooper City with their four children - Kim, Bradley, Chas and Brook.

DOLPHIN FACT

The Dolphins have a 38-15 (.717) record over the past five seasons in games which they have at least one interception.

BOB MONICA

Equipment Manager
College: St. Thomas
NFL: Ninth Season
Dolphins: Ninth Season
Born: May 6, 1957

Bob Monica begins his fifth year as Dolphin equipment manager after four seasons as assistant equipment manager. Monica, a visible and popular figure around the Dolphins' training camp, is responsible for issuing and ordering all playing equipment for the team.

The 32-year-old Monica earned a B.S. in sports administration from Miami's St. Thomas University. He transferred to St. Thomas from Furman University in Greenville, S.C., where he had been attending college on a football scholarship. A native of Madison, N.J., Monica captained Madison High School's 1976 football state champions. In addition, he was New Jersey state wrestling champion in the 188 lb. division (1976). In 1975, Monica traveled with the USA Junior Olympic Wrestling team to Germany and Bulgaria.

Prior to joining the Dolphins, Monica was a production manager for Electric Factory Concerts in Philadelphia. Last year (4/23/88), he married the former Donna Beets. The couple resides in Pembroke Pines. One of Bob's personal highlights came when he appeared as a bartender in the Jan. 10, 1986, episode of "Miami Vice."

JOE ROBBIE STADIUM

The critics said it could never be done. But reality shows that the dream has come true.

The Miami Dolphins enter their third season of play in the new 73,000-seat Joe Robbie Stadium in 1989. Built at a cost of $115 million, the state-of-the-art, open-air facility was the first of its kind to be constructed entirely with private funds.

JRS capped off two highly successful seasons by hosting the National Football League's premier game, Super Bowl XXIII, on January 22, 1989. The event marked the return of the Super Bowl to South Florida after a 10-year absence.

Built with world-class soccer in mind, JRS undoubtedly will be one of the primary sites chosen in the next year or two to play host to matches when the 1994 World Cup comes to the United States. "I have been to 98 countries and seen many stadiums, but this is the best," said Colombian Soccer Federation President Leon Londono, a member of the FIFA committee which will designate sites, after touring the facility in the spring of 1988. "I have told (FIFA president) Dr. Joao Havelange about this stadium."

In the first 24 months of operation, Joe Robbie Stadium displayed its versatility by playing host to a wide variety of events other than Dolphin games. The Marlboro Soccer Cup of Miami, returning for its second consecutive appearance at JRS, and a concert featuring Rod Stewart, Hall and Oates and Chicago were just two of many events that the people of South Florida could attend at JRS.

Major league baseball returned to the stadium for the second time last spring with three exhibition games featuring the Baltimore Orioles as hosts versus the Boston Red Sox, the Texas Rangers and the New York Yankees. On Saturday, March 25, when the Orioles defeated the Yankees 7-6, a crowd of 26,417 packed the stands for the largest crowd ever to watch a major league baseball game in the state of Florida. In the spring of '87, the Orioles played host to the Los Angeles Dodgers and the Montreal Expos.

The five baseball games played at JRS have been played with a temporary 30-foot wall as the left field fence to compensate for a distance of 272 feet down the foul line. But should South Florida ever acquire a major-league team, the permanent seats on the stadium's north side would be replaced by retractable seating at a cost of several million dollars. The conversion, which could be accomplished in a matter of months, would give JRS an estimated capacity of 50,000, as well as a left field line measuring about 345 feet.

Dodgers manager Tommy Lasorda had nothing but good things to say about Joe Robbie Stadium's capacity to serve as a baseball facility after watching his team play there. "You get those left field seats moved back and you're going to have a beautiful place to play baseball," Lasorda said. "It's got the potential to be a heckuva baseball stadium. Joe Robbie did a great job on this place. If you can't enjoy this, you can't enjoy anything."

The stadium's namesake, Dolphins owner Joe Robbie, even states that his stadium will be the home to baseball on a full-time basis within the next several years. "I believe we will have a major-league team playing in this stadium as early as 1991 or 1992," says Robbie. "The spring training games played here during each of the last two years have been tremendously successful. I think we have shown Major League Baseball that South Florida deserves its own team and that our stadium is easily adaptable to a baseball configuration. It's just a matter of time before we have a major league team as a tenant in our stadium, and as far as I'm concerned, the sooner the better."

Located one mile south of the Dade-Broward county line, Joe Robbie Stadium sits on a 160-acre site. It is 16 miles northwest of downtown Miami and 14 miles north of the Orange Bowl, the Dolphins' former home.

The first football game in Joe Robbie Stadium featured Miami against Chicago in a preseason battle won by the Bears, 10-3, on Aug. 16, 1987 (the 22nd anniversary of the Dolphin franchise). Plans for the stadium first were announced on March 5, 1984. Clearing of the stadium site began on July 22, 1985, and groundbreaking ceremonies were held on Dec. 1, 1985 — just 20½ months prior to the first game.

Financing for the stadium is based largely upon the leasing of executive suites and club seats on 10-year leases. Executive suites, which seat 10, 12 or 16 people per box, range in price from $29,000-$65,000 per year. Each executive suite is fully furnished, including air-conditioning, carpeting, refrigerator, icemaker, lockable liquor cabinet, lounge furniture, two TV monitors and optional telephone hookup and catered food and beverage service. A suiteholder also receives two free parking spaces as well as four guest passes.

Club seats, which are priced from $600-$1,400 per year on a 10-year lease, are 21" wide (two inches wider than other seats in the stadium) with chairback and armrest. Club seats, whose patrons are kept cool by overhead vents which blow cold air down on them, are the only grandstand-style seating in the stadium underneath the overhang of the upper deck. Club seat holders also are guaranteed a parking space.

Only executive suite and club seat lessees have access to the air-conditioned stadium club, located behind the suites. The stadium club, which features a better food and beverage service than that found at concession stands, extends around the entire stadium. Holders of executive suites and club seats, who have the option to renew their lease over the life of the stadium, also have the right of first refusal on their seats for all other events in the stadium except the Super Bowl.

General seating in Joe Robbie Stadium is a 19" chairback seat with armrest, which compares favorably with the 17" bench seat of the Orange Bowl. Each seat offers an excellent view of the playing field as there are no obstructed seats in the stadium.

The stadium is easily accessible by the fan. Eight 25' wide ramps (two per corner) lead up to the upper deck. Also located on each corner are two escalators, one rising to the upper deck, the other to the club level. Executive suite holders also may access their seats by any one of four designated elevators.

There are a total of 14,970 parking spaces for cars and 254 for buses in the 140-acre on-site lot. There also is a helipad.

Comfort and convenience for the fan is the byword at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the general seating areas (100, 400 levels), there are 40 concession stands (each with a TV monitor so as not to miss a minute of the action). Throughout the stadium, there are a total of 80 restrooms (40 men, 40 women). For added enjoyment of the game, two giant scoreboards each equipped with a color Sony JumboTRON video screen are located on the ends of the stadium.

The playing field is Prescription Athletic Turf (natural grass). Its drainage capacity is such that there would be a firm playing surface within 30 minutes of a 1" per hour rain.

Field lighting is 150-plus foot candles. The field lights also have the added feature of instant restrike capability. This means that the lights will go right back on after a power failure because they do not need a 20-30 minute warmup period as with some stadium lights.

Originally named Dolphin Stadium, the facility was renamed by the Robbie children on April 30, 1987, for the man who had been the driving force behind its construction. "We have seen our father lay everything he owns and everything he has accomplished on the line to build the stadium, putting himself in a real bind," said Tim Robbie, designated spokesman for the family. "If he had flunked the marketing test or the private financing test, the project would have been Joe Robbie's folly. So why not 'Joe Robbie Stadium?' Stadiums have been named in other places after people who have done a lot less to deserve it."

Indeed they have.

DOLPHINS ARE BEST

Since the 1970 merger of the National and American Football Leagues, the Miami Dolphins consistently have ranked in the top echelon of professional football. In fact, the Dolphins have a better winning percentage and more regular-season victories than any other team during that span. The Dolphins are also the only team in either the AFC or NFC to win three straight conference championships (1971-73).

DOLPHIN FACT

Heading into 1989, Miami has not been shut out at home since October 25, 1970 against the Cleveland Browns (28-0), the second-longest such streak in the AFC. Denver has never been whitewashed in Mile High Stadium since the team began play in the AFL in 1960.

MARK CLAYTON

Wide Receiver

#83

Born: 4/8/61

College: Louisville '83

Acquired: D8, 1983

NFL: Seventh Season

Dolphins: Seventh Season

PRO: 1988 — Outstanding receiver with a 35-inch vertical jump . . . Set Miami team record in 1988 with 86 receptions, eclipsing the previous record of 73 catches which he set in 1984 . . . Finished with 1,129 receiving yards (an average of 13.1 yards per catch) and 14 touchdowns . . . It was the third time he has gone over 1,000 yards in receiving . . . For his career he has caught 341 passes for 5,554 yards (an average of 16.3 yards per reception) and 54 touchdowns . . . Had three 100-yard receiving games . . . Caught a touchdown pass in nine games, and in his career the Dolphins have a 26-16 record when he has caught a TD pass . . . Picked up four yards in his one rushing attempt of the season on November 20th vs. New England . . . Started all 16 games . . .

AMONG LEAGUE LEADERS: His 86 catches ranked tied for second in the NFL (along with the Rams' Henry Ellard) behind the Jets Al Toon's 93 receptions . . . His 1,129 reception yards was third in the AFC behind Cincinnati's Eddie Brown (1,273 yards) and Houston's Drew Hill (1,141 yards) and ranked seventh in the NFL . . . Coupled with his one rushing attempt for four yards, his 1,133 total yards from scrimmage ranked 14th in the AFC . . . His 14 touchdowns for 84 points ranked tied for fourth in scoring (along with Cincinnati's James Brooks and Buffalo's Rob Riddick) among non-kickers in the NFL (behind Indianapolis' Eric Dickerson and Cincinnati's Ickey Woods, who had 90 points apiece, and Greg Bell of the Rams, who had 108 points), and was tied for third in the AFC . . . His 14 receiving touchdowns led the NFL (Rickey Sanders of Washington was second with 12) . . . Should he lead the NFL in touchdown receptions this year, he would join Don Hudson (nine times, 1935-38 and 1940-44) and Lance Alworth (three times, 1964-66) as the only receivers to have led the league in that category three or more times . . .

AMONG DOLPHIN LEADERS: His 86 receptions set a Dolphin team record, breaking his former club record of 73 receptions set in 1984 . . . His 1,129 receiving yards was the fifth best single season total in club history . . . In addition to being the third time in his career he has gone over 1,000 yards, it also was only the sixth time in Dolphin history a receiver reached the 1,000 yard mark . . . He holds three of the top five positions in the club's all-time single season listings of both receptions and receiving yardage (see below):

SINGLE SEASON RECEIVING				SINGLE SEASON REC. YARDS
86	MARK CLAYTON	1988	1,389	MARK CLAYTON	1984	1,313	Mark Duper
73	MARK CLAYTON	1984	1,306	MARK CLAYTON	1986	1,150	MARK CLAYTON
72	Tony Nathan	1985	1,129	MARK CLAYTON	1988	1,003	Mark Duper
71	Mark Duper	1984
70	MARK CLAYTON	1985

His 14 receiving touchdowns is the second highest total in Miami history, behind his then-NFL record of 18 reception TDs in 1984, and his 14 overall touchdowns also is the second highest total in club history behind his club record of 18 TDs overall in 1984 . . . Ranks third in Dolphin history with 341 career receptions, behind Tony Nathan (383) and Nat Moore (510) . . . With 5,554 career receiving yards stands second on the Dolphin all-time list behind Moore's club record of 7,547 yards, and along with Moore and Mark Duper are the only Dolphins to have gone over 5,000 receiving yards . . . Has a current streak of at least one catch in his last 38 straight games (beginning on October 12, 1986 vs. Buffalo), breaking Moore's team record (36) for most consecutive games with at least one reception, and in fact has caught at least two passes in each of those 38 games . . . He set the record on December 12th vs. the Browns when he caught a pass in his 37th straight game . . . His three 100-yard receiving games gave him 15 in his career, second in team history only to Mark Duper's club record of 22 100-yard games . . . With 330 career points, ranks fifth on the Dolphins' all-time list (Larry Csonka is fourth with 342 points) . . . He is third on the career touchdown list with 55 TDs (Csonka is second with 57 TDs) . . . Is second in career receiving touchdowns with 54 TDs, trailing only Moore's team record of 74 receiving touchdowns . . . With 6,178 combined yards (99 rushing, 5,554 receiving, and 525 returns), he is fifth among the Dolphins' combined yardage career leaders, trailing Csonka, who is fourth with 7,425 combined yards . . . With 5,653 rushing and receiving yards, he is in fifth place on the all-time Dolphin rushing/receiving list (Jim Krick is fourth with 5,854 total yards from scrimmage) . . . Tied a then-Dolphins team record with ten receptions (for 153 yards and two touchdowns) on October 23rd vs. New York Jets (record was later broken by Jim Jensen, who had 12 catches on November 6th at New England) . . . The ten catches remains Clayton's single game best, and is tied for the second highest Dolphin single game reception total, along with Tony Nathan (three times), Duriel Harris and Ron Davenport, behind Jensen's record of 12 catches . . .

AS A REGULAR: In his career, Clayton has caught at least one pass in 83 of 94 games (including post-season contests), but since becoming a regular in 1984 (his second season in the league), Clayton has caught at least one pass in 78 of his 79 games played, with his one game without a catch in that span coming on October 5, 1986 at New England . . . In his five years as a regular, he ranks among the NFL league leaders in all three major statistical receiving categories (see below):

NFL RECEIVING, LAST FIVE YEARS
(1984-88)

S. Largent	320	D. Hill	4,801	S. Paige	36

WITH MARK DUPER: Clayton and fellow receiver Mark Duper form duo nationally known as the "Marks Brothers" . . . The duo have had 100 or more yards receiving in the same game four times (October 23, 1988 vs. New York Jets; October 19, 1986 vs. Los Angeles Raiders; September 21, 1986 at New York Jets; September 30, 1984 at St. Louis Cardinals), with the Dolphins going 1-3 in those games . . . When either Clayton or Duper go over 100 yards receiving in a game, Miami is 22-15 (regular season) . . . The Dolphins are 8-7 when Clayton tops 100 yards and 14-8 when Duper tops 100 yards . . . Starting with 1983, Clayton's first season in the league, the duo have combined for 11,049 yards, the most by a pair of receivers on the same team in that span, and have a combined 637 catches, the fifth highest total by a duo with the same club over the past six years . . . See below for leading pair of receivers with one team since 1983 in receptions and reception yardage:

Shuler - Toon, Jets	644	Brown - Collinsworth, Cin.	8,772
CLAYTON - DUPER, MIAMI	637	Craig - Rice, S.F.	8,649

GAME HIGHLIGHTS: Clayton's three 100-yard receiving games came on October 23rd vs. New York Jets (10 catches, his single game career high, for 153 yards, the third highest single game yardage total of his career, and two touchdowns), November 27th at the Jets (seven catches for 116 yards and two touchdowns), and December 12th vs. Cleveland (eight catches for 108 yards and two touchdowns) . . . His longest reception of the season was a 45-yard touchdown pass on October 23rd vs. the Jets . . . On October 30th at Tampa Bay made his 300th career reception and became third Dolphin to go over 5,000 career receiving yards . . .

AWARDS: Was named to his fourth Pro Bowl (others were in 1984, 1985, and 1986) . . . Was named United Press International All-AFC (second team) . . . Received the Dolphins' Outstanding Receiver Award for the second consecutive year and the fourth time overall . . . That award has gone to either Clayton or Duper each of the last six years, with Clayton also winning it in 1984, 1985, and 1987, while Duper won in 1983 and 1986.

1987 — Started all 12 non-strike games and finished second on the team in receptions (behind Troy Stradford) with 46 for 776 yards (16.9 average) and seven TDs . . . Was first in receiving yards on club . . . In AFC was eighth in receiving yards, 17th in receptions and ninth in scoring (non-kickers) with 42 points . . . Made at least two catches in every game he played . . . Had only 100-yard game December 13th at Philadelphia with seven catches for 104 yards and two TDs . . . Reception and yardage totals against Eagles both were season highs . . . Had six receptions in first Buffalo contest (81 yards, one TD) and second meeting with Jets (96 yards) . . . Caught eventual winning touchdown pass (of 30 yards) at Cincinnati, a reception which also kept Dan Marino's streak of consecutive games with at least one TD toss alive at 28.

1986 — Finished with 60 receptions for 1,150 yards and 10 TDs, his second 1,000-yard season . . . Was third on team in receptions and second in receiving yards . . . Ranked fifth in conference in reception yardage and was seventh in NFL . . . Named as an alternate to 1986 Pro Bowl, played when Duper was unable to participate . . . Played in 15 games with 14 starts, missing Atlanta game after suffering first-degree separation of right shoulder in game against Jets on November 24th . . . Came back two weeks later at New Orleans to catch four passes for 47 yards, including 200th career reception . . . Turned in best effort of season on September 21st at Jets with eight catches for 174 yards and one touchdown . . . His 177 yards on nine catches (two TDs) versus Raiders on December 2nd is sixth best single-game performance in Dolphin history.

1985 — Started all 16 regular season games plus two playoff contests . . . Finished second on team in receptions (70), only two behind leader Tony Nathan, for 996 yards and four TDs . . . Had four receptions for 56 yards in playoff action . . . Was first on team in pass reception yardage . . . Was eighth in AFC in receptions, seventh in receiving yardage . . . Football News first-team All-AFC selection . . . UPI second-team All-AFC honoree . . . Top game came at home versus Colts on September 15th when he caught eight passes for 106 yards and one TD.

1984 — Had truly sensational year, leaping into national prominence with record-setting campaign in just his second NFL season . . . Caught 73 passes for 1,389 yards and 18 touchdowns . . . His 73 receptions set a Dolphins' single season record that stood until he broke it in 1988 with 86 receptions . . . His 1,389 yards receiving set a club record for receiving yards that still stands . . . His 18 touchdowns set Dolphin records for overall touchdowns and touchdown catches that still stand . . . It also set an NFL record for receiving touchdowns that stood until Jerry Rice of the 49ers caught 22 scoring passes in 1987 . . . Along with Duper (1,306) became first teammates to ever each amass over 1,300 receiving yards . . . Ranked third in league in reception yards and was fifth in AFC in catches . . . Enjoyed six 100-yard receiving days, then a team record . . . Caught at least one touchdown pass in 16 of Miami's 19 total games . . . Caught a then-career high nine passes two successive weeks (December 2nd vs. Raiders and December 9th vs. Colts) . . . Appeared on cover of Sports Illustrated (September 10th) following clutch scoring catch in season-opening win at Washington . . . Postseason honors included AP second team All-Pro, AFC Pro Bowl and USA Today first-team All-Pro.

1983 — Appeared in 14 games in rookie year and set club record for punt return yardage in a season with 392 on 41 returns . . . Had become Miami's punt returner following opening-game knee injury to Tom Vigorito . . . Scored first ever NFL TD against Bills on 14-yard catch in 38-35 OT loss on October 9th while also throwing a 48-yard touchdown pass to Duper on a double reverse option (Marino to Nathan to Clayton) . . . Received first game ball following 37-0 shutout of Colts on November 20th thanks to a 60-yard punt return for a score . . . Suffered broken ribs versus Cincinnati (November 28th) and missed next two games . . . Eighth-round draft choice (223rd overall) of Miami in 1983.

COLLEGE: Had school record-setting tenure at Louisville (1979-82) . . . Set Cardinal career records for most receiving yards (2,004) and highest average per-catch (20.9 yards) . . . Enjoyed spectacular senior season with 53 catches for school record 1,112 yards, 20.9-yard average and six touchdowns to rank 13th in nation in receiving . . . Also set school standard with three TD receptions versus Richmond on 10/16/82 . . . Was named All-South Independent and team MVP in '82 . . . As junior, had 27 catches for 596 yards (22.1 average) and three TDs . . . Contributed 15 receptions for 288 yards and one TD as sophomore . . . Majored in telecommunications.

PERSONAL: Single, splits residence between Pembroke Pines, Fla., Indianapolis, and Atlanta . . . Was leading scorer on Dolphins' basketball team in past two years . . . Founder of Clayton's Kids, an organization which provides a chance to attend Dolphin games to Miami-area underprivileged children who normally would not have opportunity to do so . . . Sponsored golf tournament to raise money for The Starting Place (drug and alcohol rehabilitation center) in off-season for third year in a row . . . Also has worked with "Say No to Drugs" campaign and cystic fibrosis . . . Hobbies include playing guitar and going to arcades . . . Lists favorite movie as "Beverly Hills Cop," favorite TV show as "Love Connection" and favorite recording artists as Anita Baker and Janet Jackson . . . Also a big fan of Louisville basketball team . . . Legend has it that while student at Louisville, once jumped length-wise over ping-pong table . . . Most embarrassing moment of career was early celebration before reaching goal line in 1984 (fumbled ball but recovered in end zone for TD) . . . Attended Cathedral High School in Indianapolis, lettering in football (all-state), basketball and track . . . Full name is Mark Gregory Clayton, born April 8, 1961, in Indianapolis.

NFL: Fifth Season

Dolphins: Fifth Season

PRO: 1988 — Finished third on the Dolphins in rushing, gaining 273 yards in 55 carries (an average of 5.0 yards per carry) . . . His 5.0 yards per carry average was best on the club . . . Among runners with 50 or more carries it was tied for the third best average in the AFC (with San Diego's Gary Anderson and Houston's Alonzo Highsmith) behind Cincinnati's running back duo of James Brooks (5.1 yards per carry) and Ickey Woods (5.3), and was tied for fifth in the NFL . . . Had 30 receptions (sixth on the team) for 282 yards (an average of 9.4 yards per catch) . . . His 30 catches and 282 receiving yards both represent personal season highs . . . With 90 career receptions, needs ten more catches to make his 100th career catch . . . Needs 218 receiving yards to reach 1,000 career reception yards . . . Ripped off a 64-yard run in first quarter at Pittsburgh December 18th, the longest run of his career and tied for the fourth longest run in the NFL in 1988 . . . It also was the longest run by a Dolphin last year, the longest run by a Dolphin since Delvin Williams' 65-yard run at Los Angeles on November 9, 1980, and it was the eighth longest run from scrimmage in Dolphin history . . . Carried six times for 67 yards rushing in that Dec. 18th game at Pittsburgh, the second highest single game rushing total of his career . . . Had a season high of four catches three times (October 23rd vs. Jets, December 4th vs. Indianapolis, and December 18th vs. Pittsburgh), and a season high 39 yards in receptions on December 12th vs. Cleveland . . . His 27-yard catch November 14th vs. Buffalo matched the second longest reception of his career . . . In his first 11 games of the season he gained 61 yards on 18 carries (3.4 yards per carry) and had 14 catches for 134 yards (9.6 yards per catch), but in his five remaining games he rushed for 212 yards on 37 carries (5.7 yards per carry) and caught 16 passes for 148 yards (9.3 yards per catch) . . . Had two kickoff returns for 41 yards (20.5 yard average) . . . Played in all 16 games and made five starts at fullback (the season opener at Chicago and the last four games of the year).

1987 — As he did in 1988, Davenport came on strong at end of 1987 after a slow start . . . Played in 10 games with one start (at Buffalo) . . . Spent two games on five-man inactive roster at mid-season (Pittsburgh, second Indianapolis game) . . . Ended season fourth on team in rushing with 32 carries for 114 yards and one TD . . . Was fifth on club in receiving with 27 catches for 249 yards and one TD . . . Finished strong in receiving department, making 24 of his 27 receptions over final six games . . . Finest receiving performance of career came versus Jets on December 7th when he tied a Dolphin single game reception record with 10 receptions (later broken in 1988 by Jim Jensen, who caught 12 passes at New England on November 6, 1988) for a career high 72 yards . . . Those ten receptions remains tied for the second highest single game total in Dolphin history, along with Tony Nathan (three times), Duriel Harris, and Mark Clayton, behind Jensen's 12 catches . . . Davenport had entered the Jets contest with less catches (nine) over the first six games of '87 than he would catch in that single game . . . Scored first rushing TD since 1985 season at Philadelphia on December 13th from one yard out . . . Posted 1987 season highs for rushing attempts (10) and yards (49) in same Eagles game while making four receptions for 35 yards . . . Had longest reception of career (29 yards) vs. Washington on December 20th.

1986 — Finished as Miami's second leading rusher with 314 yards on 75 carries (4.2 yards per carry) . . . Added 20 receptions for 177 yards and one TD . . . Did not score a rushing TD (his only score was via a reception), compared to 11 rushing scores in 1985 . . . Played in all 16 games with two starts . . . Enjoyed career-high rushing effort versus Houston on November 2nd with 74 yards on 16 carries . . . Had finest overall game at L.A. Rams on December 14th when he tied his season high of four receptions, had third best career rushing effort (eight carries, 61 yards) and made key 35-yard run in winning TD drive in overtime . . . Finished second on team in kickoff returns with 16 for 285 yards (17.8 average).

1985 — Enjoyed impressive rookie season for Dolphins . . . Played in all 16 regular season games, starting once . . . Was team's second leading rusher with 370 yards on 98 carries (3.8 average) . . . Led team with 11 TDs rushing and 13 overall, setting club rookie records in both categories . . . His 13 scores was good for third place in the AFC and was then second highest single season total in Dolphin history (behind 18 TDs by Mark Clayton in 1984), now third best total in team annals (behind Clayton's '84 record and his 14 scores in 1988) . . . Tied Marcus Allen for most rushing TDs (11) in AFC . . . His 78 points was fifth in NFL in scoring (non-kickers) and was second on the Dolphins behind Fuad Reveiz (116 points) . . . It was the third-most points by rookie in Dolphin history . . . Rushed for 57 yards on six carries, including a TD, against Buffalo on December 22nd . . . Scored two TDs in prime-time victory over Bears . . . Gained 48 yards on six carries and scored twice in playoff game versus Cleveland . . . Scored from one yard out with 1:57 left in game to lift Miami over Browns . . . Had career-high three special teams tackles in season finale versus Buffalo . . . Sixth-round draft choice (167th overall) of Miami in 1985.

COLLEGE: Had four-year career at University of Louisville, playing FB until end of sophomore season when shifted to tailback by UL coaches . . . Career totals showed 369 carries for 1,496 yards and 16 touchdowns plus 55 receptions for 535 yards and two scores . . . As 1984 senior, was selected as team's Most Valuable Player . . . Carried ball team-high 130 times for 520 yards and was second in scoring with 42 points . . . Also was Cardinals' third-leading receiver in 1984 with 24 catches for 262 yards . . . Led UL rushers in six of 11 games, including career-best 122 yards against Miami (25 attempts) . . . Teammates now in NFL include Mark Clayton (Dolphins), Frank Minnifield (Browns), Eddie Johnson (Browns), Ernest Givins (Oilers) and Bruce Armstrong (Patriots) . . . Had career-best 526 yards rushing in 1981 . . . Was two-time winner of school's Most Conditioned Athlete award (1982-83) . . . Majored in production management.

PERSONAL: Single, splits residence between Atlanta and Miami with daughter Seqouyah (6/11/81) . . . Played on Dolphins' basketball team in off-season . . . Hobbies include basketball and swimming . . . Has worked with "Say No to Drugs" program and PRIDE . . . Lists favorite TV show as "The Untouchables" and favorite movie as "Platoon" . . . Enjoys listening to Luther Vandross . . . Attended Walter F. George High School in Atlanta, lettering in football, track and soccer . . . #85

College: Northwestern (La.)
St. '82

Acquired: D2, 1982

NFL: Eighth Season

Dolphins: Eighth Season

PRO: 1988 — One of the fastest players in the NFL, runs a 4.3 40-yard dash . . . Always a threat to deliver a quick touchdown on any given play . . . Had an up-and-down season that was cut short after 13 games . . . Received a 30-day suspension on November 29th by the NFL for violation of the league's substance abuse policy, which caused him to miss the final three games of the season . . . Was reinstated to the Dolphins' roster on April 18, 1989 . . . In his 13 games, he caught 39 passes for 626 yards (a 16.1 yards per reception average) and one touchdown . . . Finished fourth on the team in receptions and third in yardage . . . His 39 catches ranked tied for 25th in the AFC, his 626 reception yards ranked 22nd, and his 16.1 yards per catch average ranked tied for 12th among AFC receivers with 30 or more catches . . . His one touchdown came vs. San Diego on October 16th . . . Has career totals of 296 receptions for 5,495 yards (18.6 yards per catch) and 41 touchdowns . . . Became the second player in Dolphin history (after Nat Moore) to surpass 5,000 career reception yards, reaching that plateau on September 25th at Indianapolis (they were later joined in that group by Mark Clayton) . . . Needs just four more catches to reach 300 receptions for his career and needs nine touchdowns to total 50 TDs for his career . . . Caught at least one pass in 11 of his 13 games and now has caught at least one pass in 78 of 89 career games (87.6%) . . . Had one game of seven receptions (on October 16th vs. San Diego) and two games of six receptions (October 2nd vs. Minnesota and October 23rd vs. New York Jets) . . . Had two games of 100 or more yards receiving, a season high 132 yards vs. Jets on October 23rd and 118 yards vs. San Diego on October 16th . . . His longest reception of the season was a 56-yard catch on October 23rd vs. the Jets, the second longest Dolphin reception of the season (surpassed only by Ferrell Edmunds' 80-yard reception on November 27th at the Jets) . . . Also had a 51-yard catch vs. San Diego on October 16th, the club's fourth longest pass reception of the season . . .

AMONG DOLPHIN LEADERS: With 296 catches, he ranks fourth on the Dolphin all-time reception list, behind Nat Moore (510), Tony Nathan (383) and Mark Clayton (341) . . . His 5,495 reception yards ranks third on the team's all-time receiving yardage list, behind Moore (7,547) and Clayton (5,554) . . . His average of 18.6 yards per catch is the second highest career yards per catch average in team history, behind only the 21.5 average of Paul Warfield . . . His 41 receiving touchdowns is third on the club's receiving TD list, behind Moore (74) and Clayton (54) . . . His 41 touchdowns also ranks fourth on the Dolphins' overall touchdown list, behind Moore (75), Larry Csonka (57), and Clayton (55) . . . Among all scorers, his 246 career points ranks seventh on the club's all-time points list (Fuad Reveiz is sixth with 320 points) . . . His two 100-yard receiving games gave him 22 100-yard games for his career (24 including playoffs), extending his own team record (Clayton is second with 15 100-yard games) . . . With 5,485 total yards (rushing and receiving) from scrimmage, ranks sixth (Clayton is fifth with 5,653) . . . Has teamed with Dan Marino for three of Dolphins' six longest pass plays: 85 yards vs. Baltimore on November 20, 1983, 85 yards vs. Houston on November 2, 1986, and 80 yards vs. Indianapolis on September 23, 1984 . . . Only longer pass play in club history is 86-yard Bob Griese-Warfield connection in 1971 . . . Holds fourth (71 in 1984) and sixth (67 in 1986) single-season reception totals in team history . . . Has three of top six seasons in terms of receiving yards: 1,313 in 1986 (second), 1,306 in 1984 (third), and 1,003 in 1983 (fifth) . . . Also has three of top five single-game receiving yardage totals, including club record of 217 yards set in 1985 vs. Jets . . .

WITH MARK CLAYTON: Duper and fellow receiver Mark Clayton form duo nationally known as the "Marks Brothers" . . . Starting with 1983, Clayton's first season in the league, the duo have combined for 11,049 yards on 637 catches . . . The pair have had 100 or more yards receiving in the same game four times (October 23, 1988 vs. New York Jets; October 19, 1986 vs. Los Angeles Raiders; September 21, 1986 at New York Jets; September 30, 1984 at St. Louis Cardinals), with the Dolphins going 1-3 in those games . . . When either Clayton or Duper go over 100 yards receiving in a game, Miami is 22-15 (regular season) . . . The Dolphins are 14-8 when Duper tops 100 yards and 8-7 when Clayton tops 100 yards . . . See Clayton's biography for additional Duper/Clayton information.

1987 — Started 11 non-strike games . . . Sat out second Colts game after suffering rib injury week before at Cincinnati (November 8th) . . . His 33 receptions were his lowest since his rookie season in 1982 . . . Finished third on team with 33 catches for 597 yards (18.1 average) and a team-high eight TDs . . . Was sixth in AFC in scoring (non-kickers) with 48 points . . . Ranked 20th in conference in receiving yards . . . Made career-high nine receptions (for 123 yards, two TDs) in '87 opener vs. New England (September 13th) . . . Tied career high with three touchdowns versus Washington (December 20th), making six receptions for a season-high 170 yards, including game-winning six-yard TD pass with 1:07 remaining to give Dolphins 23-21 win . . . Was named AFC Offensive Player of the Week for his efforts in that game . . . Had third 100-yard receiving game of year in 35-24 victory over Pittsburgh (November 1st), making five catches for 100 yards, including 50-yard TD pass.

1986 — Started all 16 games . . . For first time in career led team in receiving with 67 catches for 1,313 yards and 11 TDs . . . Finished ninth in AFC in receiving and third in league in receiving yardage . . . Went over 1,000 yards in receiving for third time in career . . . His 1,313 reception yards is the second highest total in club history . . . Set Dolphin single season mark with eight 100-yard performances . . . His 11 receiving TDs is tied for the fourth highest total in club history . . . Caught 20-yard TD pass from Marino in overtime win at Rams (December 14th), one of career-high three touchdowns in game . . . Had season-high seven catches against Jets (September 21st), 49ers (September 28th), and Bills (November 16th) . . . Named honorable mention All-NFL by AP . . . Also named to Pro Bowl but did not play because of arthroscopic left knee surgery on January 5, 1987 (was replaced by Clayton) . . . Tabbed by South Florida media as Miami's Outstanding Receiver.

1985 — Early-season thigh injury sidelined him for eight weeks (games 2-9) . . . In first game back, against Jets on November 10th, he set Dolphin record with 217 yards on eight receptions . . . In his first half back in that game, he caught 60-yard TD toss from Marino . . . With :49 left to play he hauled in one-handed, 50-yard TD pass to lead Dolphins to 21-17 victory over Jets . . . Including Jets game, Duper compiled 555 yards on 31 receptions over last six games as Dolphins closed regular season without a loss in that span . . . Started eight of nine contests (came off bench vs. Jets) . . . Suffered his injury against Houston in season's first game, but left lineup next week versus Indianapolis . . . Finished as team's fifth leading receiver with 35 catches for 650 yards and three touchdowns.

1984 — Started all 16 games and had 71 catches for 1,306 yards and eight touchdowns . . . Both receptions and yards would have eclipsed prior Dolphin records if not for even better figures compiled by Clayton . . . His 1,306 yards remains the third highest single season total in Dolphin history and his 71 receptions is the fourth best total in club history . . . Was voted by peers to start for AFC in Pro Bowl and was also first team All-AFC choice by UPI . . . Along with Clayton became first teammates in league history to each go over 1,300-yard reception mark in a single season.

1983 — Became first Miami receiver ever to go over 1,000 yard mark with 1,003 yards on 51 receptions (Warfield's 996 yards in 1971 had been the club's previous high) . . . Caught 10 touchdown passes and 19.7 per-catch average was tops in AFC . . . Was second-team All-AFC selection by UPI and was member of AFC's Pro Bowl team . . . In first NFL start in 38-35 OT loss to Buffalo (October 9th), had then-second best receiving day in Dolphin history with 202 yards on seven catches and two touchdowns.

1982 — Saw action in only two games in rookie campaign and did not catch a pass . . . Was slowed by ankle and hamstring injuries . . . Dolphins had surprised many by drafting him so high, but Duper impressed coach Don Shula at BLESTO workout in Detroit with acrobatic, over-the-shoulder catch . . . Second-round draft choice (52nd overall) of Miami in 1982.

COLLEGE: Played only two years of college football at Northwestern State in Natchitoches, La. . . . As a senior, caught 24 passes for 592 yards (24.7 average) and seven touchdowns, including three TDs versus Northeast Louisiana . . . Attended college on track scholarship . . . At NW State, had 4.28 clocking in 40-yard dash . . . Ran anchor leg on Demons' star-studded NCAA championship 400-meter relay team that also included the late Joe Delaney (Kansas City) . . . Also qualified for NCAA meet in 100-meter dash . . . Broke Delaney's school record in 100 meters with time of 10.21 . . . Majored in law enforcement.

PERSONAL: Married to Cynthia . . . Lives in Marksville, La. . . . Has son, Mark II (4/19/85) . . . Hobbies include boating, fishing and playing golf . . . Enjoys listening to Stevie Wonder . . . Attended Moreauville (La.) High School, lettering in track and basketball . . . Moreauville did not field a football team . . . Full name is Mark Super Duper, born Jan. 25, 1959, in Pineville, La.

FERRELL EDMUNDS

Tight End

Born: 4/16/65

College: Maryland '88

Acquired: D3, 1988

NFL: Second Season

Dolphins: Second Season

#80

PRO: 1988 — Had an outstanding rookie season with the Dolphins . . . Used his 4.6 speed to catch 33 passes for 575 yards (an average of 17.4 yards per catch) and three touchdowns . . . Finished fifth on the Dolphins in receptions and fourth in yardage, while his average yards per catch was second on the team among receivers with ten or more receptions, behind Fred Banks' 18.7 yards per catch average . . . Finished the season strongly, making 11 receptions for 271 yards and one touchdown in his last four games . . . Caught at least one pass in 15 of his 16 games, being shut out only in his debut in the season opener on September 4th at Chicago . . . Started at tight end in 14 of 16 games . . . After coming off the bench his first two games, Edmunds made his first NFL start on September 12th vs. Green Bay in place of Bruce Hardy (who tore ligaments in his ankle the previous week in Buffalo) and remained as the starter at tight end the rest of the season

ROOKIE AND TE RECORDS: Edmunds' 33 receptions set a club record for most receptions by a rookie tight end (the previous record was 13 catches by Joe Rose in 1980) while his 575 yards was only two yards shy of Larry Seiple's team record for most receiving yards (577) in a season by a Dolphin tight end, set in 1969 . . . In addition, Edmunds' 575 yards was the third-highest single season total by any rookie in team history, surpassed only by Nat Moore's 605 yards in 1974 and Jack Clancy's club record of 868 yards in 1967 . . . Edmunds also tied the Dolphin record for most receiving touchdowns by a rookie with three (done previously by Jack Harper in 1967 and Jimmy Cefalo in 1978) . . .

RECORD SETTING PERFORMANCE VS. JETS: On November 27, 1988 vs. the Jets in New York, in the third quarter Edmunds broke an 80-yard touchdown pass from Dan Marino, the longest scoring play in Miami's history involving a tight end . . . It was the Dolphins' longest pass completion of 1988 and was tied for the fourth longest pass completion in Dolphin history . . . It also was the longest pass play in the NFL involving a tight end since September 16, 1984 when M.L. Harris of Cincinnati caught an 80-yarder from Ken Anderson, also at the Jets . . . Edmunds' 117 yards receiving against the Jets in that game (on two receptions) set a new single game Dolphin record for a tight end (breaking Larry Seiple's record of 106 yards set on November 16, 1969 at Buffalo) and also was the third-highest single game receiving total by any rookie in Miami's history, behind the 121 yards by Mel Baker (December 15, 1974 vs. New England) and 126 yards by Jack Clancy (December 3, 1967 at Houston) . . . It was his only game of 100 or more yards receiving in 1988 . . .

GAME HIGHLIGHTS: Had a personal best of five catches (for 98 yards) on December 4th vs. Indianapolis . . . Had two games of four receptions, in his first NFL start on September 18th vs. Green Bay (34 yards, one touchdown) and on October 24th at Tampa Bay (53 yards) . . . Made his first NFL catch on September 11th at Buffalo . . . In addition to his 80-yard touchdown reception vs. the Jets on November 27th, he also had a touchdown reception on September 18th vs. Green Bay and on November 6th at New England . . . Made an initial impression in preseason game vs. Washington on August 13th, taking a short pass over the middle from Ron Jaworski in the second quarter and outrunning Redskin defenders for a 71-yard scoring play . . . His one rushing attempt of the year came on October 16th vs. San Diego when he lost eight yards on his only carry . . . Third-round draft choice (73rd overall) of Miami in 1988.

COLLEGE: Four-year starter at Maryland (1984-87) . . . Rated as one of nation's top tight ends coming out of college . . . First-team All-Atlantic Coast Conference pick in 1987 by AP and ACC Sportswriters Association . . . Also was third-team All-America selection of AP as senior . . . Played in East-West Shrine Game and Senior Bowl . . . Finished career second on Maryland's all-time receiving chart with 101 catches and third on school's all-time receiving yards list with 1,641 . . . Played in '84 Sun Bowl and '85 Cherry Bowl . . . Averaged 17.2 yards per catch in '87 . . . Made career-high 35 catches for 603 yards and two TDs as senior . . . Accounted for 97 yards on four receptions versus North Carolina, setting record with longest non-scoring pass and run play in school history as he grabbed a 10-yard pass and ran 63 yards for 73-yard play . . . Honorable mention on All-America squad of UPI in '86 . . . Ranked second on team in receptions with 28 for 490 yards and three scores . . . Caught six passes for 100 yards versus Penn State . . . Finished third on team in receptions with 21 and was honorable mention All-America pick during sophomore year of 1985 . . . Took over starting job in fourth game of '84 . . . Caught three passes as Terps made greatest comeback in college football history, rallying from 31-0 deficit to defeat Miami (Fla.) 42-40 . . . Honorable mention All-America selection of Football News . . . Caught at least one pass in last nine games of freshman year, including three in Sun Bowl against Tennessee . . . Majored in general studies.

PERSONAL: Single, resides in Danville, Va. . . Was fourth tight end taken in 1988 draft . . . Aspires to play like former TE Kellen Winslow of San Diego . . . Has six sisters and two brothers . . . Enjoys music and fishing in spare time . . . Has been active with March of Dimes . . . Enjoys listening to Run DMC and L.L. Cool J . . . Lists favorite movie as "Trading Places," favorite TV show as "The Cosby Show" and favorite book as "The New Deal" . . . Attended George Washington High School in Danville, Va., lettering in football, basketball, track and baseball . . . Named all-state as a receiver his senior year . . . Full name is Ferrell Edmunds, Jr., born April 16, 1965, in South Boston, Va.

DOLPHIN FACT

Since the 1970 merger of the National and American Football Leagues, Miami is the only NFL team to twice open up a season with 10 or more consecutive wins. The Dolphins did it in 1972 (14 wins) and 1984 (11 wins). Only two other teams have even accomplished this feat - Minnesota in 1975 (10 wins) and Chicago in 1985 (13 wins).

Injury forced him to miss rest of season ... Underwent surgery and was placed on IR on 9/23/86 ... Dr. Peter Indelicato, a University of Florida team physician, performed the surgery in Gainesville, Fla. ... Green, who started the first three games, ended '86 with 15 tackles, four QB sacks and forced fumble.

1985 — Acquired from Tampa Bay on 10/9/85 for first- and second-round draft picks in '86 and immediately added spark and intensity to defense ... Started 11 games ... Had only interception of 1985 against his old team (Tampa Bay) ... Named team's Outstanding Linebacker for 1985 ... Sixth on team with 58 tackles in 1985 ... Combining Tampa Bay stats, had 95 tackles, 7½ sacks, one interception, three forced fumbles and four passes defended.

1984 — While with Tampa Bay, missed opportunity for third consecutive Pro Bowl start in '84 after sustaining multiple injuries in an October, 1984, auto accident ... Broken orbit (eye) bone, fractured wrist and punctured thigh from accident kept him from eight weeks of action, including four weeks on non-football injury list ... Accident came after he had started first four games of season ... Game versus Minnesota one week later was first game he missed entirely in both college and pros ... Returned to action at Green Bay (12/2/84) wearing specially designed "tuffak" shield under face mask to protect orbit bone ... Went on to start final three games and finished season with eight starts and 45 tackles 1983 — Earned second consecutive Pro Bowl start in 1983 with courageous campaign in face of series of injuries ... In addition to Pro Bowl honors, earned first-team All-Pro from The Sporting News, Sports Illustrated and Football Digest ... Initial 1983 injury was hamstring pull in preparation for game versus St. Louis (10/14/83) ... Did not start that week for first time in career ... Inserted himself late in game and led furious second-half rally with 33-yard interception return for TD and 1½ sacks ... Also returned INT for touchdown at Green Bay (21 yards, 10/2/83) ... 1983 season-best 13 tackles at Minnesota (9/18) was one shy of career-best 14 initially set also at Minnesota (11/8/81) and then equaled one year later versus Chicago (1/2/83) ... Finished 1983 with 138 tackles to lead team for second straight season ... Selected All-Pro and St. Petersburg Times Buc MVP by media vote.

1982 — Became only second Buc (also Lee Roy Selmon) to earn All-Pro in 1982 ... Earned first Pro Bowl start in 1982 and was selected first-team All-NFC by UPI ... Became first non-inside linebacker to lead Bucs in tackles with 71 in 1982.

1981 — Had spectacular rookie season with 151 tackles in 1981, most ever by non-inside linebacker among Bucs ... Made every all-rookie team (UPI, PFWA and Football Digest) and was selected alternate outside linebacker to NFC Pro Bowl team ... First-round draft choice (seventh overall) of Tampa Bay in 1981.

COLLEGE: One of most decorated defensive players in history of college football ... Selected to The Sporting News all-time All-America team ... Climaxed remarkable four-year career at University of Pittsburgh by winning 1980 Lombardi Trophy, emblematic of best lineman in country, and finished as runnerup (to George Rogers) in 1980 Heisman Trophy voting, one of best finishes ever by defensive player ... During four years at Pitt, made 460 tackles, including 53 quarterback sacks and 52 other tackles for lost yardage . . . Recorded 123 tackles, including 17 sacks and 11 others for losses as senior in 1980, earning UPI first-team All-America selection for third consecutive season . . . Won four national Player of the Year Awards in 1980 (Maxwell Club, Walter Camp Foundation, The Sporting News and UPI) . . . Primarily a defensive end in college 5-2 defense . . . Made presence known immediately upon arrival at Pittsburgh with 11 tackles, including two sacks and blocked punt, in first college game in 1977 against Notre Dame . . . 1987 — Started all 12 non-strike games in '87 . . . Finished fourth on team with 28 catches for 292 yards and two TDs . . . Remarkably, had five kickoff returns for 62 yards (12.4 avg.) . . . Had season-highs of six receptions and 69 yards in year's last game versus New England . . . Had four catches in each of season's first two games, at New England and at Indianapolis . . . Caught a pass in every game in '87 but one (at Buffalo) . . . Had TD grabs versus Buffalo (1) and Pittsburgh.

1986 — Enjoyed finest season ever by a Dolphin tight end with 54 catches for 430 yards (8.0 average) and five TDs . . . One of seven Dolphins on offense to start all 16 games . . . Marked second straight year he started every game . . . Finished fourth on team in receiving . . . Placed 20th in AFC in receiving . . . Caught 200th pass of career on 11/16 when he hauled in eight-yard toss from Dan Marino at Buffalo . . . Also tied career-high of seven catches in a game in that contest . . . Caught five passes for 44 yards in overtime win at L.A. Rams . . . Hauled in six receptions and a TD in win over the Jets (11/24) . . . Caught at least one pass in every game but one (Houston, 11/2) on 1986.

1985 — Named WIOD Radio's Special Teams Player of the Year . . . Started all 16 regular season games for Miami . . . Took advantage of TE injuries in pre-season and became starter . . . Finished fourth on team with 39 receptions for 409 yards and four TDs . . . Had career-high seven catches (for 84 yards) against Pittsburgh . . . Made key 22-yard grab in last-second drive to set up winning points to defeat Steelers . . . Also had five catches for 52 yards and two scores against Buffalo (2) . . . Aided Dolphins against Cleveland in playoffs with five receptions for 51 yards.

1984 — Performed in all 16 regular-season games with five starts for Super Bowl-bound Dolphins . . . Also started all three playoff contests . . . Finished with 28 catches for 257 yards and career-best five touchdowns . . . Added five receptions for 64 yards and one TD in post-season play . . . In 31-7 victory at Pittsburgh, caught first TD pass since '82 regular season finale . . . Had four snags for 50 yards in 34-28 OT loss at San Diego on November 18 . . . The next week, earned game ball with then-career-high six receptions for 51 yards and two touchdowns (also a career high) in 28-17 Dolphin win over the Jets . . . Second scoring catch in that game (12 yards) was Dan Marino's 36th touchdown pass of the season that tied the all-time NFL record . . . Caught a TD pass in each of Miami's final two regular season games, versus Indianapolis and Dallas . . . In 31-10 playoff win over Seattle on December 29, caught three balls for 25 yards and one score . . . Along with Dan Johnson and Joe Rose, Dolphin tight end production included 74 receptions for 878 yards and ten touchdowns.

1983 — Saw action in 15 games with eight starts . . . Usually started along with Dan Johnson when Dolphins began game in double-TE alignment . . . Caught 22 balls for 202 yards with 9.2-yard average per catch . . . After catching only four passes in first seven games, caught at least one ball in last nine regular season contests . . . Combined with other two Miami tight ends, Dan Johnson and Joe Rose, Dolphins got 75 receptions for 736 yards from TE position . . . Had three catches for season-high 49 yards, including a 25-yarder in 17-7 loss at New Orleans on October 2 . . . Had pair of clutch receptions in 20-17 win at San Francisco on November 6 . . . Caught 1983-high four balls in 31-24 victory over Atlanta on Dec. 4.

1978-82 — In strike-shortened 1982 season, had 12 catches for 66 yards and two TDs, both against Colts . . . Six receptions in '82 post-season play included pair of scoring receptions versus New England in 28-13 Miami win . . . In 1981 season, had five catches for 89 yards in 41-38 OT playoff loss to San Diego . . . 50-yard touchdown reception in that game was then the longest-ever scoring hook-up involving a Dolphin tight end . . . Appeared in all 16 games in 1980, making 12 starts . . . Finished with 30 receptions for 386 yards and three TDs in '79 . . . Won starting job in preseason that year when regular TE Andre Tillman suffered broken leg . . . Actually took two snaps from center as quarterback against Chicago (9/23/79) when all three Miami QBs were injured . . . In rookie season of 1978, special teams talents in addition to receiving skills paved way for roster spot . . . Had 20 tackles, including ten solos on special teams, and also was part-time snapper on punts in '78 . . . Two of first four pro receptions went for touchdowns.

COLLEGE: Originally went to Arizona State as quarterback, starting opening game of sophomore season at QB (5 of 11 for 67 yards) before being shifted to receiver . . . Finished second on the Dolphins in receiving (behind Mark Clayton's 86 catches) . . . His 58 catches was tied for tenth in the AFC and was tied for 26th overall in the NFL . . . That total was more than double his 1987 figure of 26 catches and was 13 more than his career total of 45 catches entering the 1988 campaign . . . His five touchdown catches ranked second on the Dolphins (behind Clayton's 14 TD catches) and equalled his career total coming into the 1988 season . . . Had at least one reception in 15 of his 16 games, going without a catch only in November 27th game at the Jets . . . Tied Bob Brudzinski, Brian Kinchen, and Reyna Thompson for team lead in special team tackles with nine . . . Forced one fumble . . . Played in all 16 games with four starts — two at fullback (October 16th vs. San Diego and November 14th vs. Buffalo) and two at tight end (November 6th at New England and November 20th vs. New England) . . .

NEW DOLPHIN RECORD: Set a single-game Dolphin record for receptions with 12 (for a career-high 110 yards) at New England on November 6th, breaking the team record of ten catches, formerly held by Tony Nathan (three times), Duriel Harris, Ron Davenport, and Mark Clayton . . . His 12 receptions that game also tied the Jets' Mickey Shuler (October 2nd vs. Kansas City) for the third highest single game reception total in the NFL last year, behind the Jets' Al Toon's 14 receptions vs. the Dolphins on November 27th and Toon's 13 catches November 6th at Indianapolis . . .

FIRST DOWNS: Of his 58 receptions, 36 went for first downs . . . Of his ten rushing attempts, eight produced first downs . . . In all, of the 68 times he touched the ball, he picked up a first down on 44 occasions (65% of the time) . . . On third down, he touched the ball 19 times (six runs, 13 receptions), and 16 times he picked up a first down (84%) . . . Vs. Cleveland on December 12th, all seven times he touched the ball he gained a first down (six receptions, one run) . . .

GAME HIGHLIGHTS: In addition to setting career highs with 12 receptions and 110 yards at New England on November 6th, Jensen had two games with six catches, which matched his previous single game high . . . On October 23rd vs. the Jets he had six receptions for 96 yards (his second highest career single game yardage total) and one touchdown, and his 31-yard reception in that game was the longest reception of his career . . . Also had six catches for 76 yards and one touchdown December 12th vs. Cleveland . . . His 23-yard run in his only carry in season opener at Chicago on September 4th was more than his career rushing total (18 yards) up to that point . . . His 23 yards vs. Bears also was his single game career rushing best . . . In next game, at Buffalo on September 11th, rushed for 21 yards on two carries (including a 15-yard gain) . . . After picking up those 44 yards on three carries in his first two games, he gained only 24 yards on seven carries the remaining 14 games of the season . . . Caught his 100th career pass at Pittsburgh on December 18th . . . Went over the 1,000 yard mark in career reception yardage on December 12th vs. Cleveland . . . Played in his 100th game on September 11th at Buffalo.

1987 — Took on a new role as team's third down running back, in addition to duties as backup wide receiver and quarterback . . . Played in all 12 non-strike games with no starts . . . Made 26 receptions, seven more than he had in career entering year (13 in '84, 1 in '85, 5 in '86) . . . His 26 receptions (221 yards, 1 TD) was seventh on team . . . Had at least one reception in every non-strike game except second meetings with Colts and Jets . . . Set then-career high six catches (for 34 yards) at Buffalo on November 29th . . . Had four receptions in season opener at New England . . . Caught three passes in first meeting vs. Colts and Bills . . . Only receiving TD came at Indianapolis on September 20th . . . Had first four NFL carries of career, with three going for first downs . . . First carry was against Pittsburgh on November 1st.

1986 — Saw action in all 16 regular season games . . . Caught five passes for 50 yards and one TD as backup receiver . . . Saw additional time vs. Atlanta on November 30th when Mark Clayton was out with an injury and responded with best game of year, two catches for 32 yards and 20-yard TD . . . Beat out 10th round draft pick Jeff Wickersham for No. 3 QB spot.

1985 — Had only one reception, a four-yard TD grab against Tampa Bay on October 20th.

1984 — Achieved national publicity by playing quarterback, wide receiver, tight end, punt snapper and on special teams at various times . . . During early part of season was subject of feature stories in Sports Illustrated, Sporting News, and graced cover of PRO! . . . Despite being listed officially as wide receiver, beat out fifth-round draft pick Dean May for third-string QB job . . . As a receiver, finished eighth on team with 13 receptions for 139 yards and two touchdowns . . . Best overall game came in Miami's 35-17 season-opening win at Washington . . . Started that game (first NFL start) and caught five passes for 40 yards and a pair of touchdowns . . . Those TDs were first of NFL career . . . Was moved from quarterback to wide receiver early in the season due to good hands plus QB trio of Dan Marino, David Woodley, and Don Strock that promised to limit playing time . . . Threw 35-yard touchdown pass to Mark Duper vs. New England on September 9th.

1983 — Made first appearance as receiver versus Jets on October 16th.

1982 — Threw one pass, an incomplete attempt, against the Colts in Baltimore on January 2 (1983).

1981 — Notched 14 special team tackles in rookie campaign . . . Beat out Brad Wright, team's fourth-round draft choice in 1981, for third QB spot on roster . . . Eleventh-round draft choice (293rd overall) of Miami in '81.

With 87 games played, needs 13 more games to reach 100 games played . . . Had three sub-50 percent completion percentage games in 1988 (September 4th at Chicago, October 9th at the Raiders, and November 27th at the Jets) and now has suffered just nine sub-50 percent completion percentage games in his 87 regular season games (others were 11/2/86 vs. Oilers, 9/23/84 vs. Colts, 11/13/83 vs. Patriots, 11/15/87 vs. Colts, 11/29/87 vs. Bills, and 12/20/87 vs. Redskins) . . . In his six-year career, he has played 87 games (85 starts), and is 1866-3100 for 23,856 yards, 196 touchdowns, and 103 interceptions, for a passing efficiency rating of 91.5, which ranks second among the all-time passing leaders, behind Joe Montana's 92.0 rating (see below) . . . Reached NFL minimum (1,500 career attempts) mark to qualify for ratings during the 1986 campaign . . . Holds 21 Dolphin team records (tied for two others) and 16 NFL records (tied for three others) . . . This was only second off-season that was surgery-free; other was after 1986 season . . . Underwent left knee surgery after each of his four other NFL seasons: 1/6/84 after 1983, 4/3/85 after 1984, 2/7/86 after 1985, and 3/8/88 after 1987 season ('88 operation performed by Olympic ski team physician Dr. Richard Steadman in Lake Tahoe) . . .

AMONG NFL LEADERS: Marino currently ranks in various categories among the all-time NFL leaders, among the league's overall active quarterbacks, and among the league leaders in his six seasons (1983-88) in the NFL:

Although other active quarterbacks might precede him, with 3,100 attempts, Marino needs 601 passes attempted to break into the NFL's all-time Top Twenty list of pass attempts (Jim Plunkett is 20th with 3,701 pass attempts), and with 1,866 pass completions, Marino needs 145 completions to break into the league's all-time Top Twenty list of completions (Archie Manning is 20th with 2,011 completions) . . .

YARDAGE: With 23,856 career yards passing, Marino needs 1,144 more yards to reach 25,000 yards passing milestone . . . Needs 3,064 yards to break into the NFL's all-time Top Twenty list in career passing yards (George Blanda is 20th with 26,920 yards passing) . . . Became the 45th quarterback in NFL history to go over 20,000 career yards passing, reaching that milestone September 18th vs. Green Bay . . . With his 4,434 yards passing in 1988, Marino went over 4,000 yards in a season for the fourth time in his six-year career . . . He is the only quarterback in NFL history to have four 4,000-yard seasons . . . Dan Fouts (three, 1979-81) is the only other QB to have multiple 4,000-yard seasons . . . Marino's four 4,000 yard seasons came in 1984 (5,084 yards), 1986 (4,746), 1988 (4,434), and 1985 (4,137) . . . Along with Fouts, Marino is the only other QB to pass for 4,000 yards in three straight seasons (1984-86) . . . His 4,000-yard seasons account for four of the nine leading single season passing yardage totals in NFL history:

NFL SINGLE SEASON PASSING YARDAGE LEADERS

YEAR	PLAYER	YARDS	YEAR	PLAYER	YARDS
1984	DAN MARINO, MIA	5,084	1983	Lynn Dickey, G.B.	4,458
1981	Dan Fouts, S.D.	4,802	1988	DAN MARINO, MIA	4,434
1986	DAN MARINO, MIA	4,746	1983	Bill Kenney, K.C.	4,348
1980	Dan Fouts, S.D.	4,715	1985	DAN MARINO, MIA	4,137
1984	Neil Lomax, St. L.	4,614	1980	Brian Sipe, Cle.	4,132

Marino also has five 3,000-yard seasons to his credit (1984-88) in only six years, just one season shy of Fouts' NFL record of six (1979-81, 1984-86) . . . Other QBs with five 3,000 yard seasons are Sonny Jurgensen, Tommy Kramer, and Joe Montana . . . With his two 400-yard games in 1988, Marino is up to nine career 400-yard games, one of his many NFL records, and his 521 yards vs. Jets on October 23rd was the second-best yardage total in NFL history:

TOP FIVE PASSING YARDAGE GAMES IN NFL HISTORY

Norm Van Brocklin, Rams	41-27	554	5 TDs	Won vs. NY Yanks	9/28/51
DAN MARINO, MIAMI	60-35	521	3 TDs	Lost vs. NY Jets	10/23/88

Y.A. Tittle, Giants	39-27	505	7 TDs	Won vs. Wash.	10/29/62

With six 300-yard games in 1988, Marino now has 32 300-yard games in his career and passed Johnny Unitas to move into second place, trailing only Dan Fouts' career total of 51 300-yard games . . . Dolphins were 1-1 in his two 400-yard games in '88 and in his career are 6-3 in his nine 400-yard games . . . They were 2-4 in his six 300-yard games last year and overall are 21-11 in his 32 career 300-yard games . . . Owner of 28 of the top 33 passing yardage games in Dolphins' history . . .

TOUCHDOWN PASSES: Marino cracked the NFL's all-time Top Twenty for career TD passes in 1988 and now stands tied for the 14th spot with Norm Snead and Bobby Layne, each with 196, and needs one TD to move into a tie for 13th place with Ken Anderson:

Through his first six seasons, Marino has averaged a remarkable 32.66 TD passes per season and 2.25 TD passes per game . . . If he should reach his season average in 1989, Marino would move into eighth place on the all-time list and would become the league's all-time TD pass leader with 343 in the second game of the 1993 season, passing all-time leader Fran Tarkenton (342) . . . Of all the QBs in the Top Twenty Marino has played the fewest number of years and he also has the most TD tosses among active players . . . Threw at least one touchdown pass in 13 of his 16 games in 1988, with his three games without a TD pass coming on September 11th at Buffalo, November 20th vs. New England, and December 18th at Pittsburgh . . . Marino has thrown at least one TD in 79 of his 87 regular-season games (85 of 93 overall) and 47 of his last 51, as well as in each of his six playoff games:

Needs four more TD passes to become the 13th player in NFL history to throw 200 TD passes . . . When he passes for his 200th career TD, he will reach that plateau faster than any quarterback in NFL history; Johnny Unitas, the current record-holder, threw for his 200th touchdown in the 121st game of his career, while Marino has played in but 87 career games to date:

With his first two TD passes on September 7, 1986 at San Diego, he set an NFL record for 100 career TD passes in the fewest amount of games to start a career, reaching that milestone in his 44th contest, breaking the previous mark (53 games) held by Unitas . . . With his two four-TD games, Marino now has 16 four-TD games, leaving him only one shy of Unitas' NFL record of 17 four-touchdown pass games . . . His five-TD game at Jets on November 27th was the fifth five-plus TD game of his career and his first since December 14, 1986 . . . With his 28 touchdown passes in 1988, Marino has thrown for 20 or more touchdowns in each of his six professional seasons . . . If he throws for 30 or more touchdowns this year, he will become the first QB in NFL history to throw for 30 or more touchdowns in four different seasons; he already is the only quarterback to pass for 30-plus touchdowns in three different seasons, and he did it in three straight years (1984-86) . . . He is the only QB to throw 40 or more TDs in two different seasons (1984, 1986) . . . Holds NFL record for most consecutive games with four-or-more TD passes (four in 1984) . . .

MARINO'S TOUCHDOWNS BY QUARTERS (regular season)

FIRST:	32	THIRD:	51
SECOND:	71	FOURTH:	41
OVERTIME:	1

NFL RECORDS: In addition to above records in yardage and touchdowns, he holds NFL single season record for attempts (623 in 1986), completions (378 in 1986), yards (5,084 in 1984) and touchdowns (48 in 1984) . . . Having led the NFL in attempts in 1984, 1986, and 1988, should he lead the league in attempts this season, he would join only three others (Sammy Baugh, Johnny Unitas, George Blanda) who have led the NFL in that category four times . . . Having led the NFL in completions from 1984-86 and 1988, if he does so again he would join Sammy Baugh as the only players to have led the NFL in that category in five seasons . . . He and George Blanda (1963-65) are the only QBs to lead the NFL in completions three consecutive years . . . Marino's career completion percentage (60.2) is second only to Montana (63.2) on the all-time chart . . . Having led the NFL in passing yards from 1984-86 and 1988, should he lead the league in that category, he would join Sonny Jurgensen as the only players to have led the NFL in passing yards in five seasons, and only Fouts (1979-82) has led the league longer consecutively in yardage (four seasons) . . . Having led the NFL in touchdown passes from 1984-86, if he does so again, he would join only two others (Johnny Unitas, Len Dawson) who have led the league in that category in four seasons, and only Unitas (1957-60) has led the NFL in TDs longer consecutively (four seasons) . . .

DOLPHIN RECORDS: With his first TD pass on December 12th vs. Cleveland, Marino broke the Dolphin record for career touchdown passes . . . Prior to that contest, Marino had been tied for the record with Bob Griese at 192, and Marino finished the season with 196 TD passes . . . Griese played 14 NFL seasons (1967-80), while Marino completed his sixth year in the league (1983-88) . . . Below is a look at where Marino stands in terms of Griese's team career records for passing yards, attempts, completion, and interceptions . . . He is only 1,237 yards, 330 attempts and 61 completions away from breaking Griese's club marks in those categories, while yet remaining 70 interceptions shy of the team record:

TD PASSES	YARDS	ATTEMPTS	COMPLETIONS	INTERCEPTIONS
196 Marino	25,092 Griese	3,429 Griese	1,926 Griese	172 Griese
192 Griese	23,856 Marino	3,100 Marino	1,866 Marino	103 Marino

Marino already also holds team career records for: highest passer rating (91.5), ahead of Griese (77.1), Earl Morrall (76.2), Don Strock (73.5), and David Woodley (65.4); highest completion percentage (60.2); and most 300-yard games (32) . . . Vs. Jets on October 23rd set a team record with 60 attempts (completing 35) and also tied a team record with five interceptions while throwing for 521 yards, the highest total in Dolphin history as well as the second best total in NFL history . . .

GAME HIGHLIGHTS: Enjoyed the finest game percentage wise (81.3) of his career on December 4th vs. Indianapolis, hitting on 26 of 32 passes for 304 yards and three TDs with only one interception . . . Threw an 80-yard touchdown pass to tight end Ferrell Edmunds at the Jets on November 27th, the longest pass play of the season, and tied for the fourth longest pass play in Dolphin history . . . Passed for five TDs in that Jets' game, the seventh time in 10 career games vs. the Jets that Marino has passed for three or more TDs . . . At the Raiders on October 9th his 38.9 completion percentage (14-36) was the second lowest of his career . . . On September 25th at Indianapolis Marino was sacked four times for only the third time in his career . . . Against Bears at Chicago on September 4th, had career low nine completions, while his 113 yards passing was the second lowest figure of his career . . .

CLASS OF 1983: Marino, the 27th pick in the first round by the Dolphins in 1983, has a 9-9 record against the five other quarterbacks drafted in front of him in games when both QBs have started . . . Marino is 2-4 versus Buffalo's Jim Kelly (drafted 14th), 4-3 vs. the Jets' Ken O'Brien (drafted 24th), 1-0 vs. Denver's John Elway (drafted first by the Baltimore Colts), and 2-2 vs. New England's Tony Eason (drafted 15th); he has never faced Pittsburgh's Todd Blackledge (drafted seventh by Kansas City) . . .

HONORS: Was an Associated Press All-NFL honorable mention selection in 1988 . . . Did not make Pro Bowl for first time in his career, after being named to the Pro Bowl each of his first five seasons (first four as starter), but playing in only one (after 1984 season) . . . Remains tied with four others (Csonka, Warfield, Scott, Baumhower) for second-most Pro Bowl years (five) by a Dolphin; record is six by Griese, Langer, Kuechenberg and Stephenson . . . Also remains tied with Stephenson for second-most Pro Bowl starts (four) by a Dolphin; Langer is first with five . . . Won the Dolphins' Most Valuable Player Award in 1988 in balloting of South Florida media for sixth straight year . . . No other Dolphin has ever won more than two consecutive MVP awards . . . Marino tied Griese (1967-68, 1970-71, 1974, 1977) with six MVP awards . . . Marino also was voted the Dolphins' Outstanding Offensive Back by the media for the sixth consecutive year, tying the team high set by Csonka (1970-74, 1979), who also won that award six times.

1987 — Led AFC in attempts (444) and completions (263) . . . Was second in NFL in attempts behind Neil Lomax (463) and third in completions behind Lomax and Montana (266) . . . Finished second in AFC in passing with 89.2 rating behind Bernie Kosar (95.4) . . . Placed fourth in league passing rating . . . Was behind Boomer Esiason (3,321) in AFC passing yards with 3,245 yards . . . Led AFC in touchdowns with 26 (Montana topped league with 31) . . . Did not play in three replacement games, breaking his string of 50 straight starts . . . Had a streak of 30 consecutive games with at least one TD pass broken at Buffalo on November 29th, marking the end of the second-longest string in NFL history behind Johnny Unitas' 47 straight games with a TD pass.

1986 — Led AFC in passing (92.5); second in league to Tommy Kramer (92.6) . . . Only QB in league to throw TD pass in every game in '86 . . . Threw for 4,746 yards, third-highest total in NFL history . . . Threw 44 TDs in '86, second-highest total ever behind his own 48 . . . At one point, had 103 straight pass attempts without interception . . . Was named AFC offensive player of the week following week 15 (OT win over Rams in Anaheim) when he hit on 29 of 46 for 403 yards and five TDs, including 20-yard toss to Mark Duper in OT for the win . . . Tabbed AFC's player of the month for November when in five games he completed 122 of 198 (61.6%) for 1,510 yards (302 per-game average) and 16 TDs . . . Had longest pass completion in league (85 yards for TD to Duper vs. Houston, 11/2/86) . . . Tied team record, set personal high with six TD passes versus Jets (9/21/86) . . . Went over 15,000 yards passing in career versus Atlanta (11/30/86) . . . For first time in career, threw four INTs in a game; did it twice, vs. 49ers (9/28) and Atlanta (11/30).

1985 — Finished fourth in AFC in passing; fifth in league . . . Led league in yards (4,137), completions (336) and touchdowns (30) . . . Was second in AFC in attempts behind John Elway (605) . . . Threw for over 300 yards six times; Dolphins won all six games . . . Was 45 of 93 for 486 yards, three TDs and three INTs in two playoff games.

1984 — Had sensational season in '84; named in nationwide poll by CBS and The New York Times as most popular pro football player in America despite second-year status . . . Led NFL in attempts (564), completions (362), yards (5,084), average gain per pass attempt (9.0), percentage of TDs per attempt (8.5), TDs (48) and rating (108.9) . . . His yards, TDs and completions were new NFL records . . . Threw four TDs versus Patriots (10/21/84), breaking Bob Griese's single-season team record for TD passes in just eight games . . . In game number nine, broke Griese's seasonal team mark for passing yards that was set in '68 . . . Set AFC Championship Game records by throwing for 421 yards and four TDs in 45-28 win over Pittsburgh on 1/6/85 . . . In Super Bowl XIX, completed 29 of 50 for 318 yards.

1983 — Enjoyed unparalleled success for first-year QB in '83 . . . Named Rookie of the Year and was first rookie QB named to start in Pro Bowl . . . Amazingly, accumulated all stats and honors despite playing only the equivalent of 10 games . . . Miniscule interception rate of 2.0 shattered Griese's '71 team record of 3.4 . . . Led AFC in passing with 96.0 rating; first rookie QB since 1970 league merger to lead a conference in passing (fifth in NFL history) . . . Third in league behind Steve Bartkowski (97.6) and Joe Theismann (97.0) . . . Tied for fourth in AFC in TDs with 20 . . . In relief appearance against Raiders (9/18/83), engineered TD drives on first two possessions as an NFL quarterback . . . Made first start in overtime loss to Buffalo (10/9/83) and was 19 of 29 for 322 yards and three TDs . . . At one point, threw 95 passes without an INT and tossed just three in 242 attempts . . . First play as an NFL QB was a sideline pass completion thrown to Duper for nine yards versus the Raiders (9/18/83) . . . Marino's first NFL TD came at the end of his first drive in the league: a six-yarder to TE Joe Rose . . . Marino's first NFL INT came a week later (10/2/83) in New Orleans as Reggie Lewis returned it 27 yards for a TD . . . TROY STRADFORD

Running Back

Born: 9/11/64

College: Boston College '87

Acquired: D4, 1987

NFL: Third Season

#23

PRO: 1988 — Had up-and-down sophomore season . . . Finished second on the Dolphins in rushing with 335 yards on 95 carries (a 3.5 yards per carry average) and two touchdowns . . . Was third on the club with 56 receptions for 426 yards (a 7.6 average) and one touchdown . . . Finished 13th in the AFC in receiving and third among AFC running backs, behind Earnest Byner (59 catches) and John L. Williams (58 catches) . . . Coupled with his 48 catches as a rookie in 1987, Stradford has caught more passes (104) over the last two seasons than any AFC running back except Byner (111) and is tied for tenth among AFC receivers as a whole (see below):

AFC RECEIVING, LAST TWO YEARS

This year should reach 1,000 yard mark for his career in both rushing (with 954 yards needs 46 more) and receiving (with 883 yards needs 117 more) . . . Threw one incomplete pass (the second pass attempt of his career) on September 25th at Indianapolis . . . Scored three touchdowns for the season, two rushing (October 16th vs. San Diego and October 23rd vs. Jets) and one receiving (September 25th at Indianapolis) . . . Played in 15 games, making six starts (including the first three games of the season and five of the first six) . . . His one game missed was at New England on November 6th when he was on inactive list with an ankle injury . . . Was leading the Dolphins in both rushing (158 yards on 45 carries) and receiving (29 catches for 209 yards) through the club's first five games . . . In first eight games rushed 73 times for 231 yards but carried ball only 22 times (for 104 yards) in second half of season . . .

GAME HIGHLIGHTS: Scored winning touchdown on three-yard run in fourth quarter vs. San Diego on October 16th to give Dolphins comeback 31-28 win . . . Had 42 yards rushing (seven carries) and 56 yards receiving (three catches) in 24-7 victory over Minnesota on October 2nd . . . His single game season highs in both rushes and yardage came at Buffalo on September 11th, when he rushed for 48 yards on 15 carries . . . His longest run of the season was for 18 yards, on October 2nd vs. Minnesota . . . Had three games of seven receptions (one shy of his single game career high of eight catches), on September 11th at Buffalo, October 16th vs. San Diego, and December 4th vs. Indianapolis . . . Had a season high 60 yards receiving vs. Chargers on October 16th . . . Twice had 36-yard receptions (September 18th vs. Green Bay and October 2nd vs. Minnesota), the longest receptions of his career.

1987 – Enjoyed successful rookie season in 1987 after lasting until fourth round (99th pick overall) in draft . . . Won numerous rookie of the year awards . . . Was second straight Dolphin player to be named as league's top rookie – John Offerdahl received similar honors in 1986 . . . Led Dolphins in rushing and receiving in '87, only second player in team history to do so (Tony Nathan in 1985 was other) . . . Played in all 12 non-strike games with five starts . . . Took starting job from Lorenzo Hampton for final five games of season after outstanding performance at Dallas (11/22) . . . First NFL start came one week later at Buffalo (11/29) . . . Ended first league season with rushing totals of 145 carries for 619 yards (4.3 average) and six TDs . . . Also had 48 receptions for 457 yards (9.5 average) and one TD . . . In AFC, was 10th in rushing, 13th in receiving, 6th in total yards from scrimmage (1,076) and tied for 9th in scoring (42 points) . . . Was top NFL rookie in receiving, total yards from scrimmage and scoring (non-kickers, tied with D.J. Dozier of Minnesota) . . . Was second in league among rookie rushers behind Christian Okoye of Kansas City . . . Finished year with three 100-yard rushing performances, most by a rookie in team history and most in a season by any Dolphin player since three by Andra Franklin in 1982 . . . Top game of rookie season came at Dallas (11/22) when he was named AFC offensive player of the week after rushing for 169 yards (third-highest in team history) and one TD in 20-14 win over Cowboys . . . Also had six receptions for 83 yards against Dallas, giving him 252 combined yards in game (tied for third-highest in team history) . . . His key 37-yard run on third down with less than two minutes remaining iced game . . . Had 19-yard TD run to open scoring for Dolphins and later set up field goal with career-long 51-yard scamper . . . Had two longest runs of career (51, 37 yards), as well as then-longest reception (34 yards) of career, in Cowboys game . . . Had first 100-yard game of career against Pittsburgh (11/1) with 110 yards and one TD on 19 carries . . . Also had career-high eight receptions (for 46 yards) in Steelers game . . . Tied team record (done nine times previously) by rushing for three touchdowns in prime-time win over Jets (12/7) . . . Had 120 yards on 30 carries (one shy of team record for attempts in regular-season game) . . . Caught seven passes for 49 yards, in addition to one-yard rushing TD, in 20-14 win at Cincinnati (11/8) . . . Only receiving TD of year went 18 yards at Indianapolis (9/20) . . . Established team rookie record for total yards from scrimmage with 1,076, surpassing 1,043 of Jim Kiick in 1968 . . . Had second-highest rookie receiving total in club history with 48 (behind only 67 of Jack Clancy in 1967) . . . Finished third among rookie rushers (behind Franklin and Kiick) on all-time Miami list . . . Also was third on team rookie lists for touchdowns (seven, tied with Larry Csonka), rushing attempts (145) and rushing TDs (six, tied with Csonka) . . . Many post-season honors in 1987 included: AP NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year, USA Today/NFLPA AFC Offensive Rookie of the Year, Pro Football Weekly NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year and NFL Films Offensive Rookie of the Year . . . Was named to All-Rookie teams of UPI, PFWA, PFW and Football Digest . . . Runner-up to Shane Conlan of Buffalo for UPI AFC Rookie of the Year . . . Named as Dolphins' Rookie of the Year in 1987 by South Florida media . . . Also won Tommy Fitzgerald Award as outstanding rookie in training camp . . . Finished second on team in kickoff returns in '87 with 14 for 258 yards (18.4 average) . . . Ironically, also ended season as leading passer on team (by rating) . . . Completed only attempt of year (six yards to Bruce Hardy in second Colts game) for club-high 91.7 rating . . . Judged second-most underrated player in 1987 draft by Sports Illustrated's Paul Zimmerman . . . Fourth-round draft choice (99th overall) of Miami in 1987.

COLLEGE: Four-year starter (1982-84, 1986) for Boston College . . . Finished career as school's all-time leading rusher with 3,504 yards and 27 TDs on 658 carries (5.3 average) . . . Also had 95 receptions for 1,196 yards and nine TDs in BC career . . . Gained 1,188 yards in '86 campaign, second-best single-season mark in school history . . . Was fourth season he had led team in rushing . . . Served as one of three captains for Eagles in '86 (John Bosa was another) . . . Honorable mention All-America selection, in addition to being named first-team All-Eastern College Athletic Conference . . . Was named MVP of '87 Japan Bowl, despite being on losing East squad, after rushing for 95 yards and touchdown on 10 carries . . . His 11 TDs in '86 also was second-highest single-season total in school history . . . Also caught 31 passes for 445 yards as senior . . . Named Offensive Player of the Game after 27-24 BC win over Georgia in '86 Hall of Fame Bowl as he ran for 122 yards and a touchdown on 20 carries . . . Missed one game in '86 due to rib injury . . . Had '85 season cut short to three games by hamstring problems, eventually receiving medical redshirt year . . . Opened 1985 with 100 yards and touchdown on 21 carries in Kickoff Classic loss to defending national champion Brigham Young . . . Then had gained 115 yards and caught one TD pass the following week against Temple before suffering pulled left hamstring late in contest . . . Tried to come back in week six against Rutgers, but hamstring gave out again . . . Won honorable mention All-America status from AP in 1984 . . . Also first-team All-ECAC selection . . . Had 1,088 all-purpose yards . . . Rushed 142 times for 666 yards and five TDs, and caught 37 passes for 422 yards and five TDs . . . DOLPHIN FACT

The 1972 Dolphins continue to hold the distinction of being the only unbeaten, untied team through the playoffs. Miami went a perfect 17-0 in winning Super Bowl VII. In that season, Miami became the only team to lead the NFL in scoring offense and defense in the same season since the 1970 merger of the AFL and NFL.

DOLPHIN FACT

The Dolphins hold the NFL records for most seasons leading the league in fewest sacks allowed (8 – 1973, 1982-88) and most consecutive seasons leading the league in the same (1982-88). In 1988, Miami set NFL records by allowing only seven sacks in the 16-game season and by not allowing a sack in the final 12 games of the '88 season (streak continues into 1989).

1988 GAME-BY-GAME SUMMARIES

CHICAGO 34, DOLPHINS 7
September 4, 1988

Soldier Field
Chicago, IL

The Dolphins suffered their first regular-season loss ever to the Bears, falling 34-7 at Soldier Field. The game marked the fourth consecutive season that the Dolphins opened a season with a loss. The Bears dominated Miami in all phases of the game, leading in first downs (28-10), third-down efficiency (9-15 to 0-7), total net yards (427-163), total plays (78-36), yards rushing (262-45), yards passing (178-128) and time of possession (45:32 to 14:28). Miami's 10 drives resulted in seven punts, two fumbles, and one TD (a 28-yard pass from Dan Marino to Mark Clayton). Marino suffered one of his worst days in a Dolphin uniform with a career-low nine completions and second-lowest 113 passing yards. His 22 attempts tied for the fourth-fewest in his career and his completion percentage of 40.9% was second lowest. Chicago's five rushing TDs were the most ever given up in one game by Miami, and the Bears' 14 rushing first downs tied the second-highest total ever allowed by the Dolphins. Miami's 10 rushing attempts were the third lowest single-game total in Dolphin history, while the Bears' 54 rushing attempts were the second-most ever registered against the Dolphins. The Bears opened up the scoring on a Neal Anderson first-quarter two-yard scoring run. On the second Dolphin offensive play following the Bears' kickoff, a bad center exchange between Jeff Dellenbach and Marino resulted in a Miami fumble, which was recovered by Bears' defensive lineman Richard Dent on the Dolphin one-yard line. On the Bear's first offensive play following the fumble, Anderson ran the ball in for a touchdown and a 14-0 lead for Chicago. The Dolphins narrowed the margin to 14-7 when Marino and Clayton combined on a TD pass. However, Chicago increased its lead to 28-7 in the second-quarter on a pair of Jim McMahon TD runs. Chicago closed out the scoring in the fourth-quarter scoring on a 20-yard run by Thomas Sanders.

GAME 2

BUFFALO 9, DOLPHINS 6
September 11, 1988

Rich Stadium
Orchard Park, NY

The Dolphins saw their season record dip to 0-2, losing in a field-goals-only 9-6 contest to the Bills in Buffalo. For Miami, it marked the first game that the team has been held without a touchdown since Nov. 29, 1987 - ironically, that contest was also at Rich Stadium against the Bills, with the Dolphins losing 27-0. It was only the second time (both in Buffalo) in his last 37 starts that Dan Marino has not thrown a TD pass. The game was the lowest combined-point total since a Sept. 4, 1983, Dolphin win (12-0) in Buffalo. The last time an opponent defeated Miami without scoring a touchdown was the infamous snowplow game in New England (3-0 on Dec. 12, 1982). The last time the Dolphins held an opponent without a TD was the 42-0 replacement win over Kansas City in '87. The last non-strike game where Miami held an opponent without a TD was the 45-3 Monday night win over the N.Y. Jets in '86. Coming off a disappointing season-opening loss in Chicago, the Miami defense responded with one of its best efforts in recent years, holding a high-powered Buffalo attack to nine points. The Dolphins got on the board first with a 31-yard Fuad Reveiz field goal in the first quarter, before Buffalo kicker Scott Norwood evened the game at the half with a 41-yarder. Reveiz put Miami back on top with a 27-yard FG, however Norwood answered the score again as he tied the game early in the fourth quarter with a 35-yard field goal. Miami moved to the Buffalo 33-yard line on the next drive, but a 50-yard FG attempted by Reveiz was short. Buffalo took over and marched to the Dolphins' 11, where Norwood converted a 28-yard FG for the lead with 3:12 remaining. The Dolphins began their last-chance drive on their 28 and moved to the Buffalo 35, where the drive stalled. Buffalo ran out the clock to preserve the win.

DOLPHINS 24, GREEN BAY 17
September 18, 1988

Joe Robbie Stadium
Miami, FL

The Dolphins picked up their first win of the season - and 200th regular-season victory in team history - with a 24-17 triumph over Green Bay before a home opening crowd of 54,409 at Joe Robbie Stadium. It marked Miami's 18th win in 23 home openers, including the last 13 straight years and 17-2 record under Don Shula. Green Bay is now 0-5 in regular-season contests with the Dolphins. The victory also increased Miami's record at home versus NFC Central foes to 9-1. The Dolphins scored all of their points on their first four possessions - three TDs and a field goal. Miami went out to a 17-0 first quarter lead on a 29-yard field goal by Fuad Reveiz, a two-yard run by Lorenzo Hampton and a 25-yard TD pass from Dan Marino to Mark Clayton. After Green Bay responded with a one-yard scoring run by QB Randy Wright, the Dolphins capped a picture-perfect, seven-play, 92-yard drive with a four-yard TD toss from Marino to rookie TE Ferrell Edmunds, who made his NFL start in place of injured veteran Bruce Hardy. Green Bay's Brent Fullwood scored on a one-yard run late in the first half to narrow the Packers' deficit to ten, 24-14, at intermission. The only points of the second half came in the third quarter on a 36-yard field goal by Max Zendejas. Marino finished the game with 22 of 33 for 261 yards and two TDs with two interceptions. Marino went over the 20,000-yard mark in career passing yardage, becoming only the 45th quarterback in NFL history to do so. Marino had his string of consecutive pass attempts without an interception snapped at 73. Troy Stradford led all Dolphin receivers with six catches for 57 yards. Hampton was Miami's leading rusher with 53 yards on four carries (13.3 average) and one TD.

GAME 4

INDIANAPOLIS 15, DOLPHINS 13

September 25, 1988

Hoosier Dome

Indianapolis, IN

The Colts' Dean Biasucci tied an opponent record with five field goals to lift Indianapolis to a 15-13 victory over Miami at the Hoosier Dome. Biasucci's five FGs tied the mark set by Roy Gerela of Houston on Sept. 28, 1969. Biasucci is also one of four kickers to boot four field goals against Miami, having hit them in the Colt win in 1987 at Joe Robbie Stadium. The game marked the second time this year that the Dolphins lost despite not allowing a touchdown, the other being a 9-6 loss to Buffalo in Week 2. Miami got on the board first, taking the opening kickoff and moving 80 yards in six plays. Dan Marino capped the march with a 39-yard pass and run to Lorenzo Hampton, who pulled a hamstring on the play, hobbled to the endzone and was forced to miss the second half. After Biasucci's initial FG (50 yards) in the first quarter, the Colts went on top when he added three FGs (34, 41, 51) in the second quarter for a 12-7 halftime edge. The 51-yarder came on the last play of the first half after a Miami fumble on the Dolphins 37-yard line with :16 left in the first half. Both teams went scoreless in the third quarter, although Miami did drive deep into Colt territory midway through the period. Faced with a fourth-and-one at the Colt 16 with 3:20 left on the game clock, Troy Stradford slipped and was stopped for no gain. Indianapolis then put together what proved to be its game-winning drive, moving 91 yards on 15 plays in 8:46 to set up a 25-yard field goal by Biasucci. Eric Dickerson carried the ball nine times for 48 yards to set up Biasucci's kick. The kick gave the Colts an eight-point margin (15-7) with 1:57 left. Miami took the ensuing kickoff and moved 69 yards in nine plays as Marino found Stradford in the end zone from eight yards out with :19 remaining. After a missed PAT, Miami tried an unsuccessful onside kick.

GAME 5

DOLPHINS 24, MINNESOTA 7

Joe Robbie Stadium

October 2, 1988

Miami, FL

The Dolphins registered an impressive 24-7 victory over the Minnesota Vikings at Joe Robbie Stadium. The win upped Miami's record to 10-1 at home against NFC Central foes since the 1970 league merger (only loss was to be the Vikings in '76). The Dolphins' defense played well for the fourth straight week, picking up two QB sacks, nine passes defended, one blocked field goal (Rick Graf) and four interceptions (two by linebacker Mark Brown). It marked the first time since Sept. 9, 1984, against New England in the Orange Bowl, that Miami had four interceptions in one game. The Miami "D" did not allow a touchdown for the second straight week and the third time in the first five games of '88. Minnesota's only score came on a 48-yard interception return by Carl Lee in the fourth quarter. The Dolphins scored all four times they got inside the Viking 20-yard line. After a scoreless first-quarter, Miami exploded for 17 points in the second quarter. Fuad Reveiz scored the game's first points on a 38-yard field goal only eight seconds into the second period. Dan Marino then capped a 10-play, 66-yard drive with a three-yard scoring toss to Jim Jensen. Just before halftime, Dolphins LB John Offerdahl intercepted a Tommy Kramer pass (one of four on the day by Kramer) and returned it to the Viking 31-yard line. Three plays later, Marino found Lorenzo Hampton from one yard out and Miami led 17-0 at the intermission. On Minnesota's second possession of the second half, Kramer was intercepted by William Judson, who returned it 52 yards to the Viking five-yard line. Two plays later, Hampton ran it in from five yards out for Miami's last score of the day. Minnesota finally got on the scoreboard in the fourth quarter on Lee's scoring interception return.

GAME 6

DOLPHINS 24, L.A. RAIDERS 14

L.A. Memorial Coliseum

Los Angeles, CA

The Dolphins reversed history by defeating the Raiders 24-14, at the L.A. Memorial Coliseum. It marked Miami's first win ever against the Raiders in their home stadium and the Dolphins' first victory over L.A. in 10 years. It was also Miami's first road victory of '88. The game was played in 96 degree heat – the warmest game in Dolphins history. Ironically, the previous warmest game was against the Raiders – in Oakland on the very same date in 1966, when it was 93°. Miami's defense continued to play well as Miami intercepted four passes for the second straight week, returned a fumble for a TD and added a blocked field goal attempt. The defense shut out the Raiders in the first half and allowed only two TDs (both passing) in the second half. Those passing scores were the first given up by the Dolphins this season. After a scoreless first quarter, Miami erupted for 24 points in the second quarter – equaling the previous season point total for that quarter. Miami's first score came at the end of a brilliant, 11-play, 84 yard drive which took up almost six minutes. Lorenzo Hampton capped off the march with a one-yard dive into the endzone. After the ensuing kickoff on L.A.'s first play, Dolphins LB Hugh Green made a jarring hit on Vance Mueller, forcing a fumble at the Raiders' 19. Safety Liffort Hobley scooped up the ball and ran it in for the score. The Miami defense set up the next score when rookie Jarvis Williams garnered his first NFL interception and returned it to the Raider 45-yard line. Five plays later, Fuad Reveiz booted a 45-yard FG. Just before intermission, veteran CB Don McNeal intercepted a pass, giving Miami a first down at the Raiders' 42 with just 34 seconds left in the half. Four plays later, Dan Marino found a wide-open Jim Jensen for a 17-yard TD with eight seconds left and Miami led 24-0 at the half. While Miami was held scoreless in the second-half, the Raiders managed two TDs – both on Jay Schroeder scoring tosses – the first touchdown passes allowed in team record streaks of five games and 25 quarters.

GAME 7

DOLPHINS 31, SAN DIEGO 28

October 16, 1988

Joe Robbie Stadium

Miami, FL

Dan Marino moved into sole possession of second-place on the NFL's career 300-yard passing game list with his 27th such game (behind only Dan Fouts with 51) in leading the Dolphins to their third consecutive win, a 31-28 comeback over San Diego before 58,972 at Joe Robbie Stadium. The Dolphins, who were down 28-17 entering the fourth quarter, had four takeaways in the second half to lead the comeback. After San Diego took the opening kickoff and moved 87 yards for a 15-yard scoring strike from Mark Malone to Quinn Early, the Dolphins came back to tie on a six-yard TD pass from Marino to Mark Duper. Then, Fuad Reveiz booted a 22-yard field goal in the second quarter to put Miami ahead. But San Diego used two TDs (a one-yard run by Malone and 21-yard pass from Malone to Darren Flutie) to put together a 21-10 lead at the half. Miami got the big play early in the third quarter when Reggie Roby's 52-yard punt was fielded by the Chargers' Lionel James at his 12-yard line. James returned the ball to the 19 before he was hit by Jim Jensen and fumbled. Rick Graf recovered for Miami giving the Dolphins a first down at the 14. Three plays later, Lorenzo Hampton scored on a two-yard run. The Chargers came back, however, and completed a nine-play, 73-yard drive, capped off by a one-yard run by Curtis Adams to increase their lead to 28-17 entering the fourth quarter. Miami, who had scored a total of 16 points in the second half all year, would tally 14 in the fourth quarter to pull out the win. First, Hampton ended an 85-yard march with his second rushing TD of the day (this one from one yard out) and Troy Stradford added another rushing touchdown (of three yards) for the game-winner. Stradford's TD was set up by the Miami defense – this time Reyna Thompson forced the fumble and Don McNeal recovered for the Dolphins. The Dolphins rushed for only 47 yards (on 25 carries) against the Chargers but still managed three rushing TDs.

GAME 8

N.Y. JETS 44, DOLPHINS 30
October 23, 1988

Joe Robbie Stadium
Miami, FL

The Dolphins suffered their first loss at home in '88 – and saw their AFC East record drop to a disappointing 0-3 – with a 44-30 defeat at the hands of the Jets before 68,292, the largest crowd in the two-year history of Joe Robbie Stadium. The game saw an awesome performance by Dolphins QB Dan Marino, who passed for the second-best single-game yardage total in NFL history – 521 yards (Norm Van Brocklin holds the single-game record of 554) and completed 35 of a team record 60 attempts. Marino also tied a team record with five interceptions and threw three touchdowns. It was Marino's eighth career game with over 400 yards passing – an NFL record. The Dolphins put together 584 yards of total offense, breaking the previous mark of 569 set on Jan. 6, 1985 vs. Pittsburgh. After a low-scoring first quarter which saw the Dolphins lead 7-6 on a 45-yard TD pass from Marino to Mark Clayton and the Jets scoring their points on a pair of Frank Leahy field goals, New York exploded for 24 points in the second period – a 36-yard scoring strike from Ken O'Brien to Wesley Walker, a 55-yard interception return by Jets rookie free safety Erik McMillian (he would have three interceptions on the day), a 28-yard Leahy field goal and a 6-yard touchdown reception from Al Toon off an O'Brien toss. The half ended with the Jets having a 30-10 advantage. Miami began a comeback in the third quarter as Marino hit on 15 of 18 passes for 239 yards and two TDs in the period. The Dolphins opened the second half on an 11-yard scoring pass from Marino to Clayton, but the Jets answered with O'Brien throwing 13 yards to Kurt Sohn in the endzone and the Jets had a 37-17 advantage. The Dolphins came back quickly and scored two TDs – first, on a leaping, two-yard scoring reception by Jim Jensen and then on a one-yard run by Troy Stradford – and closed the margin to seven points, 37-30. But the Jets put the game away when Johnny Hector scored on a late one-yard scoring run.

GAME 9

DOLPHINS 17, TAMPA BAY 14
October 30, 1988

Tampa Stadium
Tampa, FL

The Dolphins turned five Tampa Bay turnovers into 17 points, while not giving up the ball themselves, to beat the Bucs, 17-14, in Tampa in a battle for Florida bragging rights. Dan Marino threw touchdown passes of five and eight yards to Mark Clayton to lead the attack. Clayton (seven catches for 80 yards) became only the third player in team history to go over 5,000 career receiving yards, in addition to making his 300th career reception. After a scoreless first half, the first entirely scoreless half for the Dolphins since Sept. 22, 1985 when Miami and Kansas City did not score before halftime, the Dolphins stormed out of the gate in the second half with 17 straight points. All 17 points were scored on successive possessions as a result of Tampa Bay fumbles. Following a Lars Tate fumble at the Bucs 31, the Dolphins drove in for the score as Marino hit Clayton with a five-yard TD pass. On Tampa Bay's next possession, former Buc Hugh Green forced a William Howard fumble. Four plays later, Marino completed the 35-yard drive with an eight-yard scoring strike to Clayton. On the Bucs' first play from scrimmage on their next possession, Tate fumbled again and the Dolphins took over at the Tampa Bay 36-yard line. Miami ended up settling for a 31-yard Tony Franklin field goal. Tampa Bay fought back in the fourth quarter for 14 unanswered points. Veteran QB Joe Ferguson threw scoring passes of five and 27 yards to Tate and Bruce Hill, respectively, to bring the Bucs back within three points with 5:57 remaining. After Miami's next drive stalled with a missed Franklin field goal attempt of 38 yards, Tampa Bay took its final shot at winning the game. Ferguson drove the Bucs down to the Miami 39 before his fourth down pass, intended for Gene Taylor, was batted away by Bud Brown.

GAME 10

NEW ENGLAND 21, DOLPHINS 10
November 6, 1988

Sullivan Stadium
Foxboro, MA

The Dolphins dropped to 0-4 in the AFC East after a 21-10 loss at New England. The Patriots held a 14-3 lead at the half. Robert Perryman opened the scoring by capping a 12-play, 54-yard drive for New England with a one-yard scoring run. Miami kicker Tony Franklin (a former Patriot) then booted a 51-yard FG to put the Dolphins on the scoreboard. However, with 57 seconds remaining in the first half, Miami's William Judson was called for running into New England punter Jeff Feagles on fourth down, giving the Patriots a final opportunity to score just before intermission. New England took advantage, driving the remaining 64 yards in 30 seconds with no timeouts. Irving Fryar capped off the drive with a one-yard TD reception off a Doug Flutie pass. In the second half, the Patriots scored on their first possession, going 66 yards in 11 plays without passing the ball once. Rookie RB James Stephens, who had 104 yards on 25 carries on the day, ran 13 yards for the touchdown to put New England on top 21-3. Later in the third quarter, Dan Marino hit rookie TE Ferrell Edmunds with a 20-yard scoring pass to bring the Dolphins back to within 11 points. The Dolphins had three drives into New England territory in the fourth quarter (to the 32, six and 18 yard lines, respectively), but came up empty each time. The first drive stalled on fourth down, the second ended with an interception and time ran out on the third. Miami got a career day from WR/RB Jim Jensen, who caught a team-record 12 passes for a career-high 110 yards. The previous single-game record for receptions was 10, which has been accomplished on six occasions. The Miami defense gave up only 277 yards to the Patriots, the fewest yards the Dolphins have allowed this season.

GAME 11

BUFFALO 31, DOLPHINS 6
November 14, 1988

Joe Robbie Stadium
Miami, FL

The Dolphins dropped a key division battle and saw their AFC East record fall to 0-5 with a 31-6 loss to division-leading Buffalo at Joe Robbie Stadium on Monday Night Football. The loss marked the 12th defeat for Miami in its last 14

AFC East contests. Buffalo, with the NFL's best record at 10-1, now has defeated Miami four straight times. Buffalo rolled up 205 yards on the ground and 211 through the air enroute to the victory. Jim Kelly led the passing attack, completing 18 of 26, including one TD. Robb Riddick gained 77 yards rushing on 16 carries and scored two TDs. Riddick added five receptions for 48 yards. The Dolphins managed only a season-low 33 yards rushing on 13 carries. Dan Marino was 19 of 30 for 224 yards, including Miami's only score (a four-yard TD pass to Mark Clayton), and was intercepted three times. For an NFL-record seventh straight game, the Miami offensive line did not allow a QB sack. Buffalo got on the board first with a 16-yard TD pass from Jim Kelly to Ronnie Harmon and the initial quarter ended with Buffalo owning a 7-0 advantage. Early in the second period, Miami attempted to tie the score, however Woody Bennett's run on a fourth-and-two from the Buffalo six was stopped for no gain. On the next drive, Buffalo's Scott Norwood booted a 30-yard field goal for a 10-0 Bills advantage. Miami's only score came later in the period when Miami capped off a 91-yard drive with a four-yard pass from Marino to Clayton. The snap on the PAT try was high and holder Ron Jaworski's pass fell incomplete and the first half came to a close with the Dolphins within striking distance of the Bills at 10-6. Marino finished the first half completing an amazing 10 of 13 pass attempts. However, the second half would belong to Buffalo. After Miami punted on the half's first series, Buffalo took the ball and drove 80 yards to score on Riddick's one-yard plunge. After the kickoff, Cornelius Bennett intercepted a Marino pass (intended for Ferrell Edmunds) on the Dolphins' 17-yard line. The Bills wasted little time scoring as Ronnie Harmon ran the ball in from six yards out. On Miami's next possession Marino was intercepted again (this time by Mark Kelso) and Buffalo again scored as Riddick powered the ball in from the one yard line to close out the scoring.

GAME 12

NEW ENGLAND 6, DOLPHINS 3
November 20, 1988

Joe Robbie Stadium
Miami, FL

The Dolphins saw their playoff hopes virtually come to an end with a disappointing 6-3 loss to the New England Patriots at Joe Robbie Stadium. The Miami defense enjoyed its best yardage effort of the season by holding the Patriots to 248 yards in total offense (78 passing, 170 rushing). On offense, Miami gained a season-high 124 yards on the ground but it was not enough as the Dolphins failed to reach the endzone for the second game this season. This game marked the fourth time this season that Miami's defense did not allow a TD, but the Dolphins have won only one (vs. Minnesota) of those games. After a scoreless first quarter, the Dolphins went on top with their only score of the night - a 27-yard field goal by Tony Franklin early in the second period. Franklin would later miss three field goals (of 54, 50 and 23 yards). Jason Staurovsky tied the game for the Patriots with a 22-yard field goal midway through the second quarter. The only points of the second half came on Staurovsky's 34-yard kick with just over five minutes remaining in the third quarter. Franklin's first miss came on the last play of the first half when his 54-yarder was wide left. Late in the third quarter he missed again, this time from 50 yards out when his kick was short and wide to the right. But the most crucial miss came after Miami had moved from its own 30-yard line to the Patriots' six yard line with seven minutes left to play. Franklin, with Ron Jaworski holding, kicked wide left on a 23-yard attempt. For the second time this year, Dan Marino was held without a TD pass as he ended the night 19 of 29 for 169 yards with no INTs. Ron Davenport paced the Dolphins' ground attack with a personal season-high of 43 yards on seven carries.

N.Y. JETS 38, DOLPHINS 34

November 27, 1988

Giants Stadium
East Rutherford, NJ

The Dolphins lost their fourth straight game and fell to 0-7 in the AFC East due to a 38-34 setback to the Jets at Giants Stadium. Jets QB Pat Ryan started for New York and became the first passer in 1988 to throw for over 300 yards versus Miami as he hit on 27 of 43 for 341 yards and two TDs. After Ryan suffered a mild concussion, Ken O'Brien came on to complete six of nine for 92 yards and two TDs — all in the fourth quarter. As a team, the Jets compiled 597 yards total offense (most ever allowed by Miami) and put together 39 first downs (most in NFL history). Al Toon caught 14 passes for 181 yards, the most receptions ever in one game against Miami. Dan Marino passed for five TDs for Miami and completed 17 of 35 for 353 yards with no INTs. He was not sacked for the ninth straight game. Mark Clayton caught seven passes for 116 yards and two TDs, while rookie TE Ferrell Edmunds had two receptions for 117 yards (including an 80-yard TD from Marino). Fred Banks grabbed two TD passes and finished with three catches for 74 yards. It marked the seventh time in 10 career games vs. the Jets that Marino passed for three or more TDs. The Jets went on top early as Ryan hit Wesley Walker in the endzone with an eight-yard scoring strike. Miami tied the game later in the quarter when Marino hit Banks for a 10-yard score. However, the Jets went up by 10 in the second period when Ryan fired a 14-yard TD strike to TE Mickey Shuler and Pat Leahy kicked a 29-yard field goal. But on a fourth-and-10 play with 1:28 left in the half, Marino completed a 37-yard TD pass to Banks. The Jets, however, marched 76 yards in five plays and, when Freeman McNeil scored on a three-yard run, led 24-14 at the half. The third quarter belonged to Miami — and Marino — as the Dolphins exploded for 20 points and went on top 34-24 entering the fourth quarter. In the period, Marino hit Clayton for TD passes of 31 and 25 yards and then connected with Edmunds on an 80-yard scoring pass (longest of the season for Miami and the longest pass play involving a tight end in Dolphin history). But, for the fifth straight game (10th time in 13 games this year), the Dolphins did not score in the fourth quarter. O'Brien passed for two scores (seven yards to Shuler and 18 yards to Wesley Walker) for the winning margin.

GAME 14

INDIANAPOLIS 31, DOLPHINS 28

Joe Robbie Stadium

December 4, 1988

Miami, FL

The Dolphins dropped their fifth straight game and picked up their ninth loss (most in one year since 1969 when Miami went 3-10-1) of the season with a 31-28 defeat at the hands of the Colts at Joe Robbie Stadium. The setback gave Miami an 0-8 record in the AFC East in '88. The Dolphins took an early 7-0 lead after the first quarter on a one-yard run by Lorenzo Hampton on the game's first drive. But the Colts exploded for 21 second-quarter points to lead 21-7 intermission. Indianapolis tied the game in the second when reserve quarterback Ricky Turner, who entered the game to run the Colts' wishbone offense, scored from one yard out. Indianapolis pulled in front on the strength of Eric Dickerson's two-yard scoring run and Clarence Verdin's 19-yard TD reception off a Chris Chandler aerial. The Dolphins pulled to within seven in the third period when Dan Marino fired a 27-yard TD strike to Mark Clayton. However, the Colts sent the margin back to 14 points when Turner scored his second one-yard TD. Miami answered the Colts' score with one of their own when Marino found Jim Jensen in the endzone to bring the Dolphins back to within seven points at 28-21. The Colts' Dean Biasucci kicked a 47-yard field goal late in the game to provide the winning margin. Miami made a late attempt to tie the game when Marino threw his third touchdown of the day (one-yard to Mark Clayton) but the subsequent onside kick was recovered by Indianapolis. It marked the third time this year that Miami lost a game by three points. Marino, with three TD passes, tied Bob Griese's Dolphin career record of 192. Clayton tied Nat Moore's team record for most consecutive games with a reception (36). Marino enjoyed the finest game percentage-wise (81.3) of his career, hitting on 26 of 32 for 304 yards and three TDs with only one INT. Erik Dickerson had the most rushing yards vs. Miami this year, gaining 169 on 31 carries and adding a TD.

GAME 15

DOLPHINS 38, CLEVELAND 31
December 12, 1988

Joe Robbie Stadium
Miami, FL

The Dolphins snapped a five-game losing streak with an impressive 38-31 win over the Cleveland Browns in their last appearance at Joe Robbie Stadium for 1988. Dan Marino became the first QB in NFL history to pass for over 4,000 yards four times and he also set the Dolphins' career TD mark. Marino finished 30 of 50 for 404 yards and four TDs with three INTs. Both Mark Clayton, who set the single-season reception mark last week with 80, and Fred Banks went over 100 yards in receiving. Clayton, who had two TD catches and leads the league in that category, caught eight passes for 108 yards. Jim Jensen added six catches for 76 yards and one TD. Lorenzo Hampton was all-purpose for Miami, gaining 41 yards on 12 carries and scoring a rushing TD and then adding four receptions for 27 yards, including another TD. The Dolphins outgained Cleveland 497-353 and compiled a team-record 34 first downs. After a scoreless first quarter, Miami got on the board first when Marino capped a 10-play, 74-yard drive with an 11-yard scoring toss to Clayton. The Browns took the lead when Kosar connected with Earnest Byner for a 39-yard scoring play and Matt Bahr added a 33-yard field goal to go up 10-7. But the Dolphins came back with Marino hitting Jensen for a two-yard scoring pass and Fuad Reveiz booting a 35-yard field goal as the half ended with a 17-10 Miami lead. The Dolphins went out to a 24-10 advantage in the third period when Marino hit Hampton with a two-yard scoring loss. However, Kosar came right back moving Cleveland 72 yards in 13 plays and finally taking it in himself from the two-yard line. Early in the fourth period Marino and Clayton teamed up again, this time from nine yards away, for a score and a 31-17 Miami lead. On Cleveland's next possession, Kosar was hit by Dolphin linebacker John Offerdahl and left the game. When Kosar went down, former Dolphin Don Strock entered the game and led Cleveland to 2 TDs – both passes to Reggie Langhorne, the last of which tied the game at 31-31 with just :59 to play. But Marino moved the Dolphins 65 yards in four plays (the key play being a 46-yard pass to Banks) and Hampton's one-yard scoring run with :34 to play provided the victory.

GAME 16

PITTSBURGH 40, DOLPHINS 24
December 18, 1988

Three Rivers Stadium
Pittsburgh, PA

The Dolphins closed out a disappointing season with a 40-24 loss to the Pittsburgh Steelers at Three Rivers Stadium. The Steelers returned two interceptions for touchdowns – the first time an opponent has accomplished that feat against Miami. Dolphins WR Scott Schwedes had a career day as he more than doubled his career receiving totals in the contest. Schwedes caught four passes for 110 yards and had entered the game with career receiving totals of two catches and 30 yards. Pittsburgh got on the scoreboard first when Miami took the opening kickoff and marched the ball to the Steeler 36-yard line. But a pass intended for Ron Davenport was intercepted by Dwayne Woodruff at the 22-yard line and returned 78 yards for the touchdown. Miami came right back tying the game on a two-play 68-yard drive capped off by Lorenzo Hampton's four-yard run. The key play in the drive was Davenport's 64-yard run – the longest run by a Dolphin in '88. Following a Steeler fumble (recovered by Brian Sochia), Miami scored on a 20-yard Fuad Reveiz field goal and led at the end of the first quarter 10-7. The Steelers, however, came right back to re-take the lead when Louis Lipps ran 39 yards on a reverse. On their next possession, Marino threw 42 yards to a diving Schwedes on the Steeler one-yard line to set up Hampton's second touchdown of the day, a one-yard plunge into the endzone. However, the Steelers scored two more times on a pair of Gary Anderson field goals (34 and 43 yards) to take the lead at the half 20-17. Rodney Carter scored on a one-yard run (key play being a 33-yard run by Warren Williams) to open up the second half. Pittsburgh poured it on in the fourth quarter when Anderson hit a 34-yard field goal and linebacker Darin Jordon returned a Marino interception 28-yards for a touchdown. Pittsburgh closed out their scoring when Greg Lloyd forced a Hampton fumble and Thomas Everett returned the ball to the Dolphin 11-yard line. Anderson capped of the drive by booting a 22-yard FG. Miami reserve quarterback Ron Jaworski replaced Marino and drove the Dolphins 77 yards and hit Mark Clayton in the endzone with a 13-yard TD pass.

DOLPHINS 15-0 VS. 3 CLUBS

The Miami Dolphins have built a perfect 15-0 regular-season record against three clubs in the National Football League through the 1988 season.

Those teams which never have beaten Miami are Green Bay (0-5), N.Y. Giants (0-1) and Phoenix (0-5). The Dolphins face the Packers during the 1989 season.

Eleven other NFL teams have beaten Miami only once in the regular season. Those teams are Atlanta (1-4), Chicago (1-4), Dallas (1-4), Detroit (1-2), L.A. Rams (1-4), Minnesota (1-4), New Orleans (1-4), San Francisco (1-4), Seattle (1-2), Tampa Bay (1-3) and Washington (1-4). The Dolphins are scheduled to play the Cowboys in '89.

Miami set an NFL record with 20 consecutive wins over Buffalo from 1970 through 1979.

THE ORANGE BOWL

The 1986 season marked the end of an era for the Miami Dolphins as the team played its final season in the Orange Bowl. In 21 years, the Dolphins posted a 110-38-3 (.738) regular-season record.

In the playoffs, Miami was 10-4 at the 75,206-seat Orange Bowl, giving the team a 120-43-3 (.736) mark at the OB in all games.

The Orange Bowl has been the site of many great sporting events, including five Super Bowls, the annual Orange Bowl Classic and championship boxing matches.

DOLPHIN FACT

Since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger, a total of 95 Dolphin players have been selected to appear in the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl. Over the course of those 19 seasons, 65 offensive players, 27 defensive players and three special teams players have been chosen.

- Feb. 15 — Miami names 42-year-old Mel Phillips as its new defensive back-field coach. Phillips comes to the Dolphins after five seasons in the same capacity for the Detroit Lions.
- March 14 — Following a presentation led by Joseph Robbie to NFL owners at the league meetings in Phoenix, Miami is selected as the site for Super Bowl XXIII (1989).
- Sept. 29 — In a game billed nationally as "Marino-Elway I," Miami's Dan Marino wins this one over Denver, 30-26, completing 25 of 43 passes for three TDs and a season-best 390 yards. Veteran WR Nat Moore also produces his top performance of 1985 with the 12th 100-plus yard game of his career. WR Vince Heflin's first-ever NFL TD, a 46-yard catch, proves to be the game-winner.
- Oct. 9 — The Dolphins acquire All-Pro linebacker Hugh Green from Tampa Bay in exchange for a first- and second-round draft pick in 1986.
- Nov. 10 — Wide receiver Mark Duper, in his first game back after being sidelined for seven weeks with a broken leg, establishes a new Dolphin record by gaining 217 reception yards. In addition, his 50-yard scoring catch from Dan Marino with less than a minute remaining gives the Dolphins a 21-17 win over the Jets and the start of an eight-game winning streak.
- Dec. 1 — Owner Joseph Robbie officially breaks ground on the new 75,000-seat Dolphin Stadium.
- Dec. 2 — Led by a swarming defense that produces six sacks and three interceptions, the Dolphins administer the only defeat to be suffered by the eventual Super Bowl champion Chicago Bears, 38-24. A season-high Orange Bowl crowd of 75,594 witnesses the Monday night affair.
- Dec. 31 — Owner Joseph Robbie obtains the construction loan and is granted permanent financing for the new Dolphin Stadium.

- Jan. 4 — The Dolphins rally from a 21-3 deficit to defeat the Cleveland Browns 24-21 in an AFC divisional playoff game. Miami is led offensively by Tony Nathan's 10 receptions for 101 yards and rookie Ron Davenport's two touchdowns.
- Jan. 12 — Despite 20 tackles by LB Bob Brudzinski, the Dolphins commit six turnovers and lose 31-14 to the New England Patriots in the AFC Championship game before 74,978 fans in the Orange Bowl. It marks Miami's first loss in an AFC title game in six tries.
- Jan. 21 — Dolphin C Dwight Stephenson is named the recipient of the NFL's Man of the Year award at a press conference in New Orleans. The award is in recognition of Stephenson's outstanding performance on the playing field and in the community.
- Jan. 22 — The Dolphins announce the retirement of Defensive Line Coach Mike Scarry, a member of Don Shula's staff since 1970. Dan Sekanovich, formerly of the Jets and Falcons, is named to replace him.
- Feb. 19 — Miami appoints Receivers and Quarterbacks Coach David Shula to the position of Assistant Head Coach. In addition, the club names Mike Westhoff as the Special Teams/Tight Ends Coach.
- June 3 — Owner Joseph Robbie plants a ceremonial 30-foot Royal Palm tree to begin a million dollar beautification project near Dolphin Stadium.
- Sept. 6 — Dan Marino signs a multi-year contract to remain as QB of the Dolphins. Two days before, Marino's wife, Claire, had given birth to the couple's first child — Daniel Charles.
- Sept. 21 — Miami suffers a heart-breaking 51-45 overtime loss to the N.Y. Jets in the Meadowlands as Dan Marino reaches 1,500 career attempts to qualify as the NFL's top-ranked passer of all-time. Marino finishes the afternoon 30 of 50 for 448 yards and six TDs. The six TDs are a personal high for Marino and tie the team record held by Bob Griese. Mark Duper (154) and Mark Clayton (174) each have over 100 yards receiving in the game. Standout LB Hugh Green suffers a knee injury which sidelines him for the season.
- Oct. 12 — In what was billed as "Marino-Kelly I," the Dolphins and Dan Marino (24 of 41 for 337 yards) defeat the Buffalo Bills and Jim Kelly (20 of 28 for 218 yards, two INTs) 27-14 at the Orange Bowl.

- Nov. 24 — The N.Y. Jets enter the Orange Bowl with a nine-game winning streak and the league's best record at 10-1. They leave with a 45-3 loss as Lorenzo Hampton rushes for 148 yards and two TDs on 19 carries (7.8 average), including a 54-yard TD run. Hampton's 100 yards snap a streak of 36 regular-season games (41 overall) for Miami without a 100-yard rusher. Marino completes a personal-high 80.6 percent of his passes (29 of 36) for 288 yards and four TDs.
- Nov. 25 — Less than 24 hours after the memorable 45-3 win over the Jets, General Manager Mike Robbie announces at a press conference that Don Shula has signed a multi-year contract to remain as head coach.
- Dec. 14 — Dan Marino sets an NFL career record with the seventh 400-yard game of his career as he passes for 403 yards in a thrilling 37-31 overtime win in Anaheim, Calif., over the playoff-bound L.A. Rams. Marino completes 29 of 46 with five TDs, including a 20-yarder to Mark Duper in OT to win the game. Marino is named AFC Offensive Player of the Week for his efforts.
- Dec. 22 — The Dolphins play their final game in the Orange Bowl — a 34-27 loss to the New England Patriots. New England captures the AFC East title with the win. The Dolphins finish 21 years in the Orange Bowl with an impressive 110-38-3 (.738) regular-season record. Marino sets NFL single-season records for completions (378) and attempts (623).

- Jan. 8 — Four former Dolphins — Bob Griese, Larry Csonka, Jim Langer and Larry Little — are among a group of 14 finalists under consideration for the 1987 class of enshrinees for the Pro Football Hall of Fame, it is announced by the Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio.
- Jan. 10 — John Offerdahl is named Old Spice NFL Rookie of the Year.
- Jan. 20 — Tom Olivadotti, an assistant for the Cleveland Browns, is named Defensive Coach for Miami. He is put in charge of the overall defense with the prime responsibility of pass defense. Chuck Studley is re-assigned as Linebacker Coach, with prime responsibility of run defense. Linebacker Coach Bob Matheson resigns.
- Jan. 27 — Former Dolphin greets Larry Csonka and Jim Langer are among a group of seven named to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. They join Paul Warfield as the only members of the proud franchise to earn the honor, with induction scheduled for August 8.
- July 20 — Training camp begins for the Dolphins at St. Thomas University as Head Coach Don Shula welcomes 108 players — the largest group of players in Shula's 18 years with Miami.
- Aug. 16 — The Dolphins play host to the Chicago Bears in the first game ever played in Joe Robbie Stadium. The date marks the 22nd anniversary of the Dolphin franchise. The Bears put a damper on the festive evening with a 10-3 preseason victory before 63,451. QB Dan Marino (dislocated ring finger on right hand) and LB John Offerdahl (torn right bicep) suffer injuries. Marino is out for three weeks; Offerdahl will miss the first six regular-season games.
- Sept. 22 — NFL Players Association goes on strike; the Dolphins' home contest with New York Giants (first regular-season game in Joe Robbie Stadium) on September 27 is cancelled because of strike.
- Oct. 4 — The Dolphins' "replacement" team takes the field for the first time, traveling to Seattle to meet the Seahawks. The Dolphins lose, 24-20.
- Oct. 11 — Miami's replacement team records a 42-0 shutout victory over the Kansas City Chiefs in the first regular-season game played in Joe Robbie Stadium. Safety Lifford Holey (two interceptions, 55-yard fumble recovery for a TD, four tackles, two passes defended) is named AFC defensive player of the week for his efforts. Don Shula and Joe Robbie are given game balls by the replacement team following the contest in honor of Miami's first win in the new stadium. The next week (October 18), the replacement team loses its last game, 37-31 in overtime, to the N.Y. Jets at the Meadowlands.

- Oct. 25 — After four missed weeks of action (one game cancellation, three replacement games), the regular Dolphin players return to action. Miami loses 34-31 in overtime at home to the Buffalo Bills. The 21-point comeback by Buffalo is the best ever by an opponent against a Dolphins team.
- Nov. 1 — Don Shula wins his 250th regular-season game as the Dolphins defeat Pittsburgh 35-24 at Joe Robbie Stadium.
- Nov. 29 — The Dolphins suffer their first shutout loss (27-0 at Buffalo) since December 12, 1982 — the famous snowplow game at New England (3-0). The game also sees the end of Dan Marino's streak of 30 straight games with at least one touchdown pass. His string is second all-time to Johnny Unitas' 47.
- Dec. 20 — Miami picks up its final win of 1987 with a 23-21 victory over Washington at Joe Robbie Stadium. The Dolphins lose the following week (December 28) in the '87 finale to New England, 24-10, at home. The Redskins, meanwhile, go on to win Super Bowl XXII, 42-10 over Denver.
- Dec. 30 — RB Troy Stradford is named NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year by the Associated Press.

- Jan. 14 — It is announced that former Dolphins QB Bob Griese is among a group of 15 finalists under consideration for the 1988 class of enshrinees in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio.
- Feb. 29 — Former Dolphin Larry Seiple is named receivers coach. Seiple, who had been out of pro coaching for a year, had been receivers coach at Detroit (1980-84) and Tampa Bay (1985-86).
- July 11 — Training camp opens for the Dolphins at St. Thomas University as Head Coach Don Shula welcomes 109 players — the largest group of players in Shula's 19 years with Miami.
- July 31 — The Dolphins make their first ever trip abroad and take on the San Francisco 49ers at Wembley Stadium in London for the third-annual American Bowl. Miami comes from behind to defeat the 49ers, 27-21, before 70,535 British fans to open the pre-season.
- Sept. 18 — Miami registers its first win of the season in a 24-17 triumph over the Green Bay Packers. It marks Miami's 18th win in 23 home openers, including the last 13 straight years, and a 17-2 record under Don Shula. Dan Marino goes over the 20,000-yard mark in career passing yardage and becomes only the 45th quarterback in NFL history to do so.
- Oct. 9 — The Dolphins reverse history by defeating the Raiders, 24-17, at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum. It marks Miami's first win ever against the Raiders in their home stadium and the Dolphins' first victory over the Raiders in 10 years. The game is played in 96 degree heat — the warmest game in Dolphins' history.
- Oct. 16 — Miami wins its third consecutive game this season as the Dolphins defeat the San Diego Chargers, 31-28. Quarterback Dan Marino throws for 329 yards and moves into sole possession of second-place on the NFL's career 300-yard passing games list with his 27th such game (behind only Dan Fouts with 51).
- Oct. 23 — Dan Marino records the second-best single-game passing yardage total in NFL history — 521 yards (Norm Van Brocklin holds the single-game record of 554 yards) and completes 35 of a team record 60 attempts, all to no avail as the N.Y. Jets defeat the Dolphins 44-30 at Joe Robbie Stadium.
- Oct. 30 — Shula Bowl II - Head Coach Don Shula and his assistant head coach and son, David Shula, are on the opposite side of the field of Mike Shula, a coaches' assistant for Tampa Bay, as the Dolphins defeat the Bucs, 17-14, in Tampa Stadium. The first Shula Bowl occurred on September 27, 1981, when Don Shula and the Miami Dolphins triumphed over the Baltimore Colts and son David, then a rookie punt returner for the Colts, 31-28.
- Dec. 12 — Dan Marino becomes the first quarterback in NFL history to pass for over 4,000 yards four times in a career in the Dolphins' 37-31 win over Cleveland. He also throws for his 193rd career touchdown, setting a new Dolphin record and surpassing the total of former quarterback Bob Griese, who had previously held the mark. Marino tops the record that took Griese 14 seasons to accomplish in only six-plus seasons. Also, receiver Mark Clayton surpasses Nat Moore in the record books as he catches a pass in his 37th consecutive game.

- Dec. 14 — Two Dolphins are named to the Pro Bowl: LB John Offerdahl as a starter, WR Mark Clayton as a backup.

- Jan. 22 — Joe Robbie Stadium hosts Super Bowl XXIII only two-and-a-half years after its initial opening. San Francisco comes back in the final minutes of the game to defeat the Cincinnati Bengals, 20-16. The game marks the first time since Super Bowl XIII (January 21, 1979) that the NFL's championship game is played in Miami.
- Jan. 23 — NT Brian Sochia is added to the Pro Bowl roster after Cincinnati Bengal Tim Krumrie's injury in the Super Bowl prevents him from playing in the Pro Bowl. Additionally, Dolphin Linebackers Coach Chuck Studley resigns after five seasons with Miami.
- Jan. 25 — Former Miami Hurricanes defensive coordinator Dave Wannstedt joins the Dolphins coaching staff as linebackers coach.
- Feb. 25 — Dolphins get into the free agent market right from the start, signing linebacker E.J. Junior. Junior, a two-time Pro Bowl selection, is signed off the unprotected free agent list of the Phoenix Cardinals.
- Feb. 27 — David Shula, the Dolphins' assistant head coach and passing game coordinator, and Dave Wannstedt, the team's linebackers coach, resign their position to accept new posts with the Dallas Cowboys.
- March 1 — George Hill is named the new linebackers coach for the Dolphins, while John Sandusky, the Dolphins' offensive line coach is promoted to assistant head coach.
- March 6 — Gary Stevens, formerly of the University of Miami, is named quarterbacks/pass offense coach for the Dolphins.
- May 15 — Chuck Connor, the Dolphins director of player personnel for 11 seasons, announces his resignation to join the Atlanta Falcons as director of pro scouting.
- June 12 — Tom Heckert, formerly a college scout with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and Cleveland Browns, is named Miami's Director of College Scouting.

1970 AFC PLAYOFF

OAKLAND 21, MIAMI 14
December 27, 1970

Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum
Oakland, CA

Oakland quarterback Daryle Lamonica unloaded an 82-yard touchdown pass to Rod Sherman with 9:34 left to play as Oakland spoiled the Dolphins' first appearance in the playoffs, 21-14, on a field oozing with mud. The Dolphins, who had won six consecutive games to finish the season 10-4 and gain a wild-card berth, took a 7-0 lead in the second quarter when Bob Griese fired a 16-yard strike to Paul Warfield in the end zone. Lamonica matched that TD with a 22-yard toss to Fred Biletnikoff only 1:50 before halftime. Raider right cornerback Willie Brown intercepted a wet and wobbly pass by Griese and fled 50 yards along the sideline for the tie-breaking TD. It came minutes after Jake Scott recovered an Oakland fumble at the Miami 10-yard line. The heave to Sherman was insurance. Only three plays earlier, Dolphin kicker Garo Yepremian missed a 24-yard field goal attempt for the second time in the game. Oakland's George Blanda also missed a 23-yarder.

Garo Yepremian ended 82 minutes and 40 seconds of an epic struggle by booting a 37-yard field goal with 7:40 elapsed in the second overtime, lifting the Dolphins past Kansas City, 27-24, on Christmas Day. The Dolphins battled from behind three times to tie the AFC West champions, the third time on Bob Griese's five-yard pass to tight end Marv Fleming with 96 seconds remaining in regulation. Kansas City running back Ed Podolak, who amassed 350 yards of all-purpose running, returned the ensuing kickoff 78 yards to the Dolphin 22 where Curtis Johnson missed a desperation tackle. With 35 seconds on the clock, Jan Stenerud missed a 32-yard field-goal try. Stenerud had a 42-yarder blocked by Nick Buoniconti in the fifth quarter, and Yepremian was short with a 45-yard effort. But Larry Csonka crashed 29 yards to the Chiefs 36, and that put Yepremian, the NFL's scoring leader, in position to win it. Goal posts were on the goal line; in 1974 the uprights were moved to the end line.

1971 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

MIAMI 21, BALTIMORE 0

January 2, 1972

Orange Bowl

Miami, FL

Three lightning plays and a persistent defense propelled the Dolphins into Super Bowl VI with a 21-0 rout of Baltimore before an all-time Orange Bowl record crowd of 78,939. Strong safety Dick Anderson intercepted a Johnny Unitas pass which was deflected by Curtis Johnson, and behind a wall of six open-field blocks Anderson weaved 62 yards for a third-quarter touchdown. "My eyes were popping as I ran," Anderson said. "I've never seen so many people land on their heads." Before Anderson's convoy made it 14-0, the Dolphins staggered the defending Super Bowl champions when Bob Griese and Paul Warfield hooked up for a 75-yard TD pass. Warfield applied the clincher when he escaped 50 yards with a Griese pass, setting up a five-yard TD slam by fullback Larry Csonka. The Colts had not been held scoreless for 97 games over seven seasons. They were stopped at the Dolphin 9 in the second quarter. Jim O'Brien missed two field-goal attempts and had another blocked by Lloyd Mumphord.

SUPER BOWL VI

DALLAS 24, MIAMI 3

January 16, 1972

Tulane Stadium

New Orleans, LA

A 252-yard rushing attack and sharp passing by Roger Staubach spurred the Dallas Cowboys to a 24-3 victory over the Dolphins at Tulane Stadium. Duane Thomas pranced 95 yards on 19 carries, fullback Walt Garrison added 74 yards on 14 carries and Staubach passed twice for touchdowns to Lance Alworth and Mike Ditka. Staubach, who was sacked twice in the first quarter, bounced back to complete 12 of 19 passes, and he scrambled from the Dolphin pass rush five times. The Dolphins were frustrated all day; in the first quarter, Larry Csonka lost a fumble and Bob Griese was chased by tackle Bob Lilly for a 29-yard loss. Griese also fumbled away a snap at the Dallas 16 in the fourth period. Although it was an intriguing 10-3 at halftime, the Cowboys marched 71 yards in eight plays after the kickoff, and Thomas swept three yards for the TD.

1972 AFC PLAYOFF

MIAMI 20, CLEVELAND 14
December 24, 1972

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

On the ropes in the fourth quarter after an unprecedented 14 victories, the Dolphins responded to poised Earl Morrall and drove 80 yards for a touchdown with 4:56 to play for a 20-14 victory over the Cleveland Browns. Morrall, the NFL's leading passer after replacing the injured Bob Griese 10 weeks earlier, had completed only four passes for 38 yards. But he threw 15 and 35 yards to Paul Warfield, reaching the Browns 20, and a pass interference call against linebacker Billy Andrews put the ball at the eight. Halfback Jim Kiick then bulled eight yards up the middle on a trap for the winning points. The triumph was sealed with a minute to play when Dolphin linebacker Doug Swift intercepted Cleveland QB Mike Phipps at the Dolphin 20. Despite stealing five of Phipps' passes, the Dolphins were stung by a 27-yard TD pass to Fair Hooker and trailed 14-13 with 8:11 to play.

1972 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

MIAMI 21, PITTSBURGH 17
December 31, 1972

Three Rivers Stadium
Pittsburgh, PA

Quarterback Bob Griese, playing 11 weeks after he had broken his right leg, ignited a third-quarter touchdown drive with a 52-yard pass to Paul Warfield, and the Dolphins overtook the Pittsburgh Steelers, 21-17, in unusually warm 63-degree weather. Griese was given the nod in the second half after Earl Morrall had flipped a nine-yard touchdown pass to Larry Csonka for a 7-7 halftime deadlock. Punter Larry Seiple broke loose on a daring 37-yard run on fourth down to set up that TD. Trailing 10-7, Griese directed TD drives of 80 and 49 yards with Jim Klick blasting two and three yards for the scores. Steeler quarterback Terry Bradshaw, who closed the gap with four straight completions on a 71-yard TD drive, was intercepted by Nick Buoniconti at midfield with 2½ minutes to play. In addition to Seiple's dash, the Dolphins converted fourth-down situations on both Griese-led drives.

SUPER BOWL VII

MIAMI 14, WASHINGTON 7
January 14, 1973

Memorial Coliseum
Los Angeles, CA

"This is the ultimate," Coach Don Shula said quietly after his unbeaten Dolphins dominated the Washington Redskins, 14-7, to cap a perfect season. It was Shula's first Super Bowl triumph in three tries. A record Super Bowl crowd of 90,182 saw the Dolphins surge to a 14-0 halftime lead even as one touchdown was nullified by an offside penalty. Miami intercepted three of Bill Kilmer's passes, and Manny Fernandez scuttled the Redskin running game with 17 tackles. An original Dolphin, Howard Twilley, eluded cornerback Pat Fischer to snare a 28-yard touchdown pass from Bob Griese in the first quarter. Griese's 57-yard TD bomb to Paul Warfield was erased by the penalty, but a 32-yard interception return by linebacker Nick Buoniconti set up the Dolphins' second score. Safety Jake Scott thwarted Kilmer with an end zone interception and 55-yard runback. The Redskins finally scored on a bizarre 49-yard fumble recovery by Mike Bass after a blocked field goal and attempted pass by kicker Garo Yepremian. Scott was named MVP.

1973 AFC PLAYOFF

MIAMI 34, CINCINNATI 16

December 23, 1973

Orange Bowl

Miami, FL

A defense which had allowed only 15 touchdowns all season kept the Cincinnati Bengals out of the end zone while the Dolphins hammered 241 yards on the ground for a convincing 34-16 victory. Mercury Morris scooted 106 yards on 20 carries and Bob Griese completed 11 of 18 passes, including TDs of 13 yards to Paul Warfield and seven yards to Jim Mandich. Garo Yepremian converted long field goals of 50 and 46 yards in the second half to widen the winning margin. The Dolphins led 21-3 when a lapse just before halftime gave life to the Bengals. Safety Neal Craig intercepted Griese and returned it 45 yards for a score, and Horst Muhlman booted field goals of 46 and 12 yards — the second coming after Morris fumbled a kickoff — to make it 21-16.

1973 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

MIAMI 27, OAKLAND 10

December 30, 1973

Orange Bowl

Miami, FL

A relentless running attack with Larry Csonka and Mercury Morris accounting for 203 of the 266 yards powered the Dolphins to a 27-10 triumph over the Oakland Raiders for a third straight American Conference title. Csonka, a 237-pound battering ram who had his third consecutive 1,000-yard season, scored three touchdowns with his 117 yards on 29 carries. The Dolphins covered 64 and 63 yards exclusively on the ground for a 14-0 halftime lead. Then as the Raiders battled within 17-10, Bob Griese directed ground assaults of 63 yards, culminating in a field goal, and 40 yards, ending in Csonka's third TD. Defensively, safety Dick Anderson forced a fourth-down fumble by Marv Hubbard at midfield, and the Dolphins took possession with a 20-10 lead and six minutes to play. Oakland had stopped Miami's 18-game winning streak, 12-7, three months earlier.

SUPER BOWL VIII

MIAMI 24, MINNESOTA 7

Rice Stadium

Houston, TX

Winning for the 32nd time in 34 games, the Dolphins repeated as Super Bowl champions and proved themselves "Best Ever" with a 24-7 rout of the Minnesota Vikings at Rice Stadium. There was no doubt from the beginning. The Dolphins swept 62 yards in 10 plays with the opening kickoff, scoring on Larry Csonka's five-yard smash. Minnesota punted, and the onslaught resumed with a 56-yard, 10-play Dolphin drive capped by Jim Kiick's one-yard plunge. It was 17-0 before the Vikings crossed their 40, and a fourth-down fumble by Minnesota's Oscar Reed was recovered by safety Jake Scott at the Dolphin six-yard line. A brilliant, diving catch by Paul Warfield netted 27 yards on a third-quarter TD drive that hiked the score to 24-0. Csonka finished with his best-ever total of 145 yards on 33 carries. The Dolphins rushed for 703 yards and outscored opponents 85-33 in the three-game playoff blitz. Csonka's yardage was a Super Bowl record and he was named MVP.

1974 AFC PLAYOFF

OAKLAND 28, MIAMI 26

Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum
Oakland, CA

Oakland quarterback Ken Stabler, falling in the clutches of Vern Den Herder, unloaded a wobbly eight-yard pass that Clarence Davis wrestled from three defenders in the end zone, and the Raiders scored a stunning 28-26 victory over the defending champion Dolphins. Stabler, who had spent the last of his timeouts, appeared to have thrown an interception. But running back Davis clutched the football when bodies were untangled with 26 seconds remaining. It was the fourth TD pass for lefthander Stabler and his second "freak" score. Four minutes earlier, Cliff Branch fell while catching a pass at the Dolphin 27, but defender Henry Stuckey also slipped, and Branch got up and escaped for a 72-yard TD. The Dolphins, trailing by two points, went ahead with 2:08 remaining as rookie Benny Malone broke two tackles on a 23-yard touchdown run along the sideline.

1978 AFC WILD-CARD PLAYOFF

HOUSTON 17, MIAMI 9
December 24, 1978

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

The Houston Oilers amassed a 455-209 margin in total yardage, and aided by five Dolphin turnovers, gained a 17-9 victory in a battle of AFC wild-card entries at the Orange Bowl. Toni Fritsch kicked a 35-yard field goal with 7:25 remaining to snap a 7-7 tie that existed since the first quarter. An interception by linebacker Greg Bingham led to a clinching 50-yard touchdown drive capped by Earl Campbell's one-yard dive with 1:55 to go. Campbell, the NFL rushing leader with 1,450 yards as a rookie, had been checked for only 16 yards on 13 carries in the first half. Dolphin quarterback Bob Griese, playing with very sore ribs, connected with tight end Andre Tillman for a 13-yard TD after Earnie Rhone had recovered a fumbled punt at the Houston 21. But Griese completed only 13 of 28 passes. Twice the Dolphins lost the ball inside the Oiler 10-yard line when the game was tied. Houston's Dan Pastorini wore a flak jacket to protect three broken ribs, and he passed for 261 of his 306-yard total in the first half.

PITTSBURGH 34, MIAMI 14
December 30, 1979

Three Rivers Stadium
Pittsburgh, PA

Launching a drive to their fourth Super Bowl title in six years, the Pittsburgh Steelers scored touchdowns on their first three possessions and coasted to a 34-14 victory at Three Rivers Stadium. Miami managed only 25 yards rushing against the Steel Curtain and was stopped twice in the second quarter after achieving a first down inside the Steeler 10-yard line. The Dolphins got as close as 20-7 with a seven-yard TD pass from Bob Griese to Duriel Harris in the third period, but Pittsburgh responded with a 69-yard TD drive. The Steelers marched 62, 62 and 56 yards for their first-quarter scores when quarterback Terry Bradshaw completed 8 of 10 passes, including touchdowns to John Stallworth and Lynn Swann, who was standing alone in the end zone. Don Strock directed a 13-play, 76-yard TD drive after relieving Griese in the fourth quarter.

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

A record-setting showcase of the passing game resulted in NFL playoff marks for most points (79), most total yards (1,036) and most drama as the San Diego Chargers outlasted the Dolphins 41-38 in overtime. "The Miracle That Died" was the Miami Herald headline after the Dolphins rallied behind reserve quarterback Don Strock to overcome a 24-point deficit. Strock completed 29 of 43 passes for 403 yards and four touchdowns, spurring the Dolphins to a 38-31 lead. A 12-yard sweep by Tony Nathan on the first play of the fourth quarter put the Dolphins on top. But Charger quarterback Dan Fouts, who passed for an NFL record 4,802 yards during the season, led an 82-yard drive capped by a 9-yard pass to James Brooks to tie the game with 58 seconds remaining. Five players had more than 100 yards in receptions, topped by Charger tight end Kellen Winslow with 13 catches for 166 yards. Fouts, who finished with 433 yards on 33 of 53 marksmanship, hooked up with Charlie Joiner for 39 yards to the Dolphin 10-yard line. Rolf Benirschke then kicked a 29-yard field goal to end the struggle after 13:52 of overtime. Benirschke had missed a 27-yard attempt eight minutes earlier, and Miami's Uwe von Schamann had two attempts blocked — a 43-yarder on the last play of regulation and a 35-yarder after 11:27 of overtime. It was the first game in NFL history in which two quarterbacks passed for more than 400 yards.

1982 AFC PLAYOFF (first round)

MIAMI 28, NEW ENGLAND 13

January 8, 1983

Orange Bowl

Miami, FL

For the first time in nine years, the Miami Dolphins won a playoff game, defeating the New England Patriots 28-13. Dolphin QB David Woodley had one of his finest games, completing 16 of 19 passes for 246 yards and two TDs. He was a perfect 8-8 in the second half. The Dolphins had not experienced a playoff win since January 13, 1974, when they downed Minnesota in Super Bowl VIII. The Dolphins took command in the second quarter, putting together back-to-back TD drives of 76 and 79 yards that turned a 3-0 deficit into a 14-3 halftime advantage. The four Miami TDs came on a pair of two-yard passes from David Woodley to tight end Bruce Hardy, a one-yard run by Andra Franklin and Woody Bennett's two-yard burst up the middle. Franklin finished with 112 yards on 26 carries, but lost the ball three times on fumbles. Two of those fumbles resulted in John Smith field goals of 23 and 42 yards for New England.

1982 AFC PLAYOFF (second round)

MIAMI 34, SAN DIEGO 13

Orange Bowl

January 16, 1983

Miami, FL

The Dolphins, on their way to a five-game victory roll, choked off the famed Charger offense and won 34-13. The Dolphin defense stopped the San Diego offense, holding it to a total of 247 yards — 203 yards below its league-leading average — while holding the Chargers scoreless in the second half. Dolphin defenders intercepted QB Dan Fouts five times, sacked him three times and held the Chargers to 15 completions for 191 yards — their lowest output since a January, 1982, playoff game in the ice at Cincinnati. The Dolphin offense kept Fouts and Company on the sideline by utilizing ball control that produced 80 plays to San Diego's 54 and an overwhelming time of possession advantage; the Dolphins had the ball for 40:46 to the Chargers' 19:14. Dolphin QB David Woodley guided his team to a 214-yard ground attack while connecting on 17-22 passes for 195 yards and two TDs. Woodley opened the scoring with a three-yard pass to Nat Moore in the first quarter and made it 14-0 by directing Miami 89 yards on 13 plays. Charger kickoff returner Hank Bauer fumbled a kickoff which was recovered by Uwe von Schamann at the Charger 23-yard line. Seven plays later, Woodley hit tight end Ronnie Lee on a six-yard look-in pass for the score. On the next kickoff, Dolphin rookie Rich Diana recovered a fumble by the Chargers' James Brooks, but this time Miami had to settle for a 29-yard von Schamann field goal. The Chargers scored two late TDs, one on a 28-yard pass from Fouts to Charlie Joiner and the other on Chuck Muncie's one-yard dive that ended the San Diego scoring. Von Schamann added a second field goal shortly before the end of the first half and Woodley scored on a seven-yard QB draw early in the fourth quarter.

1982 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

MIAMI 14, N.Y. JETS 0
January 23, 1983

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

For the third time in as many games the Miami Dolphins defeated the New York Jets, this time on a rainy, mud-soaked Orange Bowl field. The Dolphins set an AFC Championship Game record by holding the Jets to 139 total yards. A.J. Duhe set an AFC playoff record with three interceptions, including one he returned for a 35-yard TD. The Dolphins set an NFL record by being the first team to have defeated the same team three times in a season — two times during the regular season and once in a playoff game. On nine occasions since the AFL-NFL merger, teams had met three times in a season — but no team had won all three games. Before a crowd of 67,396, the Dolphins' Woody Bennett rumbled seven yards up the middle to score the only points the Dolphins would need. That came in the third quarter after the teams had trudged through a scoreless first half on the soggy Prescription Athletic Turf.

SUPER BOWL XVII

WASHINGTON 27, MIAMI 17
January 30, 1983

Rose Bowl
Pasadena, CA

The Washington Redskins, behind the power running of John Riggins, came from behind to win Super Bowl XVII in the famed Rose Bowl, beating Miami 27-17. Before the second-largest crowd for a Super Bowl — 103,667 fans — the Redskins took the lead for the first time with a little more than 10 minutes left on the clock. The game was marked by a Super Bowl record performance by Fulton Walker, who returned four kickoffs 190 yards, including a 98-yard TD that gave Miami a 17-10 halftime lead. It was the first kickoff returned for a TD in Super Bowl history and the longest kickoff return in playoff history. Riggins ran up 166 yards on 38 carries, both Super Bowl records. On a short-yardage play — fourth-and-one from the Redskin 43 with 10:01 to play — Riggins broke a tackle and scored on a 43-yard run. Riggins accounted for 181 total yards, five more yards than the entire Miami offense could manage in the game. In the first quarter, Miami jumped to a quick lead with a 76-yard David Woodley to Jimmy Cefalo pass for a TD.

1983 AFC PLAYOFF

SEATTLE 27, MIAMI 20
December 31, 1983

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins saw their season end on a sour note as they lost a 27-20 decision to the Seattle Seahawks in the first round of the AFC playoffs. Before 71,032 fans in the Orange Bowl, Dolphin rookie quarterback Dan Marino returned from his December 4 knee injury. On their second possession, the Dolphins launched a 12-play, 80-yard drive ending with a 19-yard TD pass from Marino to tight end Dan Johnson (PAT missed). A 59-yard return by Zachary Dixon on the ensuing kickoff led to a six-yard scoring toss from Seattle's Dave Krieg to Cullen Bryant with the extra point, giving the Seahawks a one point lead. Miami immediately retaliated, using a 17-yard Marino to Mark Duper hook-up to pave the way for a 32-yard circus catch by Duper for the touchdown. Early in the third quarter, a David Overstreet fumble in Seattle territory set the Seahawks up for a 55-yard TD march featuring a 28-yard completion from Krieg to Paul Johns, and culminating in a one-yard run by Curt Warner. Norm Johnson's 27-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter gave Seattle a 17-13 lead. The Dolphins managed to regain the lead at 20-17 following a Gerald Small interception (18-yard return) and Woody Bennett's two-yard run with only 3:43 remaining. However, the lead was shortlived as the Seahawks came right back to score on Warner's short run following a pair of Krieg to Steve Largent completions for a total of 56 yards. Miami's Fulton Walker then fumbled the Seattle kickoff, thus leading to a 37-yard Johnson field goal. Another Walker kickoff fumble iced the game for the Seahawks, who were participating in the playoffs for the first time in their eight-year history.

1984 AFC PLAYOFF

MIAMI 31, SEATTLE 10
December 29, 1984

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins, led by quarterback Dan Marino's three touchdown passes and a defense that shut out the opposition in three of four quarters, defeated the Seattle Seahawks 31-10 before 73,469 fans in the Orange Bowl. The Dolphins moved in front on their second possession and stayed there. Running back Tony Nathan keyed the 68-yard drive by gaining 38 yards on four carries, including the touchdown on a 14-yard run. A 26-yard Marino to Mark Clayton completion was the long play of the scoring march. A 32-yard interception return by Seattle's John Harris and a 25-yard pass from Dave Krieg to Steve Largent paved the way for Norm Johnson's 27-yard field goal that cut Miami's lead to 7-3. The Dolphins, however, came right back to score on their next series as a 20-yard reception by Woody Bennett preceded Marino's 34-yard scoring hook-up with Jimmy Cefalo. The Seahawks made it 14-10 at halftime when Largent scored on a 56-yard catch-and-run play. After Miami's defense had stopped Seattle on the Dolphin 24-yard line to open the second half, the Dolphins embarked on a 13-play, 76-yard TD drive that included a Bruce Hardy touchdown catch from three yards out. After the Seahawks' Jeff West managed just a seven-yard punt, Clayton made an acrobatic catch on a tipped ball in the end zone for a 33-yard TD. Miami closed out the scoring on Uwe von Schamann's 37-yard field goal in a drive that featured a 32-yard Marino to Hardy pass.

1984 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

MIAMI 45, PITTSBURGH 28
January 6, 1985

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins, led by Dan Marino's 421 yards passing (four touchdowns) and Mark Duper's 148 yards receiving, advanced to Super Bowl XIX by defeating the Pittsburgh Steelers 45-28 in the AFC Championship Game before 76,029 fans in the Orange Bowl. The Dolphins scored on their first offensive series as they moved 67 yards in four plays following a William Judson interception, with the TD coming on a 40-yard pass from Marino to Mark Clayton. Pittsburgh's first score came on Rich Erenberg's seven-yard run that had been set up by Walter Abercrombie's 38 yards gained in the 66-yard march. A 26-yard Uwe von Schamann field goal preceded a 65-yard toss from the Steelers' Mark Malone to John Stallworth that gave Pittsburgh a 14-10 lead. The Dolphins then scored two TDs in the final 2:52 of the first half, the first score coming on a 41-yard reception by Duper. After Lyle Blackwood's interception, Marino hit TE Joe Rose for a 28-yard gain before Tony Nathan gave the Dolphins a 24-14 lead on a two-yard run. Miami then scored on its first three second-half possessions, leading off with Marino's 36-yard scoring strike to Duper. The Steelers closed the gap to 31-21 on Malone's 19-yarder to Stallworth (33-yarder to Louis Lipps in drive). Completions to Duper (41 yards), Nathan (20 yards) and Nat Moore (28 yards) then led to a one-yard TD dive by Woody Bennett. Moore then caught a six-yard touchdown pass before Wayne Capers closed out the scoring with a 29-yard TD reception.

SUPER BOWL XIX

SAN FRANCISCO 38, MIAMI 16
January 20, 1985

Stanford Stadium
Palo Alto, CA

The Miami Dolphins, unable to score in the game's final two quarters, dropped a 38-16 decision to the San Francisco 49ers in Super Bowl XIX before 84,059 fans in Stanford Stadium. The Dolphins were outgained in the contest by a 537-314 margin with the 49ers maintaining possession for 37:11. Miami opened the scoring on its first possession as Uwe von Schamann converted a 37-yard field goal (key play - Dan Marino's 25-yard completion to Tony Nathan). San Francisco jumped ahead 7-3 when QB Joe Montana led the Niners on an eight-play, 78-yard drive that culminated in a 33-yard TD toss to Carl Monroe. The Dolphins scored their only touchdown of the game on their next series as two Marino completions to Mark Clayton (18, 13 yards) and a 21-yarder to Dan Johnson paved the way for Johnson's two-yard scoring catch. Touchdown runs of eight and two yards by Roger Craig and Montana's six-yard scamper gave San Francisco a 28-10 lead. Von Schamann then connected on field goals of 31 and 30 yards in the final 12 seconds of the first half to close the Dolphin deficit to 28-16. The 49ers upped their lead on their initial second-half possession on Ray Wersching's 27-yard field goal, before closing out the scoring on Craig's 16-yard scoring reception (key play - 40-yard Montana to Wendell Tyler pass play).

1985 AFC PLAYOFF

MIAMI 24, CLEVELAND 21

Orange Bowl

Miami, FL

Most people had not given them much of a chance to win, but the 8-8 Cleveland Browns nearly upset the 12-4 Dolphins in the Orange Bowl. It would take two Ron Davenport touchdowns in the final 17 minutes to send Miami to a 24-21 victory and the AFC Championship Game against New England the following week. Fuad Reveiz put the Dolphins on the board early with a 51-yard field goal on Miami's first drive of the game. But Cleveland came back to score 21 unanswered points, and held a 21-3 advantage midway through the third quarter. Cleveland rookie quarterback Bernie Kosar, who had played two college seasons in the Orange Bowl for the University of Miami, hit Ozzie Newsome with a 16-yard touchdown pass for the Browns' first points of the day. Earnest Byner (16-161) ran in from 21 yards out just before the half, and then he broke a 66-yard touchdown jaunt 3:38 into the second half. Just like that, the improbable began to look possible. Dan Marino connected with Nat Moore for a six-yard touchdown pass just over six minutes later and Miami had closed the margin to 21-10. Then it was time for Davenport (6-48) to show his stuff. First, he hit the hole for a 31-yard touchdown run late in the third period and then he closed the scoring and put Miami up for good, going over from one yard out with just 1:57 remaining in the game.

1985 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

NEW ENGLAND 31, MIAMI 14
January 12, 1986

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

The New England Patriots garnered a bid to their first Super Bowl by snapping an 18-game losing streak to the Dolphins in Miami with a 31-14 triumph at the Orange Bowl. The Patriots' only previous victory in Miami came in the first meeting between the two teams in 1966. New England backs Craig James (22-105) and Robert Weathers (16-87) combined for 192 yards rushing and quarterback Tony Eason was on target with a 10-12 performance for 71 yards as the Pats set up a Super Bowl date with the Chicago Bears. After New England got on the board first with a Tony Franklin 23-yard field goal, the Dolphins stormed back for their only lead of the afternoon when Dan Marino passed 10 yards to Dan Johnson early in the second quarter. Eason brought New England right back with three touchdown tosses, and the Pats led 24-7 after three quarters. Miami's last score of the day came early in the fourth quarter when Tony Nathan grabbed a 10-yard TD pass from Marino. New England fullback Mosi Tatupu ended the game's scoring with a one-yard TD jaunt midway through the fourth quarter.

DOLPHINS IN HALL OF FAME

Larry Csonka

Jim Langer

Paul Warfield

LARRY CSONKA

1968-74, 1979

Csonka ranks as the Dolphins' all-time leading rusher with 1,506 carries for 6,737 yards (4.5 average) and 53 TDs. A five-time Pro Bowl selection, he put together three consecutive 1,000-yard seasons (1971-73) as Miami advanced to the Super Bowl each year. Csonka shined in those three Super Bowls, averaging 6.3 yards a carry and going over 100 yards rushing in two of them. Originally drafted in the first round out of Syracuse in 1968, he was named the MVP of Super Bowl VIII after carrying 33 times for 145 yards and two touchdowns as the Dolphins steamrolled the Minnesota Vikings, 24-7, for their second straight NFL title. Called a "modern-day Bronko Nagurski" by Dolphin coach Don Shula, "Zonk" also played three seasons with the N.Y. Giants (1976-78) and one year with the Memphis Southmen of the World Football League (1975). His career rushing totals in the NFL, which place him 12th on the league's all-time rushing list, are: 1,891 carries for 8,081 yards (4.3 average) and 64 TDs. He was elected to the Hall of Fame in his second year of eligibility.

JIM LANGER

inducted: 1987

Langer was the anchor of the Miami offensive line during the Dolphins' championship years of the 1970s. Coming out of South Dakota State in 1970, he was signed as a free agent by Cleveland but was released on the final cut. Langer was picked up on waivers by the Dolphins and, after spending most of the year on the taxi squad, played in the final five games of 1970, mainly on special teams. After serving as a backup at center the following season, in 1972 he won the starting job, which he would hold until sidelined with a knee injury in 1979. A consensus All-Pro from 1973-77, Langer was a six-time Pro Bowl selection (five times as a starter), a Dolphin record. He played in a club-high 128 straight games during his career and also had a team-record 109 consecutive starts. Voted the team's Most Valuable Player by South Florida media in 1975, Langer also holds the distinction of having played every offensive down in the Dolphins' perfect 1972 season. Wanting to spend the final years of his career near his Royalton, Minn., home, at his own request Langer was traded to the Minnesota Vikings in 1980, where he played for two seasons (1980-81). He was elected to the Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility.

PAUL WARFIELD

WR

inducted: 1983

Warfield sandwiched two stints with the Cleveland Browns around a five-year career with the Dolphins. After spending his first six seasons in the NFL with the Browns (1964-69), Warfield was acquired by Miami in January of 1970 in exchange for a first-round pick in the upcoming draft. In his five seasons with the Dolphins, Warfield had 156 receptions for 3,355 yards (21.5 average) and 33 TDs — good enough to place him ninth on the team's all-time receiving list. A member of both the '72 and '73 Super Bowl championship teams, he was selected to play in the Pro Bowl all five years he was with the Dolphins (once as a starter), in addition to being named to the AFC squad twice with the Browns. Warfield, the only Dolphin in the team's history to score four touchdowns in one game, also played one season with the Memphis Southmen of the World Football League (1975) before finishing his career with Cleveland (1976-77). His career receiving totals in the NFL are: 427 receptions for 8,565 yards (20.1 average) and 85 TDs. He was elected to the Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility.

RETIRED JERSEY #12

He was unquestionably the "thinking man's quarterback." Bob Griese, renowned for his poised leadership and ingenious play-calling, sustained the Dolphin offense with a flair for winning from 1967-80.

The bespectacled quarterback became the 14th passer in the NFL's exclusive 25,000-yard club in 1980. On the same day he reached that milestone, he suffered a shoulder injury which ultimately forced his retirement on June 25, 1981. His No. 12 jersey became the first to be retired May 6, 1982, in ceremonies at the Dolphins' annual awards banquet.

He had a .698 winning percentage (91-39-1) under Coach Don Shula. "Cornerstone of the franchise," Dolphin Owner Joe Robbie called him. He was a consensus All-Pro quarterback in 1971 and 1977, made a team-record six appearances in the Pro Bowl and was voted the team's Most Valuable Player six times by South Florida media.

Since becoming eligible for induction into the Hall of Fame four years ago, Griese has each time been named as a finalist. It is only a matter of time before he joins the three other Dolphin players who hold a place in Canton.

"He's probably the most unselfish guy I've ever been around," Shula said. "He got as much of a thrill calling the right running play for a touchdown as he did connecting on a bomb. That's just his makeup."

DOLPHIN NAME

Mariners, Marauders, Mustangs, Missiles, Moons, Sharks, Suns — none of those other names suggested to the American Football League expansion franchise in 1965 could raise a fin to the runaway winner.

"Dolphins" was submitted by 622 entrants in a contest which attracted 19,843 entries and more than a thousand different names. The dozen finalists were delivered to a seven-member screening committee of local media.

The bottlenose dolphin, an intelligent creature with an irresistible built-in grin, has inspired wonder for centuries. Plutarch observed 1,900 years ago that the dolphin "is the only creature who loves man for his own sake." Every trainer will have a tale of the dolphin's cleverness and ingenuity, and scientists are fascinated by a dolphin's natural equipment which far surpasses the range of Navy sonar equipment.

"The dolphin is one of the fastest and smartest creatures of the sea," Joe Robbie said in announcing the team name on October 8, 1965. "Dolphins can attack and kill a shark or a whale. Sailors say bad luck will come to anyone who harms one of them."

Mrs. Robert Swanson of West Miami won two lifetime passes to Dolphin games with her nickname entry. The tiebreaker was picking the winner and score of the 1965 game between the University of Miami and Notre Dame — it ended in a scoreless tie.

DOLPHINS ON THE AIR

WIOD

In 1989, the Miami Dolphins' radio network will consist of over 35 radio stations (over 80 markets) with Miami's WIOD (AM-610) again serving as the flagship station. WIOD has been the originator of Dolphin broadcasts since the team's 1966 inception. Known throughout South Florida as "Someplace Special for Sports," WIOD's Dolphin coverage is among the most comprehensive in the NFL.

WIOD begins its game-day coverage two hours before kickoff with "The Dolphin Express," including player features, key matchups in the upcoming game, plus other pertinent information from around the NFL. Also included in the pre-game package is "The Don Shula Show," featuring a preview of the day's contest by the Dolphin head coach.

Following the game, "The Locker Room Show" keeps listeners up-to-date on all other games around the league and also includes interviews from both the Dolphin and opposing locker rooms with key players from that day's game.

Handling the play-by-play will be "The Voice of the Dolphins," Rick Weaver, who enters his 19th season with the Dolphins. Weaver, who serves as Vice President of Sports at WIOD, is in his 26th year of calling NFL action. Weaver, who is famous for starting the "white handkerchief" in 1971, previously broadcast games for Dallas, Chicago and San Francisco. Weaver is a 10-time recipient of the Florida Sportscaster of the Year award.

Weaver is most proud of his involvement with the "Rick Weaver Celebrity Invitational Golf Tournament," held for the benefit of Special Olympics in Dade County. A native of Toledo, Ohio, the Ohio State graduate resides in North Miami with his wife, Bobbie.

Joining Rick in the booth will be color commentator Hank Goldberg. Goldberg, a Duke University graduate, is one of South Florida's most controversial sports figures. In addition to his WIOD duties, Hank works for an advertising agency and WTVJ-TV (Channel 4) in Miami.

WQBA

For the eighth straight year, the Dolphins' South Florida Latin fans will be able to follow the team home and away on WQBA (1140 AM). The 1989 season marks the fifth year of the shift over to WQBA's AM outlet.

Rene Giraldo, who has been a part of WQBA's broadcasts for all eight seasons, will handle the play-by-play for his fourth straight year after previously serving as a color analyst. He will again be joined in the booth by veteran analyst Eduardo Lujan, who has served as the producer and color commentator on the Dolphins' Spanish broadcasts since their inception, and by Roly Martin, also a long-time member of the broadcast team.

PRESEASON TELEVISION

Three of the Dolphins' four preseason games in 1989 will be nationally televised. The other Miami game will be televised by WCIX-TV (Channel 6) in Miami.

The Dolphins' first preseason game, vs. the Chicago Bears at Joe Robbie Stadium on Monday, August 14th at 8:00 PM, will be telecast nationally on ABC.

The following week, on Saturday, August 19th, when the Dolphins meet the Houston Oilers in Jacksonville, Florida, the game will be televised back to Miami on WCIX-TV beginning at 7:30 PM. WCIX enters its seventh season of association with the Dolphins this year, and serving as play-by-play announcer will be Tom Mees, while former Dolphin defensive back Tim Foley will handle the color commentary. Mac McDonald is the producer for WCIX.

Miami's road game against the Washington Redskins from RFK Memorial Stadium on Friday, August 25th, will be telecast nationally by NBC at 8:00 PM, and will be seen in Miami on WTVJ-TV (Channel 4). The following week, on September 2, the Dolphins entertain the Philadelphia Eagles in a 9:00 PM start, which will be televised nationally by CBS.

In all, three of the Dolphins' four preseason opponents made the playoffs last year, and the Dolphins will be the only team in the NFL that will be featured on national telecasts by all three broadcast networks during the preseason.

MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS: Media representatives who do not have press credentials for the entire season (but will be working for an accredited media outlet on an immediate deadline) may request them on a single-game basis. Written credential requests must be made at least four working days in advance to: Harvey Greene, Director of Media Relations, Miami Dolphins, Joe Robbie Stadium, 2269 N.W. 199th St., Miami, FL 33056 (305-623-6262). Reserved credentials can be picked up at the press gate, located inside Gate G of Joe Robbie Stadium, on the day of the game.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Photographers with accredited media outlets on an immediate deadline may request credentials on a single-game basis from the Dolphins' media relations department. Credentials WILL NOT be issued to freelance photographers unless granted special approval by the Dolphins. Field photographers are reminded to remain outside of the bench area.

PRESS BOX: To get to the Joe Robbie Stadium press box, enter at Gate G. Go through two sets of doors and take the exclusive press elevator in the press box. There are two levels: working press (level 2) and TV/radio/coaches booths (level 3). Stairs and the elevator connect both levels. Only credentials issued by the Dolphins will be honored for admittance to Joe Robbie Stadium.

LOCKER ROOMS: Admission to the home and visiting locker rooms is governed by each individual team. Only media representatives with proper credentials, granting locker room access or those stamped with "Locker Room Access," will be admitted. No one will be admitted to the locker rooms prior to the game. Both teams' locker rooms are located on ground level on the west side of the stadium. From the press box, take the elevator to ground level. Out of the elevator follow corridor to the left and go a quarter of the way around the stadium to locker rooms and interview room.

INTERVIEW ROOM: Coach Shula will hold his post-game press conference immediately following the conclusion of the game in the interview room, which is located on the ground level in the west side of the stadium. From the press box, take the elevator to the ground level. Out of the elevator follow corridor to the left and go a quarter way around the stadium. Turn left into corridor before locker room to interview room.

PARKING: Press parking at Joe Robbie Stadium is very limited. All parking requests must be directed to Harvey Greene, Director of Media Relations, (305-623-6262).

TELEPHONES: Any media member desiring to have their own press box telephone must order it directly from Thania Diaz, Southern Bell Special Services (lines) at (305) 780-2830. Instruments can be ordered from the Dolphins' media relations department, (305-623-6262).

COPY TRANSMISSION: Copy transmission is available at every Dolphin home game. The transmission representative is Tim Lippman, 16541 Blatt Blvd. Apt. 203, Ft. Lauderdale, FL 33326 (305-384-0620).

FIELD ACCESS: Only working newspaper and TV photographers and club/stadium officials are permitted on the field during the game. Press box passes will not be honored for field admittance at any time.

ADVANCING: Generally, the Dolphins request that the opposing team's media relations representative visit training camp on Wednesday to coincide with the weekly media conference call.

PRACTICE: Regular-season practice sessions usually are held at 2:00 p.m. Tuesday through Friday, and at 11:00 a.m. on Saturday (home game). Practices normally are closed to out-of-town media unless special permission is granted by the coaching staff. To request permission, or to arrange any interviews, contact the Dolphins' media relations department. The team locker room is open to the media for 45 minutes (lunchtime) Tuesday through Friday.

FOR MORE INFO: For more information on the Dolphins, contact the media relations department: Harvey Greene, Director of Media Relations, Scott Stone and "Fudge" Browne, Assistant Directors; and Gayle Baden, secretary. Office phone is (305) 623-6262, night numbers is (305) 623-6271/623-6132 and training camp PR numbers are (305) 625-7888 and (305) 625-6491 – switchboard.

TRAINING CAMP: The Dolphins practice at St. Thomas University (formerly Biscayne College) during both the preseason and regular season. The campus is located in North Miami at 16000-D N.W. 32nd Ave.

DIRECTIONS

FT. LAUDERDALE TO TRAINING CAMP: From the north, take I-95 South to 826 West. Follow 826 West to N.W. 27th Ave. exit. When taking exit ramp, proceed straight through the first light (stay in right lane) to the second light and turn left (N.W. 32nd Ave.). The entrance to the University will be about 500 yards down on your right. The guard at the gate will direct you to the Dolphin complex.

MIAMI AIRPORT TO TRAINING CAMP: From the airport, take 836 West to 826 North. Follow to N.W. 37th Ave. exit. When taking exit ramp, proceed straight through first light (stay in right lane) to the second light and turn right (N.W. 32nd Ave.). The entrance to the University will be about 500 yards down on your right. The guard at the gate will direct you to the Dolphin complex.

FROM THE SOUTH TO TRAINING CAMP: From the south, take I-95 North to 826 West. Follow 826 West to N.W. 27th Ave. exit. When taking exit ramp, proceed straight through the first light (stay in right lane) to the second light and turn left (N.W. 32nd Ave.). The entrance to the University will be about 500 yards on your right. The guard at the gate will direct you to the Dolphin complex.

FT. LAUDERDALE TO STADIUM: Take I-95 South to Ives Dairy Road. Proceed west for five miles (name of road changes to 199th Street) and stadium is on right.

MIAMI AIRPORT TO STADIUM: Take I-95 North to Ives Dairy Road. Proceed west for five miles (name of road changes to 199th Street) and stadium is on right.

PERSONNEL GUIDE

WAIVERS: The waiver system is a procedure by which player contracts or NFL rights to players are made available by a club to other NFL clubs. During the procedure, the 27 other clubs either file claims to obtain the players or waive the opportunity to do so — thus the term “waiver”. Claiming clubs are assigned players on a priority based on the inverse of the won-lost standings. The claiming period normally is 10 days during the off-season and 24 hours from early July through December. In some circumstances, a club is allowed another 24 hours to rescind its action (recall of waiver request) and/or the claiming club to do the same (withdrawal of claim). If a player passes through waivers unclaimed and is not recalled by the original club, he becomes a free agent. All waivers from July through December are no recall and no withdrawal. Under the Collective Bargaining Agreement, from February 1 through October 17, any veteran who has acquired four years of pension credit may, if about to be assigned to another club through the waiver system, reject such assignment and become a free agent.

ACTIVE LIST: The Active List is the principal status for players participating for a club. It consists of all players under contract, including option, who are eligible for pre-season, regular-season and post-season games.

In 1989, clubs are allowed to open training camp with no more than 80 players under contract and thereafter must meet the mandatory roster reductions prior to the season opener.

ROSTER CUTDOWN DATES: All clubs must reduce their active roster to 60 players on Aug. 29, 1989, and to the final total of 47 players (listing two as inactive) on Sept. 4, 1989.

ROSTER SIZES: During the 1985-88 seasons, roster size was set at 45 players, the same number it stood at from 1978-81. Between 1982 and 1984, the roster limit was at 49. From 1975-77, each club was allowed to have 43 players on the active roster. The first roster limitation rule went into effect in 1925 (16 players) and rose gradually until it reached 47 in 1974.

DEVELOPMENTAL SQUAD: In 1989, each team may establish a six-player Developmental Squad after the final cutdown to 45 active and two inactive players on September 4. Only rookie and first-year free agents are eligible to be signed to a club's Developmental Squad. Each player will be bound exclusively to the club which signs him until that club chooses to terminate the contract. If a club signs a player on its Developmental Squad to its Active List, it must either use one of its five free activations or request procedural recall waivers. No player may be moved from a club's Active List to its Developmental Squad.

RESERVE LIST: The Reserve List is a status for players who, for reasons of injury, retirement, military service or other circumstances, are not immediately available for participation with a club. Those players in the category of Injured Reserve, who were physically unable to play football for a minimum of four weeks from the date of going onto Reserve, would fall under two practice options:

Option 1: After four weeks on Injured Reserve, the player can practice for two weeks but then must be waived or activated;

Option 2: After six weeks on Injured Reserve, the player can be activated, waived or begin unlimited practice. If practicing, the player must then count against the Developmental Squad of six.

No player is eligible for activation unless he has missed at least six regular season games. Each club has five free reactivations for players on Injured Reserve after the final cutdown. Any player placed on Injured Reserve prior to or concurrent with the final cutdown on September 4, may not return to the club nor practice with the team that year. Clubs participating in post-season competition will be granted an additional re-activation for each post-season game, provided they have exhausted all previous activations. Players who were terminated via waivers from the Club's Injured Reserve list can be resigned after the six game requirement has been fulfilled provided they clear procedural waivers to return to the same club's Active List.

Players in the category of Reserve/Retired, Reserve/Did Not Report, or Reserve/Veteran Free Agent Asked to Re-sign, may not be reinstated during the period from 30 days before the end of the regular season through the post-season.

TRADES: Unrestricted trading is allowed between clubs through the Tuesday following the sixth regular-season game (October 17, 1989) and does not resume again until February 5, 1990.

INSTANT REPLAY

For the fourth consecutive season, NFL clubs have approved a limited system of Instant Replay on a one-year basis.

The system basically stays the same as in 1988. The Replay Official will be assigned a regular officiating crew and will attend crew meetings the day before each game.

In 1988, there were 537 plays closely reviewed (defined as a contact to the field, but not necessarily stoppage of play). There were 53 reversals in 224 games. In 1987, there were 490 plays closely reviewed resulting in 57 reversals in 210 games. In 1986, there were 374 plays closely reviewed resulting in 38 reversals in 224 games.

In 1986, the system was approved by a 23-4-1 vote. In 1987, the vote was 21-7. In 1988, replay was cleared by a 23-5 margin. In 1989, the vote was 24-4.

The NFL has discussed Instant Replay in some degree or other since the early 1970s. The League experimented in 1976 and 1978 using two basic frameworks — an independent system using cameras, replay machines and technicians separate from the network covering the games, and a “no-frills” approach using existing TV coverage.

In 1985, the NFL used the network feed of the nine nationally-televised preseason games to experiment with the basic system which later was adopted for 1986, 1987 and 1988. A total of 28 plays (17 confirmed call, 4 inconclusive, 1 reversed and 6 no replay shown) were examined closely in the 1985 experiment.

What is the objective of this system?

The clubs feel that on certain plays the telecast viewed by the general public should be used to correct an indisputable error. The system will be used to reverse an on-field decision only when the Replay Official has indisputable visual evidence available to him that warrants the change.

Who will be involved?

The Replay Official (a former NFL or collegiate official) will be positioned in a sideline Replay Booth, which will house two TV monitors and two high-speed VCRs plus radio communications to the on-field officials. The Replay Official makes the decision, although a Communicator (normally a member of the League Office staff) is present. A Technician also will be there to lend logistical help.

Why is the system referred to as “limited” Instant Replay?

This system will concentrate on plays of possession or touching (fumbles, receptions, interceptions, muffs) and most plays governed by the sidelines, goal lines, end lines and line of scrimmage (receiver or runner in or out of bounds, forward or backward passes, breaking the plane of the goal line). It also will be used to determine whether there are more than 11 men on the field.

Why aren't most fouls included in this system?

It is recognized that in most circumstances the on-field officials have the best vantage points involving fouls. It is for this reason that Instant Replay will not review a list of the following 26 fouls: clipping; encroachment and offsides; grasp of facemask; false start; defensive pass interference; offensive pass interference; offensive holding and illegal use of hands; illegal batting or punching ball; illegal block on free kick or scrimmage kick; illegal crackback; illegal motion; illegal use of forearm or elbow; illegal use of hands by defense; illegally kicking ball; illegally snapping ball; intentional grounding; member of punting team downfield early; illegal formation; palpably unfair act; piling on; roughing the passer; running into/roughing kicker; striking, kicking or kneeing; unnecessary roughness; unsportsmanlike conduct; and use of helmet as a weapon.

Is the television network carrying the game part of the review process?

No. Although the Replay Official will be viewing the live network feed, there is no communication to television personnel as to which plays to show or not to show.

What is the step-by-step procedure of a play review?

The Replay Official will view game action and a play will be replayed immediately on one of the two monitors, while the other one continues to record the live feed.

The Replay Official makes a determination if further study of the play is needed. If not, there is no contact with the field and play continues without interruption.

If the Replay Official believes an error may have been made the Umpire will be contacted via a headset.

The Replay Official will watch replay(s) on one or both monitors and complete his review within a reasonable period after the play is over.

The Replay Official will inform the Umpire of his decision, and the Referee will make the appropriate announcement on the wireless microphone.

MEDICAL GLOSSARY

AC Joint – Acromioclavicular joint; joint of the shoulder where acromion process of the scapula and the distal end of the clavicle meet; most shoulder separations occur at this point.

Abduct – Movement of any extremity away from the midline of the body. This action is achieved by an abductor muscle.

Abrasion – Any injury which rubs off the surface of the skin.

Abscess – An infection which produces pus; can be the result of a blister, callus, penetrating wound or laceration.

Adduct – Movement of an extremity toward the midline of the body. This action is achieved by an adductor muscle.

Adhesion – Abnormal adherence of collagen fibers to surrounding structures during immobilization following trauma or as a complication of surgery which restricts normal elasticity of the structures involved.

Aerobic – Exercise in which energy needed is supplied by oxygen inspired and is required for sustained periods of vigorous exercise with a continually high pulse rate.

Anabolic Steroids – Steroids that promote tissue growth by creating protein in an attempt to enhance muscle growth. The main anabolic steroid is testosterone (male sex hormone).

Anaerobic – Exercise without use of oxygen as an energy source; short bursts of vigorous exercises.

Anaphylactic Shock – Shock that is caused by an allergic reaction.

Anterior Compartment Syndrome – Condition in which swelling within the anterior compartment of the lower leg jeopardizes the viability of muscles, nerves and arteries that serve the foot. In severe cases, emergency surgery is necessary to relieve the swelling and pressure.

Anterior Cruciate Ligament (ACL) – A primary stabilizing ligament within the center of the knee joint that prevents hyperextension and excessive rotation of the joint. A complete tear of the ACL necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.

Anterior Talofibular Ligament – A ligament of the ankle that connects the fibula (lateral ankle bone) to the talus. This ligament is oft times subject to sprain.

Anti-Inflammatory – Any agent which prevents inflammation, such as aspirin or ibuprofen.

Anterogram – A film demonstrating arteries after injection of a dye.

Arthrogram – X-ray technique for joints using air and/or dye injected into the affected area; useful in diagnosing meniscus tears of the knee and rotator cuff tears of the shoulder.

Arthroscope – An instrument used to visualize the interior of a joint cavity.

Arthroscopy – A surgical examination of the internal structures of a joint by means for viewing through an arthroscope. An arthroscopic procedure can be used to remove or repair damaged tissue or as a diagnostic procedure in order to inspect the extent of any damage or confirm a diagnosis.

Aspiration – The withdrawal of fluid from a body cavity by means of a suction or siphonage apparatus, such as a syringe.

Atrophy – To shrivel or shrink from disuse, as in muscular atrophy.

Avulsion – The tearing away, forcibly, of a part or structure.

Baker's Cyst – Localized swelling of a bursa sac in the posterior knee as a result of fluid that has escaped from the knee capsule. A Baker's cyst indicates that there is a trauma inside the knee joint that leads to excessive fluid production.

Bone Scan – An imaging procedure in which a radioactive-labeled substance is injected into the body to determine the status of a bony injury. If the radioactive substance is taken up the bone at the injury site, the injury will show as a "hot spot" on the scan image. The bone scan is particularly useful in the diagnosis of stress fractures.

Brachial Plexus – Network of nerves originating from the cervical vertebrae and running down to the shoulder, arm, hand, and fingers.

Bruise – A discoloration of the skin due to an extravasation of blood into the underlying tissues.

Bursa – A fluid-filled sac that is located in areas where friction is likely to occur, then minimizes the friction; for example between a tendon and bone.

Capsule – An enclosing structure which surrounds the joint and contains ligaments which stabilize that joint.

Cartilage – Smooth, slippery substance preventing two ends of bones from rubbing together and grating.

CAT Scan – Use of a computer to produce a cross sectional view of the anatomical part being investigated from X-ray data.

Cellulitis – Inflammation of cellular or connective tissue.

Cervical Vertebrae – Group of seven vertebrae located in the neck.

Charley Horse – A contusion or bruise to any muscle resulting in intramuscular bleeding. No other injury should be called a charley horse.

Colles' Fracture – A fracture of the distal end of the radius with the lower end being displaced backward.

Concentric Muscle Contraction – A shortening of the muscle as it develops tension and contracts to move a resistance.

Concussion – Jarring injury of the brain resulting in dysfunction. It can be graded as mild, moderate or severe depending on loss of consciousness, amnesia and loss of equilibrium.

Contusion – An injury to a muscle and tissues caused by a blow from a blunt object.

Cortical Steroids – Used to suppress joint inflammation.

Degenerative Joint Disease – Changes in the joint surfaces as a result of repetitive trauma.

Deltoid Ligament – Ligament that connects the tibia to bones of the medial aspect of the foot and is primarily responsible for stability of the ankle on the medial side. Is sprained less frequently than other ankle ligaments.

Deltoid Muscle – Muscles at top of the arm, just below the shoulder, responsible for shoulder motions to the front, side and back.

Disc, Intervertebral – A flat, rounded plate between each vertebrae of the spine. The disc consists of a thick fiber ring which surrounds a soft gel-like interior. It functions as a cushion and shock absorber for the spinal column.

Dislocation – Complete displacement of joint surfaces.

Eccentric Muscle Contraction – An overall lengthening of the muscle as it develops tension and contracts to control motion performed by an outside force; oft times referred to a "negative" contraction in weight training.

Eccymosis – Bleeding into the surface tissue below the skin, resulting in a "black and blue" effect.

Edema – Accumulation of fluid in organs and tissues of the body; swelling.

Effusion – Accumulation of fluid, in various spaces in the body, or the knee itself. Commonly, the knee has an effusion after an injury.

Electrical Galvanic Stimulation (EGS) – An electrical therapeutic modality that sends a current to the body at select voltages and frequencies in order to stimulate pain receptors, disperse edema, or neutralize muscle spasms among other functional applications.

Electromyogram (EMG) – Test to determine nerve function.

Epicondylitis – Inflammation in the elbow due to overuse.

Ethyl Chloride – "Cold spray," a chemical coolant sprayed onto an injury site to produce a local, mild anesthesia.

Fat Percentage – The amount of body weight that is adipose, fat tissue. Fat percentages can be calculated by underwater weighing, measuring select skinfold thickness, or by analyzing electrical impedance.

Femur – Thigh bone; longest bone in the body.

Fibula – Smaller of the two bones in the lower leg; runs from knee to the ankle along the outside of the lower leg.

Flexibility – The ability of muscle to relax and yield to stretch forces.

Flexibility Exercise – General term used to describe exercise performed by a player to passively or actively elongate soft tissue without the assistance of an athletic trainer.

Fracture – Breach in continuity of a bone. Types of fractures include simple, compound, comminuted, greenstick, incomplete, impacted, longitudinal, oblique, stress, or transverse.

Gamekeeper's Thumb – Tear of the ulnar collateral ligament of the metacarpophalangeal joint of the thumb.

Glycogen – Form in which foods are stored in the body as energy.

Grade One Injury – A mild injury in which ligament, tendon, or other musculoskeletal tissue may have been stretched or contused, but not torn or otherwise disrupted.

Grade Two Injury – A moderate injury when musculoskeletal tissue has been partially, but not totally, torn which causes appreciable limitation in function of the injured tissue.

Grade Three Injury – A severe injury in which tissue has been significantly, and in some cases totally, torn or otherwise disrupted causing a virtual total loss of function.

Hamstring – Category of muscle that runs from the buttocks to the knee along the back of the thigh. It functions to flex the knee, and is oft times injured as a result of improper conditioning or lack of muscle flexibility.

Heat Cramps – Painful muscle spasms of the arms or legs caused by excessive body heat and depletion of fluids and electrolytes.

Heat Exhaustion – Mild form of shock due to dehydration because of excessive sweating when exposed to heat and humidity.

Heat Stroke – Condition of rapidly rising internal body temperature that overwhelms the body's mechanisms for release of heat and could result in death if not cared for appropriately.

Heel Cup – Orthotic device that is inserted into the shoe and worn under the heel to give support to the Achilles tendon and help absorb impacts at the heel.

Hematoma – Tumor-like mass produced by an accumulation of coagulated blood in a cavity.

Hot Pack – Chemical pack that rests in water, approximately 160 degrees, and retains its heat for 15-20 minutes when placed in a towel for general therapeutic application.

Humerus – Bone of the upper arm that runs from the shoulder to the elbow.

Hyperextension – Extreme extension of a limb or body part.

Iliotibial Band – A thick, wide fascial layer that runs from the iliac crest to the knee joint and is occasionally inflamed as a result of excessive running.

Inflammation – The body's natural response to injury in which the injury site might display various degrees of pain, sweating, heat, redness, and/or loss of function.

Internal Rotation – Rotation of a joint or extremity medially, to the inside.

Lesion – Wound, injury or tumor.

Ligament – Band of fibrous tissue that connects bone to bone or bone to cartilage and supports and strengthens joints.

Lumbar Vertebrae – Five vertebrae of the lower back that articulate with the sacrum to form the lumbosacral joint.

Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI) – Imaging procedure in which a radio frequency pulse causes certain electrical elements of the injured tissue to react to this pulse and through this process a computer display and permanent film establish a visual image. MRI does not require radiation and is very useful in the diagnosis of soft tissue, disc, and meniscus injuries.

Meniscectomy – An intra-articular surgical procedure of the knee by which all or part of the damaged meniscus is removed.

Meniscus – Crescent shaped cartilage, usually pertaining to the knee joint; also known as "cartilage." There are two menisci in the knee, medial and lateral. These work to absorb weight within the knee and provide stability.

Metacarpals – Five long bones of the hand, running from the wrist to the fingers.

Myositis – Inflammation of a muscle.

Necrotic – Relating to death of a portion of tissue.

Neoprene – Lightweight rubber used in joint and muscle sleeves designed to provide support and/or insulation and heat retention to the area.

Neuritis – Inflammation of a nerve.

Orthotic – Any device applied to or around the body in the care of physical impairment or disability, commonly used to control foot mechanics.

Parasthesia – Sensation of numbness or tingling, indicating nerve irritation.

Patella – The kneecap. The patella functions to protect the distal end of the femur as well as increase the mechanical advantage and force generating capacities of the quadriceps muscle group.

Patella Tendinitis – Inflammation of the patella ligament; also known as "jumper's knee."

Patellofemoral Joint – Articulation of the kneecap and femur. Inflammation of this joint can occur through: 1) acute injury to the patella, 2) overuse from excessive running particularly if there is an associated knee weakness, 3) chronic wear and tear of the knee, 4) as a result of poor foot mechanics. Patellofemoral irritation can lead to chondromalacia, which in its most chronic condition, could require surgery.

Peroneal Muscles – Group of muscles of the lateral lower leg that are responsible for everting the knee. Tendons of these three muscles are vital to the stability of the ankle and foot.

Phlebitis – Inflammation of a vein.

Plica – Fold of tissue in the joint capsule and a common result of knee injury.

Posterior Cruciate Ligament (PCL) – A primary stabilizing ligament of the knee that provides significant stability and prevents displacement of the tibia backward within the knee joint. A complete tear of this ligament necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.

Quadricep Muscles "Quads" – A group of four muscles of the front thigh that run from the hip and form a common tendon at the patella; they are responsible for knee extension.

Radiography – Taking of X-rays.

Radius – Forearm bone on the thumb side.

Reconstruction – Surgical rebuilding of a joint using natural, artificial or transplanted materials.

Referred Pain – Pain felt in an undamaged area of body away from the actual injury.

Retraction – The moving of tissue to expose a part or structure of the body.

Rotator Cuff – Comprised of four muscles in the shoulder area that can be irritated by overuse. The muscles are the supraspinatus (most commonly injured), infraspinatus, teres minor, and subscapularis.

Rotator Cuff Impingement Syndrome – A microtrauma or overuse injury caused by stress, and the four stages are: 1) Tendinitis with temporary thickening of the bursa and rotator cuff; 2) Fiber dissociation in the tendon with permanent thickening of the bursa and scar formation; 3) A partial rotator cuff tear of less than 1 cm.; and 4) A complete tear of 1 cm. or more.

Sacrum – Group of five fused vertebrae located just below the lumbar vertebrae of the low back.

Scapula – Shoulder blade.

Sciatica – Irritation of the sciatic nerve resulting in pain or tingling running down the inside of the leg.

Sciatic Nerve – Major nerve that carries impulses for muscular action and sensations between the low back and thigh and lower leg; it is the longest nerve in the body.

Shin Splint – A catch-all syndrome describing pain in the shin that is not a fracture or tumor and cannot be defined otherwise.

Sorbothane – An energy absorbing polyurethane utilized in some foot orthotics to absorb shock forces of the foot.

Spasm (Theory) – Muscle soreness induced by exercise; is the result of reduced muscle blood flow, which results in pain.

Spleen – Large, solid organ responsible for the normal production and destruction of blood cells.

Spondylitis – Inflammation of one or more vertebrae.

Spondylolisthesis – Forward displacement of one vertebrae over another below it due to a developmental defect in the vertebrae.

Spondylosis – Abnormal vertebral fixation or immobility.

Sprain – Injury resulting from a stretch or twist of the joint and causes various degrees of stretch or tear of a ligament or other soft tissue at the joint.

Sternum – The breast bone.

Steroids – Any one of a large number of hormone-like substances. See Anabolic steroids and cortical steroids.

Strain – Injury resulting from a pull or torsion to the muscle or tendon that causes various degrees of stretch or tear to the muscle or tendon tissue.

Stress Fracture – A hair-line type of break in a bone caused by overuse.

Stress X-ray – A continual X-ray taken when a portion of the body is stressed to its maximum in order to determine joint stability. This is a test utilized in some ankle injuries.

Stretching – Any therapeutic maneuver designed to elongate shortened soft tissue structures and thereby increase flexibility.

Subluxation – Partial dislocation of a joint. The term usually implies that the joint can return to its normal position without formal reduction.

Talus – The ankle bone that articulates with the tibia and fibula to form the ankle joint.

Target Heart Rate – A pre-determined pulse to be obtained during exercise when circulation is working at full efficient capacities.

Tarsals – Group of seven bones of the foot consisting of the calcaneal, talus, cuboid and three cuneiform bones.

Temporomandibular Joint (TMJ) – The articulation of the jaw and skull; considered by some to be vital in resolution of injuries throughout the body.

Tendinitis – Inflammation of the tendon and/or tendon sheath, caused by chronic overuse or sudden injury.

Tendon – Tissue that connects muscle to bone.

Tennis Elbow – General term for lateral elbow pain.

Thoracic – Group of twelve vertebrae located in the thorax and articulate with the twelve ribs.

Thoracic Outlet Compression Syndrome – A neuro-vascular disorder of the upper extremity common in throwing.

Tibia – Larger of the two bones of the lower leg and is the weight-bearing bone of the shin.

Tomograph – A special type of X-ray apparatus that demonstrates an organ or tissue at a particular depth.

Trachea – The windpipe.

Transcutaneous Electrical Nerve Stimulator (TENS) – An electrical modality that sends a mild current through pads at the injury site which stimulates the brain to release the natural analgesic, endorphin.

Transverse Process – Small lateral projection off the right side and left side of each vertebrae that functions as an attachment site for muscles and ligaments of the spine.

Trapezius – Flat triangular muscle covering the posterior surface of the neck and shoulder.

Triceps – Muscle of the back of the upper arm, primarily responsible for extending the elbow.

Ulna – Forearm bone that runs from the tip of the elbow to the little finger side of the wrist.

Ulnar Nerve – Nerve in elbow commonly irritated from excessive throwing.

Ultrasound – An electrical modality that transmits a sound wave through an applicator into the skin to the soft tissue in order to heat the local area for relaxing the injured tissue and/or disperse edema.

Valgus – Angulation outward and away from the midline of the body.

Varus – Angulation inward and toward the midline of the body.

Vasoconstriction – Decrease of local blood flow.

Vasodilation – Increase of local blood flow.

1989 NFL RULES CHANGES

Instant Replay will return for the 1989 NFL season.

At the NFL annual meeting in March at Palm Desert, California, club owners, for the fourth consecutive year, voted to utilize a limited Instant Replay system as an officiating aid. The vote was 24-4.

Replay was first adopted in 1986. It is used if there is indisputable visual evidence on videotape of an obvious error by a field official on plays limited to possession and goal line and out-of-bounds decisions.

The Replay system in 1989 remains the same as the 1988 version when the Instant Replay official was assigned to work with the same seven-man, on-the-field crew throughout the regular season.

In other action, a joint proposal by the Long-Range Planning and Finance committees regarding player personnel also was adopted. The committees' recommendation for the first time sets offseason roster limits and the creation of a developmental squad. It also addressed roster cutdown dates and injured reserve. The teams agreed:

- Until May 31: No more than 90 players under contract.

- June 1: No more than 80 players under contract.

- Roster cutdown to 60 players after third preseason game (August 29).

- Roster cutdown to 47 players Monday (September 4) prior to regular-season opener.

- Regular-season game roster of 45 players plus two inactive.

- Developmental squad of six players maximum per club established after final cut to 47 and comprised of only rookies/first-year players who have passed through waivers.

- Players placed on injured reserve during the preseason may not return to same club that year; also may not practice.

- Players placed on injured reserve after the final cut may return after six games by free reactivation (each club has five) or procedural-recall waivers.

- Two practice options: Option 1: After four weeks on injured reserve, player can practice for two weeks, then club must waive or activate; Option 2: After six weeks on injured reserve, player can be activated, waived, or begin unlimited practice. If practicing, player must count against developmental squad total of six.

Also, the NFL clubs approved the following:

- Further clarified the roughing-the-passer rule by prohibiting a defender who has an unrestricted path to the quarterback from flagrantly hitting him in the area of the knees when approaching from any direction.

- Specified that fouls which occur in the last five minutes of the fourth quarter as well as the last two minutes of the first half will result in the clock starting on the snap.

- Called for strong disciplinary measures against feigned injuries.

- Any entering substitute who participates in a play must enter while the ball is dead and must move onto the field as far as the inside field numerals; in addition, the player or players replaced must have cleared the field on their own side (between end lines) prior to the snap or free kick.

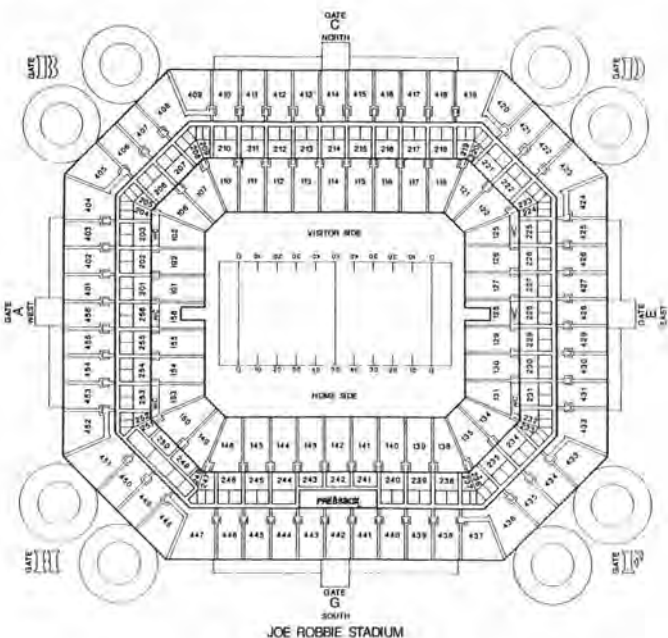

- Established a new set of procedures, including loss of team timeouts or a five-yard penalty on the defense, to handle the problem of crowd noise which prevents the offense from hearing its signals.

- Further liberalized blocking rule to permit a blocker to initially contact on or outside the opponent's frame of the body so long as the blocker works to bring his hands back on or inside the frame after initial contact.

- Changed the simultaneous catch rule so that the offensive or defensive player who first controls and continues to maintain control of a pass will be awarded the ball even though his opponent later establishes joint control of the ball.

- Prohibited the offense, while in the process of substitution or simulated substitution, from rushing quickly to the line and snapping the ball with the obvious attempt to cause a defensive foul. In such an instance, the umpire shall hold the snap, giving the defense a reasonable time to complete its substitution or if a defensive foul results, the flag will be picked up and the down replayed.
